Personal.

G. S. ACKLEY and wife are both sick.
HENRY MERCUR, we regret to learn is confined to his house with a painful attack of rheumatism.
Mr. and Mrs. HIRAM MCGILL, who have been spending the summer in Susquehanna County are home again.

Mr. S. P. WHITCOMB is enjoying a visit from his mother, and his sister, Mrs. DORIS, her husband and children, of Boston.

DAL SWEET, of Monroeton, has been appointed a member of the Republican State Central Committee. A good selection.

Mrs. Dr. MONTANYE has been very low for several days and all hope of recovery has passed away. Her death may occur any moment.

ED DEAN, who is managing his father's farm and superintending the erection of a new house on it, in South Creek, was in town yesterday.

Miss JENNIE DOUGLASS, of Towanda, has been visiting Misses ADDIE and JENNIE KINNEY for a few weeks or so past.—Athens Gazette.

If any of our Borough subscribers fail to receive their papers regularly, we shall be glad to be informed of the fact so that the oversight may be corrected.

HARRY SEAMAN, who came here on Monday to bury a child returned to his home in Harrisburg this morning. Mrs. S. will stay several weeks with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. E. A. COOLBAUGH, of WYSOX.

Miss MARY FOSTER, daughter of the late Rev. JULIUS FOSTER, for so many years the faithful and beloved pastor of the Presbyterian church in this place, is making a short visit in town as the guest of Mr. BETTS' family. Miss F. removed from Towanda some years ago but still has many friends here who will be pleased to meet her.

To-morrow completes the fifth year of the pastorate of Rev. J. S. BEERS, as rector of Christ Church, and in his morning discourse he will take formal leave of the congregation, whom he has served faithfully for that period, having accepted a call to a larger field in Massachusetts. The congregation will be very fortunate if they secure a successor equal to him in all respects.

Under the caption, "A model Railroad Officer—W. H. KENTNER, Station Agent at Wyalusing, Pa.," the Elmira Advertiser prints the subjoined biographical sketch of our friend KENTNER, of Wyalusing:

Among the many station agents of the Lehigh Valley Railroad there is none more popular with the officers, employees and traveling public than W. H. KENTNER of Wyalusing. There is in the character of Mr. KENTNER something bona fide, straight forward and progressive, the elements making a good subject to write up, which by the way, is done without solicitation.

He was born at Mehoopany in 1843, raised upon a farm but in early life learned the trade of a carpenter and joiner, which he successfully carried on some years, running a gang of men and doing some first-class jobs. At the breaking out of the rebellion he enlisted in the 143d Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers, in which he served a while, but was detailed to the sharpshooters, with which he remained till close of the war, participating in the leading battles of the Army of the Potomac, such as the Wilderness, Spotsylvania Cold Harbor, Petersburg, Fredericksburg, Hatch's Run, &c. He was often in the thickest of the fight, yet escaped wounds and came out in good health. Promotion was offered him for gallantry and faithful services, but he preferred to stick to the boys in the ranks sharing their privations and hardships, with the occasional fun and frolic, rather than don the straps and step up. Returning home at the close of the war he soon took the agency of the Mehoopany depot, remaining there some seven years, when a vacancy occurred at Wyalusing in 1877, occasioned by the death of Charles Lum. The office being an important one and the business rapidly increasing, a man of good business tact and capacity was sought to occupy the position and it fell to the lot of Mr. K., and he at once took the new field.

Mr. K's long experience in railroading has familiarized him with all the phases and workings of the system, making him to-day one of the best posted men in the general and detail routine of railroad business found on the line. Courteous, exact, prompt and systematic, his depot is always neat and inviting and everything in order, while his corps of aids—C. D. LYON, day operator; Frank Kentner, night operator, and R. B. Vaughn, baggage master—are all lively and wide-awake boys, and keeping the premises "neat as wax," and waiting on the public with courtesy and despatch. Mr. K. worships at the M. E. Church, whose flourishing Sunday school he superintends, looking after the interest of the school with the same spirit and enterprise that marks his railroad life. He is identified with all worthy and benevolent movements of the road and village. The several excursions so successfully run from his place, affording pleasure and profit to all concerned, were inaugurated and principally managed by him. He votes as he fought; and reads with unabating interest the ADVERTISER, it being his favorite political paper. Mr. K. is much attached to the growing village of Wyalusing, and hopes he is permanently located there; but promotion awaits men of his calibre, and it is only a matter of time for him to be transferred to a higher position, such as his ability, capacity and enterprise warrants him holding.

Free Clam Chowder lunch at TIDD'S to-night.

Rev. H. CHANDLER, of Sylvania, will preach at the Church of the Messiah, to-morrow morning at 10:30, and at the Universalist Church, Sheshequin, at 7:30 p. m.

THE DOCTORS.—Only two Physicians registered yesterday!

HIRAM LISCOM KNAPP, M. D., Windham; Cincinnati College of Medicine and Surgery, 1860.

FREDERICK WILLIAM BROWN, M. D. Athens borough; University of New York, 1864.

The Boston Ideal Company, in their play of Uncle Tom's Cabin, at Daniel's Hall, on Tuesday evening, drew the largest house of any company that has played here this season. Doubtless their popular prices had much to do with filling the house, but the entertainment was a good one and gave entire satisfaction. Miss Blanche Slader as Topsy was excellent, this part being sustained in better style than has herebefore been seen here. Aside from the regular play the variety entertainment was well conceived and very amusing, particularly the part of the Yankee by Yankee Knight. Eva, taken by a little girl of three or four years, was remarkably well personated. The troupe is deserving of patronage.—Seneca County Courier.

This celebrated troupe are billed for Mercur Hall on Tuesday evening, September 13th.

Religious services will be held at McKee's Hall, West Warren, on Saturday evening September 10th, at 7:30, Rev. M. KINGSBURY of Vermont, officiating. Subject, "Salvation for all."

THE VERY LATEST—Styles in men's, children's and boys' suits, overcoats and furnishing goods can be found at Jacob's Clothing House as he has just opened an immense stock of Fall and Winter goods.

FOUND, in the road between Myersburg and my house, Saturday, September 3, a pocket book containing quite a sum of money. The owner can have it by calling on me and paying for this notice.

STEPHEN STRICKLAND,
Wysox, Sept. 5, 1881.

Ed. MOUILLESSEUX, our enterprising Jeweller has just secured the agency for the John Foley Celebrated "Bank" Gold Pens. It is generally conceded by all Dealers that it has no equal in the market, and it will pay whoever is in need of a good Pen to examine Ed's stock before purchasing elsewhere. He has also put in stock the celebrated "Diamond Pointed Stylographic Pen" or "Ink Pen;" call the wonder of the age. Call and see it. 1w.

METEOROLOGICAL.—The thermometer at Dr. H. C. PORTER & SON'S Drug Store, at the corner of Main and Pine streets, indicated as follows:

SEPTEMBER 9.
6 a. m.—72 deg. above zero. 9 a. m.—75; 12 m.—81; 3 p. m.—83; 6 p. m.—83; 9 p. m.—79.
Average temperature during the day—78.

SEPTEMBER 10.
6 a. m.—70 degs. above zero.

WEATHER INDICATIONS FOR TO-DAY.—Partly cloudy, with rain; southerly, shifting to northerly winds; stationary or lower barometer and temperature.

The President's Condition.

The news from the President is still of the most encouraging nature. The improvement continued yesterday, and up to midnight he was resting well. Dr. Bliss had retired and did not expect to be disturbed till morning.

OFFICIAL BULLETINS.

LONG BRANCH, SEPT. 8, 1881.
8:30 A. M.

At the examination of the President at 8:30 this morning the temperature was found to be 98.5, pulse 100, respiration 17. The condition of the parotid and the wound are improving. He was somewhat wakeful during the night, but not restless, and slept sufficiently. Enemata and stimulants have been suspended during the past thirty-six hours. On the whole the past twenty-four hours give evidence of favorable progress.

[Signed] BLISS,
HAMILTON.
6, P. M.

At the examination of the President at 12 m., to-day, the temperature was 98.4; pulse, 100; respiration, 17. At the evening dressing, at 5:30 p. m., temperature, 98; pulse, 100; respiration, 17. It is believed, without referring to the records, that this is the first day since the development of traumatic fever that temperature, pulse and respiration have been so nearly normal and uniform throughout the entire day.

[Signed.] BLISS,
HAMILTON.
AGNEW.

Sidney Lanier, the poet died in Linn, N. C., yesterday.

The widow of Bishop Kerfoot has been presented with a handsome residence in Pittsburg by several members of Trinity church of that city.

The Texas Pacific railroad has been completed to a point 449 miles west of Dallas and track laying is progressing at the rate of two miles a day.

It is predicted that a great movement among the Nihilists in Russia will occur in two or three months. The Czar is not disturbed by the announcement.

A gentleman whose veracity is vouched for by the Columbus, Ohio, Journal, writes to that paper that he has positive knowledge of Tilden's decision to open a barrel in Ohio.

Gen. Grant received an ovation at the hands of the soldiers and sailors of Bloomington, Ill., yesterday afternoon. After the review the horses were taken from his carriage by the enthusiastic soldiers who pulled the vehicle to the camp headquarters.

The great iron bridge that is to be built over the Kinzua creek, eighteen miles south of Bradford M'Kean county, is said will be the largest in the world when completed. It is for the extension of the Erie railway into Elk county and will be over 300 feet high and 2,000 feet in length.
