PENNSYLVANIA STATE SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.—The Seventeenth Annual Convention of the Pennsylvania State Sunday-School Association will be held in the Presbyterian Church in the city of Johnstown, commencing Tuesday, October 1st 1881, at 2.30 P. M., and continuing Wednesday and Thursday, October 19th and 20th. Each county association is entitled to send six delegates from their respective counties. The cities of Philadelphia and Pittsburg are accorded six delegates each, and cities of 20,000 inhabitants three delegates each in addition to the county representation. All delegates will be entertained. Application for entertainment must be made to Mr. John Fulton, chairman of the local committee. Upon their arrival at Johnstown, delegates will report to Mr. D. L. Jones in the Presbyterian church, where homes will be provided for them. Special railroad rates are being prepared from all parts of the State. Orders for the same may be procured by addressing the chairman of Railroad Committee, Mr. James M. Gamble, Williamsport, Pa. These orders may be had by all parties who desire to attend the convention, but entertainment will be provided only for duly accredited delegates. Special rates at the hotels are made for all persons attending the convention. Sunday-school superintendents, teachers, workers, and all others interested in the cause, are invited to attend. An instructive and attractive programme of special helpfulness to Sunday-school workers is being prepared, and eminent speakers from all parts of the State will participate. It is earnestly recommended that Sunday, October 16th, be observed as a day of prayer for the divine blessing upon the approaching convention, and upon the Sunday-school work throughout the State.
