TOWANDA, PA., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 1881.

PRICE ONE CENT.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Personal.

JOSEPH MARSHALL returned from a visit to the West Branch yesterday.

Mrs. PATRICK, her son WILLIE and Prof. ROBBINS, have returned from Mt. Clemmens, Mich.

ORNAL KELLOGG, of the Elwell House, has sold his valuable team of matched blacks to HOYT Brothers of New York.

CLARENCE W. NEVINS, of HORTON'S Bank, New York, is spending a short vacation with his parents on Chestnut street.

G. N. BEERS, of Orwell, was in town yesterday, looking just as natural as when he used to bring the mail in from the east every day.

Judge STALFORD and wife, of Browntown, went on the late excursion to New York—but their objective point was Ridgfield, Ct., where their son FRANK lives.

Mrs. BEERS, SUSIE, HENRY and ELEANOR left on No. 7 yesterday a. m., intending to spend the afternoon at Rev. Mr. SROUB'S in Tunkhannock, and to go on to Connecticut early this morning.

Immediately after the nomination of Capt. HORTON for Sheriff, Dr. NEWELL sent a dispatch to his wife in Wyandusing, announcing the fact, and the village flag was raised in honor of the event. At Terrytown people gave expression to their joy by the firing of cannon.

GOING TO OTHER FIELDS.—Sunday next the Rev. JOHN S. BEERS will preach his farewell sermon in Christ's Church, this place. The Rev. Mr. BEERS has officiated here during the past five years with great success. During his ministry the church edifice was much improved and enlarged, and many communicants added to the congregation. This was only accomplished by great industry and labor on the part of the minister, who has been indefatigable in building up the Episcopal interest in Towanda and vicinity. During this time our people have learned to highly esteem the reverend gentleman, and his friends have constantly increased. But he believes he is called to other fields of labor, and a large congregation universally regrets his departure. No minister who ever had charge of this parish will go from among us with so universal feeling of sorrow for his departure. He leaves the church and congregation in a much more prosperous condition than he found it, and we only hope he may find as many friends elsewhere as he has here. He has been a good and faithful servant of the Master and people. We wish him the greatest of success in Massachusetts, where he will go from here.—Argus.

ORANGE BLOSSOMS.—For the first time in many months Towanda social circles were yesterday excited by a brilliant wedding. The "high contracting parties" were Mr. JOHN D. STBYKER, of the First National Bank of this place, and Miss SUSIE MORGAN, daughter of the late W. H. MORGAN. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. STEWART, at the Presbyterian Church, in the presence of a large company. At a little after two p. m., the doors were thrown open and the invited guests were seated by the ushers, while the organist was discoursing appropriate music. Precisely at 2:30 the bride and groom entered the Church and proceeded up the aisle accompanied by the ushers, and took their places on an improvised platform in front of and covering the pulpit. Doctor STEWART conducted the beautiful and impressive service, faultlessly; meanwhile the organ pealed forth music so soft and sweet that it almost added enchantment to the scene. The pulpit was artistically decorated with unique floral designs, above which a star of gas jets shone brightly. Suspended over the heads of the bride and groom was a parasol composed of evergreen, flanked on either side by a white dove and surmounted by a floral double knot. At the close of the ceremony the bridal party accompanied by a goodly number of relatives, proceeded to the residence of Mrs. MORGAN, on Main street, where a collation was spread, and several hours were pleasantly spent in social enjoyment. Mr. and Mrs. STRYKER left on No. 2, last evening, for a short trip, after which they will return here and settle down as staid, sensible married people.

The ushers were, SAM. W. BUCK, B. T. HALE, Dr. C. M. PRATT and B. W. WELLINGTON.

Prof. KNAUFF, the gentleman who built the organ, presided at the instrument and produced the most exquisite music.

At the close of the banquet, and while the young couple were taking their departure for the train, they were showered with old shoes, rice, &c., in token of the best wishes of their friends.

No school to-day. Teachers have all gone to Association at New Albany.

The Musical Club, consisting of E. Walker, jr., H. Stulen, Charles Hosmer, Lil Thomas, George Stevens, Bigler Storrs, James Bennett, Will Stevens, Julius Eilenberga, Geo. Homet, Oliver Gilbert, and Samuel Zeigler, with Nat Young, as cook, are in the "Jolly Fellows Camp" at the mouth of Sugar Run creek. They will remain until Monday, when they break camp. B. Sept. 8.

The President's Condition.

The President Recovers from the Fatigue of the Journey.

MARKED IMPROVEMENT.

A decided gain in the President's condition yesterday was gratifying evidence of the wisdom of his not too early removal to the seashore. The invigorating sea air has had the desired effect. Let us hope and pray that with God's blessing the improvement begun may be uninterrupted, and that his complete restoration may be speedy.

At ten o'clock last evening he was sleeping soundly.

OFFICIAL BULLETINS.

LONG BRANCH, SEPT. 8, 1881.

8:30 A. M.

At the morning examination made at 8 o'clock the President's pulse was 104; temperature 98.7; respiration 18. He was restless and wakeful during the early part of the night but after 12 midnight slept well until morning. His general condition appears more encouraging.

6:30, P. M.

At 12 m., to-day the President's temperature was 98.4; pulse, 94; respiration, 17. At the evening dressing at 5:30 p. m., temperature, 99.1; pulse, 100; respiration, 18. He has taken a liberal amount of food, both solid and fluid, with apparent relish. By a special request of the President it has been made our duty to say in this public manner to Surgeon General J. K. Barnes, Surgeon J. J. Woodward and Doctor Robert Reyburn, that in dispensing with their services as his medical attendants, he was actuated only by a wish to relieve them of labor and responsibility, which, in his improved condition, he could no longer impose upon them. Both the President and Mrs. Garfield desire to express to these gentlemen personally and in the same public manner, their high appreciation of the great skill and discretion which they have so constantly exercised as associate council in the management of his case up to the present time.

[Signed.]

BLISS.
HAMILTON.

The republican State convention at Harrisburg yesterday, passed off very quietly if not harmoniously. Secretary Quay was temporary and General Harry White permanent chairman. Gen. Baily was nominated for State Treasurer by a vote of 157 to 84 for Davies.
