MONROE CHIPS.—Esquire Crammer has been quite out of repair for a few days, from a severe attack of pneumonia, contracted during those cold, windy days of last week. He is recovering.

C. G. Smith, Esq., the news, fruit and confectionery dealer, has a severe attack of erysipelas, covering his entire face, eyes and ears, giving our temperance advocate, quite a brandy appearance. Charley never takes any of the red ruin; so folks need not laugh a word about it.

A FIRE ALMOST.—On the 19th inst., a little vagrant of a boy was seen to run from Mrs. Rockwell's sheds and barn standing near the bridge and mills. This excited curiosity, so that a look in that direction revealed an increasing cloud of smoke rising from the straw in the sheds. Pails and the creek being handy, the fire was soon put out; and many thousands of dollars worth of property was saved in this dry time. Parents should be held responsible for the whereabouts of their children, as well as for their having matches to play with at the expense and danger to other folks. See to it after this. N. D. P.
