VOLUME III, NO. 39.

TOWANDA, PA., SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1881.

PRICE ONE CENT.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Personal.

Col T. HUMPHREY is in town.
Mrs. FRED WATTLES is visiting friends in town.

Mrs. N. N. BETTS is visiting her brother-in-law, C. R. BROWN, in Nichols, N. Y.

Doc KEELER, who is running a steam pile driver on the new railroad near Buffalo, is visiting his friends here.

N. P. HICKS has purchased Hon. JAMES FOSTER'S lot on Main street and we learn will erect a fine residence.

FRANK WAGNER, one of the telegraph operators at the upper station, and wife are visiting in Northampton county and New Jersey.

Dr. C. F. PAINE, of Troy, who once lived in this place, will have the sympathy of his many friends here in the bereavement which he has recently sustained in the death of a four years old daughter.

Rev. W. G. WARE, who was expected to preach in the Episcopal Church to-morrow, was unable to get away from his own parish, and the chancel will be occupied by Rev. Mr. MORROW, Bishop HOWE'S private secretary.

JOHN M. EDSON, of the Towanda Rifle Club, and a member of Co. A, 9th Regiment N. G. P., was receiving the congratulations of his numerous friends yesterday, on account of the young rifleman presented to him by his estimable wife. He contemplates taking him to Creedmoor next year.

There will be no school at either the Institute or Graded School, on Monday.

The postoffice will be opened on Monday as follows: 8:30 to 9 a. m.; 11:30 a. m. to 12 m.; 5:30 to 6 p. m.

The Jewish New Year began last evening. The Hebrews observe the festival by cessation from business.

A Long Valley miner named WILLIAM GEXAN was seriously if not fatally injured by the fall of slate on Thursday.

To the credit of the Democratic party, and particularly Chairman MAXWELL, the convention which was called for Monday has been postponed until Tuesday, on account of President GARFIELD'S funeral.

The M. E. and Presbyterian congregations of Wyalusing will unite in memorial services on the death of President GARFIELD to-morrow—morning at the Presbyterian and in the evening at the Methodist church.

One of the longest funeral processions we have ever witnessed was that which followed the remains of the late JOHN B. SMITH, of North Towanda, to their last earthly resting place yesterday afternoon. There were one hundred teams in line.

GARFIELD succeeded the late Elder SILAS E. SHEPARD as President of Hiram College, and the two were devoted friends. When Dr. SHEPARD was ill at Hiram College Gen. GARFIELD came and took care of him and afterwards took him to his home.

MEMORIAL SERVICES.—At the Church of the Messiah, Rev. WM. TAYLOR, Pastor, memorial services in honor of the Martyr President will be held to-morrow at 10 1-2 A. M. The Church will be appropriately draped in mourning, and music and other services adapted to the occasion will be observed by the pastor and choir. All cordially invited to participate.

Prof. BRUCE informs us that he yesterday slaughtered the finest veal for JORDAN'S market he ever dressed. The quarters weighed 297 pounds. Superintendent HILL is particularly fortunate in being able to keep the market stocked with the best of meats during the severe drought we have experienced this season. The calf under discussion was raised by H. H. MACE.

A, ROMER, Merchant Tailor, of Elmira, will be in Towanda, at the Ward House, Tuesday, Sept. 27, with a full line of Fall and Winter Goods of his own importation, just received. He would be pleased to have his friends call and see them, as they are finer goods than ever shown by him before.

CONTEMPTIBLE DODGE.—The Bradford Argus printed at Towanda, Pa., this week contained the following advertisement:

TERRIBLE EXCITEMENT.—The world trembles over the great misfortune that has befallen our President, James A. Garfield, and at the news which prevails now in Towanda, Pa., about the Great Boston Clothing House which has just opened in Means' block, Main street, Towanda, Pa.

Language is too feeble to express the contempt this firm should be held in. Working over the sympathies of the people, bowed down in grief at the death of a beloved President, to draw attention to its business, the Great Boston Clothing House of Towanda has belittled itself, and if the citizens of that vicinity are patriotic in the least degree, they will in future patronize some other establishment. —Elmira Advertiser.

The censure of the Advertiser is none too strong and is heartily endorsed by this community. The indecency displayed in the advertisement, was discussed and condemned by all who read it. So incensed were the business men here that they called upon the papers inserting it and requested that it be discontinued. The man who is mean enough to attempt to draw attention to his business by coupling his advertisement with a notice of so great a calamity as the death of our President, should be given a wide berth by decent people, and he probably will be. To the credit of this community we are glad to inform our Elmira cotemporary that the firm who have made themselves so notorious are only interlopers here, and that none of our old established houses would have been guilty of such an outrage.

Council Proceedings.

TOWANDA, Sept. 23, 1881.

Pursuant to a call of the Burgess, a meeting of the Borough Council was held on Friday evening the 23d inst., to take action on the proclamation of the President of the United States, relating to the appointment of Monday next to be observed as a day of humiliation and mourning, on which day the remains of our late beloved Chief Magistrate will be consigned to their last earthly resting place.

Members present—Burgess Alger, Frost, Gordon, Holcomb, Keeler and Spalding. Councilman Holcomb submitted the following resolutions, which, on motion of Councilman Spalding, were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, Through a dispensation of Providence, a great national calamity has fallen upon the country in the death of our greatly beloved President; and

WHEREAS, By proclamation of his constitutional successor, President Arthur, it is enjoined upon the people to observe Monday September 26 as a day of humiliation and mourning; therefore

Resolved, That the clergymen and people of Towanda and vicinity be invited to join in a union service of humiliation and mourning in the Court House square, at 2 o'clock p. m. on Monday September 26, A. D. 1881, as a fitting memorial of the death of our loved and lamented President.

Resolved, That the business men of Towanda be requested to close their places of business, and that the public offices should be closed on that day.

On motion, the Burgess appointed Messrs. Holcomb, Frost and Spalding a committee to confer with the clergy and make other necessary arrangements in relation to the proceedings of the day.

On motion adjourned.
J. KINGSBURY, Secretary.

Excursion tickets for the County Fair will be sold at the stations between Sayre and Laceyville by Lehigh Valley Railroad, Sept. 28th, 29th and 30th.

Any industrious, practical farmer, with a small capital, can hear of an opportunity to buy a farm on terms which will enable him to pay for it from his crops, by calling at this office.

The News Condensed.

President Arthur has called an extra session of Congress to convene on the 10th of October.

Cyrus W. Field will place in the chapel at Williams College a memorial window in honor of Garfield.

The Herald says: Grant and Hayes viewed Garfield's remains yesterday, and both were visibly affected.

Governor Hoyt has issued a proclamation setting apart Monday next as a day of humiliation and mourning for the death of President Garfield.

Impressive services were conducted in Washington yesterday over the remains of Garfield, after which they were escorted to the station by an immense crowd.—Evidences of sincere grief were exhibited at all points along the route.

Queen Victoria cabled to the British Minister to have a floral tribute presented in her name. It has been placed at the bier of the President. It is very large and an exquisite specimen of the florist's art, composed of white roses, smilax and stephanotis. It is accompanied by a mourning card on which is written: Queen Victoria, in memory of the late President Garfield; an expression of her sorrow and sympathy with Mrs. Garfield and the American nation, Sept. 23, 1881.

The inaugural address and first proclamation of President Arthur, do credit to both his head and heart. The unequivocal pledge to carry out the wise policy inaugurated by his dead predecessor will be accepted by the public, and entitle him to the confidence and esteem of every patriotic citizen. The retention of the Garfield Cabinet is not only politic, but is a deserved compliment to the martyr President.
