The war in railway passenger rates is renewed with greater vigor than ever. The gauge thrown down by Mr Vanderbilt has been taken up by all the competitive companies, and the low rates offered by the Central lines are underbid by the Grand Trunk, the Pennsylvania and the Baltimore and Ohio. The strife opens in the West this time and takes a wider range than the earlier contests, at least one of the lines selling round trip tickets to Boston, good for thirty days at $10. Owing to the arbitrary rates charged from New York, passengers from Chicago to Boston over the Pennsylvania road will be carried from Chicago to New York for 25 cents. The bare statement is sufficient to prove that at least one participant in the fight will do business for the mere fun of doing it. The stockholders may not like that style of management, but what do stockholders know about running railroads? At any rate the good time coming for travelers may safely be said to be here for a while.

By his unwise, selfish course, Mr. Wolfe, should he remain in the field and defeat Baily, will do more to retard the independent movement in the Republican party than all the aid he has ever contributed to it. Moreover his conduct exhibits bad faith toward those who were associated with him. His independent colleagues almost unanimously deprecate his position. He has put himself outside the pal of the party organization, and thus put it out of his power to advance the cause he professes to espouse.

Allentown, this State will in a short time have the most complete and extensive silk works in the United States. The Adelaide Mills will, in a few days, go into operation, and will employ 800 hands. The works, including machinery will have cost when completed $250,000. The idea was conceived by the Board of Trade which induced prominent citizens to take hold of it. It will give employment principally to women and girls for whom there has been heretofore no steady employment.

The London Daily News says: "A committee of the templar mission, in concert with the anti-slavery society, has arranged to give a public breakfast on Thursday in honor of the colored bishops and other representatives of the African Methodist churches of America now attending the ecumenical conference. The object of the promoters of the breakfast is to make a demonstration in favor of the principle of the social equality of the white and colored races."

The recent statements concerning the prevalence of color blindness do not hold true among pilots. The annual report of the Supervising Surgeon General of the Marine Hospital Service states that during the past year 4,384 pilots have been examined, only 116 of whom were found to be color-blind. This is a proportion of about a quarter of one per cent., which can not be considered large.

The State Millers' Association convened in annual session at the Monongahela Hotel, Pittsburg, Wednesday afternoon. Delegates from all parts of the State were present. In the evening there was an election of officers resulting in the choice of Charles A. Miner, of Wilkesbarre, as president and B. F. Isenberg of Huntingdon, secretary and treasurer.

Gen. Hancock was yesterday elected President of the Aztec Club, and Gen. Grant, Vice President. At the banquet, Walters, of the London Times, expressed sympathy with Garfield. He said the heartfelt prayers of the English masses from the lowest cottage to the noble alike were offered up for his speedy recovery.

The celebrated caterer, Delmonico, not only knew how to keep a hotel, but also how to keep the fortune it brought him. His will disposes of property amounting to $2,000,000, and is notable for the thoughtfulness with which his family even to distant relatives are remembered.

The pride with which we look on our fifty million census may be humbled a little in observing that India's recent count shows a quarter of a billion of inhabitants—as many as five populations of the United States put together.

It transpires that Mr. Ludlow, the Prohibition candidate for Governor of Ohio, is a manufacturer of wine and cider presses and the temperance people demand his withdrawal.

Hon. George Landon, of this county offered a prohibitory resolution in the late Republican State Convention, but it was defeated in committee by a vote of one majority.
