The first annual fair of the Lackawanna Agricultural Society will be held at Scranton, September 27th to 30th inclusive.

The officers of the Associations are well known business men in the county, and they are making every effort to insure a grand success for the opening fair.

MONROE MISHAPS.—Last evening as Willis Cole was leading a favorite pet of a young horse to water, he confidentially gave the colt the long end of the halter; when the colt shook hands with him by the heels, badly fracturing that bone of the lower limb called by the Esculapians, tibia, midway between the knee and ankle.

Sept. 15.

Why go west to purchase a farm, enduring hardships and privations, when you can buy all the land you need here at home, where you have the advantage of good society, schools, churches, &c.?
