A. C. STEWART, a former active member of the Towanda Fire Department, now of Binghamton, arrived in town last evening.—He was at one time Chief Engineer of the department and came down to witness the annual parade, not having heard of the postponement.

CHARLES T. M'KINNEY, whose house was burned a few months since, has already got his new residence nearly completed, and has moved into it. CHARLIE believes in "pushing things." The new house is a marked improvement on the old one, and we hope Mr. MK and family may long enjoy it.

Next Sunday morning, Rev. WM. TAYLOR pastor of the church of the Messiah, will take for his theme: "Some lessons from the life and death of President GARFIELD." No evening service until October. Prayer and conference Thursday evening, at 7-12 o'clock.

Last week at the Pennsylvania State Fair and Pittsburg Exposition, the following Sewing machines were on exhibition, viz: Wheeler and Wilson, Home, Singer, New Home, White, Domestic, Wilson, Household and Davis. The Judges awarded the Silver Medal to the Davis, for the best double thread sewing machine; first prize for the best plain sewing; first prize for the best fancy sewing; first prize for the best silk embroidery.

We are pained to learn of the sudden death of JOHN B. SMITH, at his home in North Towanda, after an illness of only a few hours, of heart disease, last evening.

The following doctors have registered this week, increasing the number to 68:

Hall, are hereby appointed a committee to prepare resolutions expressive of the grief of the Court and Bar, at this great public calamity; And it is further ordered that as a mark of respect and love for the memory of our deceased President the Court do now adjourn. It is further ordered that this minute be placed upon the records of the Court.

Appropriate remarks were made by Col. OVERTON and Col. SMITH.

Don't fail to go to JOHN SULLIVAN'S on Bridge street, for the best five cent cigar.

JOHN DECKER is now canvassing this place for an article which ought to find a ready sale in every household, as it will commend itself on examination. It is an Ironing Board so constructed that while it is durable it is readily folded up and put out of the way when not in use. We ask for Mr. DECKER a cordial reception; we believe the introduction of the article he is offering will prove a great benefit to all who have ironing to do.

The fifth annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic of Bradford county and vicinity, and soldiers and sailors, will be held on the fair grounds, in East Towanda, on the 11th, 12th and 13th days of October, 1881. General orders will be issued in a few days, giving full details.

CHAS. HINTON, Adjutant.

The News Condensed.

Mrs. Garfield does not desire to enter the White House again, and during her stay in the capitol will remain at Mr. MacVeagh's house.

This is the fourth time in forty years that the President of the United States has died during his term of office—twice stricken by disease and twice by the hand of an assassin.

Vast multitudes gathered at all stations along the route yesterday to look at the train bearing the remains of the lamented President. The cortege reached Washington at 4:35.

At the time of President Garfield's death he was in his fifty-first year. General Arthur, who succeeds him, as President, is also in his fifty-first year—a curious coincidence.

James G. Blaine's third son, James G., jr., has just entered Exeter. His first, Walter, is an Assistant Secretary of State; his second, Emmons, is learning railroading in Chicago with Manager Hewitt, of the North Western.

It is stated that Garfield left no will, and during his sickness he said he did not wish to make one. He was willing to trust to the courts to make an equitable division of his property. The value of his property is about $25,000 including his house in Washington which is mortgaged.

"This day will be sadly memorial so long as this nation shall endure, which God grant may be till the last syllable of recorded time, when the volume of human history shall be sealed up and delivered to the Omnipotent Judge."—James A. Garfield on the first anniversary of the death of President Lincoln.

Governor Pillsbury, of Minnesota is in a curious predicament. He wishes to retire from public life, and his supporters won't allow him to. He published a card saying he is not a candidate for renomination, and means what he says, but the Republican newspapers coolly inform the public that he is not the person to decide the question, that the State needs his services, and that the thing to do is to pay no attention to his wishes, but renominate him and reelect him. It looks as if the Governor would have to submit. He is suffering the penalty of being a good and faithful office.

FIREMEN'S PARADE POSTPONED.—Owing to the death of the President of the United States, the annual parade of the Towanda Fire Department is hereby postponed from the 22d inst., until Thursday, October 6th.

CALKINS' EMBROCATING EMULSION.

SION.—J. F. Calkins has been traveling in the interest of Dr. G. L. Stevens, of the city of Cleveland, Ohio, and in the past three years has visited all the cities and principle towns of our State. His business has brought him in acquaintance with many of the most eminent and talented Physicians in the State, and in his intercourse with them has gathered a number of valuable prescriptions from which he has compounded an article he calls Calkins' Embrocating Emulsion, used as a lotion. Many of the citizens of Towanda and surrounding towns by its use are recommending it as a valuable treatment for Rheumatism, Neuralgia, local and chronic pains, back, head or tooth ache, crick in neck or back, sprains, bruises, sore throat, quinsy, burns, &c. Price 25 cents per bottle. Druggists supplied on liberal terms.

A gentleman in town says, it is the best thing for burns I ever had in my house.

A lady in Wilksbarre was cured of quinsy in its first stages by it when her physician said it could not be stopped.

A young man in Monroe had a severe attack of Pleurisy the Embrocating Emulsion stopped it at once. A lady in East Troy says it cured her of Inflammatory Rheumatism with which she was afflicted for more than a year, having kept her bed for weeks at a time.

A lady in Monroe Township sprained her ankle so severely that she was obliged to keep her foot on a pillow, by the use of the Embrocating Emulsion in three days she was doing her house work, and was at once cured. An old citizen of Ithaca was afflicted with a pain in his side. He could find nothing to relieve him. He was induced to use the Embrocating Emulsion and writes: F. J. Calkins, dear sir: Two applications of the Embrocating Emulsion stopped the pain. I was afflicted with itching piles. It also stopped them. It is very valuable. Signed, P. Case.

One gentleman who was suffering with a severe back ache caused by lying in bed for a long time with sickness, was effectually relieved by three applications of the Embrocating Emulsion.

A lady in our Town who had used the article said Mr. Calkins ought to make a fortune out of the Embrocating Emulsion.

A number of Physicians are using it. The names of all the above cases can be given and many more cases added. Try it.
