TOWANDA, PA., TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1881.

PRICE ONE CENT.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Personal.

Mrs. W. H. MORGAN has moved into E. T. Fox's house, south Main street.

Miss MYRA SHAW, of Waverly, spent yesterday with friends in this place.

W. J. BRESEE, of DYE's store, wife and son, are visiting friends in Cooperstown, New York.

JOHN J. WEBB, of North Towanda, has very fine grapes, and he supplies TITUS' Confectionery store.

Mrs. E. O. MACFARLANE has returned from a visit to the sea shore, looking very much improved in health.

JOHN GAYLORD of Wyalusing has just returned home after an absence of six months in New Mexico in the mining districts.

JOHN D. STRYKER and wife have returned from their bridal tour, and are boarding with Mrs. STRYKER's mother, on Main street.

W. M. SHORES has removed from Athens to this place and now occupies his elegant residence lately owned by the late WM. H. MORGAN.

Col. ROBERT PACKER and wife have given $500 towards the erection of an Episcopal church at Alexandria Bay. The church will be erected next season.

IRA B. HUMPHRY, of the Franklin Steamer Co., No. 1, of Towanda, was in town Wednesday, guest of foreman CASE of the Hooks. —Waverly Free Press.

Mrs. MEREDITH, of this place, is visiting friends in Neath, and a few days since fell, breaking one of her limbs near the hip. She is an old lady, and the injury will probably be a long time in mending.

Mrs. BACKUS and daughter ANNIE, of Savannah, Ga., who have been spending the summer here left for their southern home on Saturday, much to the regret of many friends who have enjoyed their society.

The Susquehanna Gazette says that the Hon. GALUSIA A. GROW is interested in bituminous coal mines in the vicinity of Pittsburgh. The sale of his coal last year amounted to 100,000 tons, thirty-four thousand tons of which went to Canada.

Captain S. T. LECKY, of the ocean steamer, "British King", and J. T. AUDENREID, one of the heaviest coal operators and dealers in this state, were guests of President CLAGHORN, of the S. L. & S., at Bernice a few days last week. They passed through town yesterday on their way to Philadelphia.

Mr. GEORGE RIDGEWAY, the Bridge street groceryman has closed out his business and taken a situation in the store of FELCH & Co. Mr. R. is one of our very best citizens, and his numerous friends in this place and vicinity, will rejoice that he is still to remain with us. We congratulate Mr. FELCH on his good fortune in securing so popular an employe.

CHARLES BILES, of North Towanda, has a fine crop of potatoes. We saw one taken from his field the other day which measured nine inches in length, and eleven inches in circumference.

Mrs. LOUISE D. MONTANYE, wife of our dear old friend, Dr. L. D. MONTANYE, of Towanda, died in that borough last Saturday, at the age of 32 years. She was a gifted vocalist, and of rare personal graces and mental accomplishments. —Blossburg Register.

Miss LORING, president of the women's foreign missionary society of the Lackawanna Presbytery, and formerly a missionary in Syria, will deliver an address in the Presbyterian Church to-morrow evening. All ladies interested in the mission work are invited to attend.

THE LARGEST YET.—We have been favored with quite a number of large peaches this season, but the largest one we have seen was left on our table yesterday by Mr. M. A. ROCKWELL, of State street. It is a seedling and was grown in the garden now occupied by him.

On Saturday Express agent DODGE received from a friend in New York State a basket of grapes with the following poetic instructions to the messengers into whose hands the package might fall:

Expressmen, please dead-head this small package through,
To Wm. B. Dodge, of Towanda; and you
Shall be paid at the pay-day of those who believe
That 'tis better, a darn'd sight, to give than receive.
Remember, dear "Messengers," William's your brother;
'Tis a cussed mean crew that will steal from each other;
So let this frail package go untasted through,
Thus giving your "Comrade," "sweet William,"
his due.

By this special transaction, boys, let the world know,
That though Express Messengers filch from John Doe,
They are true to their "kind"—that the laws of the gang
Are, "Honor 'mong thieves," and "together we'll hang."

The package came all O. K., the unique directions having been obeyed to the letter.

The memorial services here yesterday afternoon were solemn and impressive. The committee of arrangements are entitled to great credit for the complete manner in which they discharged their duties. The Pagoda was draped in black, and decorated with flowers, and the stars and stripes. The band discoursed excellent music and the choir did their part well. The poem recited by Doctor STEWART was one written by N. P. WILLIS, on the death of President HARRISON, forty years ago, altered to suit the occasion. Col. OVERTON's address was listened to with unusual interest from the fact that he had served with the dead statesman in the halls of Congress and had a personal acquaintance with him. His words were well timed and fitting to the sad occasion. He had no hesitancy in pronouncing GARFIELD the greatest man America has produced. The Col. was followed by JUDSON HOLCOMB and Col. E. SMITH, in appropriate addresses.

Every business place in town was closed, and two thousand people united in the memorial ceremonies.

MONROE AFFAIRS—Rev. S. W. Alden was greatly gratified on the 20th inst., by the receiving of a valuable and tasteful dressing gown by mail, from a lady friend in San Francisco, Cal. It is a splendid and costly article; accompanied by the cords and tassels in full keeping with the rest of the timely gift.

Cold weather now stands a little back, while we wrap us in this elegant structure of—well, we cannot remember all those millenary names given to combinations of silk, wool, linen and cotton, or we would try and pronounce them; but never spell them, Webster and I would both fail here, no mistake, —suffice it to say that the garment weighed four pounds, cords, tassels and all told—Uncle Sam charged 64 cents in postage for his services in transportation, and brought it through from that remote city just this side of China, in seven days, all safe.

A thousand thanks to the donor, and while we are about it, we will put in a large installment of the same to the multitudinous friends of the Elder everywhere.
The M. E. Church here is heavily draped for memorial services. Our flags draped, Union down, at each end of the audience room. Nothing ever equaled the gloom in Monroe. The deep wave of sorrow is truly indelible.
N. D. P.

Miss EMMA WARING respectfully informs the ladies that she has taken rooms at Mr. WM. KEYSER's house, on Pine street near Graded school, where she will be pleased to see all in need of her services. Cutting, fitting and dress making done on reasonable terms, and all work warranted to suit.

THE OLD RELIABLE American Tailor continues the business on the same floor of the Review office. All persons having had clothes made by other parties not to their expectations, will find this a reliable place to get a fashionable and well fitting garment. Men out of proportion, large men, and all others, who are difficult to fit, I make a specialty. Satisfaction guaranteed. Samples of goods to order. Cutting done on short notice.
J. H. CAREY.

Earth to Earth, Ashes to Ashes, Dust to Dust.

Yesterday the grave received the mortal remains of JAMES ABRAHAM GARFIELD, twentieth President of the United States, fatally wounded by the bullet of an assassin, in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 2d of July, and expired at Long Branch, N. J., on the 10th of September, after eighty days of intense suffering, endured with christian fortitude and heroic bravery which won for him the sympathy and admiration of the civilized world. The nations of the earth yesterday evidenced "how they loved him," by uniting in the sad burial ceremonies. While the lifeless form of the great man, who so lately was called to the highest office of honor and trust attainable on earth, was committed to the ground, "Earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust," near the scenes of his early struggles with penury and want, his success as an upright business man, ripe scholar, and profound statesman, at Cleveland, Ohio, thousands upon thousands were gathered in city, town and hamlet all over the world to do reverence to his memory, and the tears of millions mingled in sorrow over his untimely taking off. "A great man and mighty has fallen."

GREAT SUCCESS!—The Great Boston Clothing House, just opened in Means' block, Main street, Towanda Pa., is meeting with great success, and the firm are selling more goods in one day, in the line of Clothing and Boots and Shoes, than somebody in three days.

Remember! we are here permanently established, and we give satisfaction to everyone. We sell good goods for less money than you can buy in other places. Shoddy Goods, remember, we don't keep, and we warrant every article we sell as represented.

We have the facilities for underselling any other dealer in the country in the line of Clothing and Boots and Shoes. It is only for the People to try us before purchasing elsewhere. Remember the Boston Clothing House, just opened in Means' Block, Main street Towanda.
