MEMORIAL SERVICE.—On Sunday morning the people of Troy met at the Presbyterian church to honor the memory of our late President, and fitly express sorrow at his loss. The emblems of mourning with which the interior of the church was dressed, coupled with the sad and subdued air of those present gave evidence of the deep sorrow felt for the death of our national chief.

The services were opened by prayer, scripture reading and music—after which Rev. C. L. Connell delivered the main discourse of the day. Dealing with the life of Garfield as a statesman, he followed his career from the state Senate of Ohio, to his election as chief magistrate of 50,000,000 people. It was a polished and finished effort, full of love and respect for his subject. He was followed by the Rev. E. P. Browne. The latter speaker found in the president's death the hand of providence to which we should humbly submit.

MONDAY'S MEETING.

Again on Monday afternoon, in accordance to President's proclamation, our citizens filled the Presbyterian church, and a second time expressed sorrow for our national loss. After reading and prayer, Rev. G. P. Sewall spoke of Garfield as a scholar and christian. Thoroughness was his chief trait as a scholar, and consistency his most sterling characteristic as a christian gentleman. Rev. Joel Jewell spoke of his own personal knowledge of Gen. Garfield. As a christian soldier, as a brave man, and a true patriot his name would ever spread lustre over the pages of history. Rev. J. B. French in the concluding address, reviewed Garfield's military career. In a graphic manner he painted his enlistment as a colonel, the battles in which he took an honored part, the military charges which he successfully performed and his final promotion to Major General. Alfred Morgan read the report of a committee on resolutions, which was unanimously approved. On both occasions the music was appropriate and in full keeping with the other parts of the service.

THE FAIR.

THE FIRST DAY.

The Fair opened yesterday. None of the departments are as well represented as last year, but there are many excellent exhibits—the entries aggregating over one thousand. As usual the attendance was small yesterday. The very creditable display heretofore made by our dry goods merchants is lacking, but the omission is easily accounted for by the fact that the public mind has been completely absorbed in the sad event which culminated last week in the death of our beloved President, and the ceremonies incident to the burial. The farm exhibits are not large for the very good reason that most crops have been damaged if not ruined by the drought, but if any one supposes the county destitute of fine fruit and vegetables, let him visit the fair and be undeceived.

The exhibit of fruit is highly creditable. We also saw some large vegetables. D. O. HOLLON, G. B. MILLS, B. HORTON, Hon. H. L. SCOTT, JOHN LANE and Mr. YOUNG, each have a good exhibit of vegetables, which will be more particularly mentioned hereafter.

The exhibit of horses and other stock is not large but good, and well worth seeing.

The display of stoves and hardware by MERCUR & Co., and DYE & Co. is excellent. C. T. KIRBY and H. A. BURBANK occupy POWELL & Co.'s building. The former with a good show of patent medicines and a soda fountain, from which the representative of the REVIEW was regaled with a glass of birch beer, the most delicious beverage to be found. Mr. Burbank is explaining the merits of his grease extractor—a really meritorious article. O. A. Black has the Davis Sewing machine. The 99 cent and 5 cent store each have a large display of crockery. J. F. Corser has a fine exhibit of boots and shoes and other leather goods. Fitch the confectioner occupies an entire building. Frost's Sons and Pierce fill a building with a large display of furniture. The Educational department is an interesting feature. Holmes & Passage exhibit musical instruments. There is a fair show of dairy products and fixtures, and agricultural implements. Fine specimens of stock and poultry. An hour can be profitably spent in the fancy goods department. Mrs. Mingo contributes a display of millinery and Mrs. Stedje samples of hair work.

There are many handsome contributions by the ladies of the county, but we must defer detailed mention until to-morrow. A visit to the Fair will be enjoyed by all.

Miss EMMA WARING respectfully informs the ladies that she has taken rooms at Mr. WM. KEYSER'S house, on Pine street near Graded school, where she will be pleased to see all in need of her services. Cutting, fitting and dress making done on reasonable terms, and all work warranted to suit.

THE OLD RELIABLE American Tailor continues the business on the same floor of the Review office. All persons having had clothes made by other parties not to their expectations, will find this a reliable place to get a fashionable and well fitting garment. Men out of proportion, large men, and all others, who are difficult to fit, I make a specialty. Satisfaction guaranteed. Samples of goods to order. Cutting done on short notice. J. H. CAREY. ## CALKINS' EMBROCATING EMULSION.

—J. F. Calkins has been traveling in the interest of Dr. G. L. Stevens, of the city of Cleveland, Ohio, and in the past three years has visited all the cities and principle towns of our State. His business has brought him in acquaintance with many of the most eminent and talented Physicians in the State, and in his intercourse with them has gathered a number of valuable prescriptions from which he has compounded an article he calls Calkins' Embrocating Emulsion, used as a lotion. Many of the citizens of Towanda and surrounding towns by its use are recommending it as a valuable treatment for Rheumatism, Neuralgia, local and chronic pains, back, head or tooth ache, crick in neck or back, sprains, bruises, sore throat, quinsy, burns; &c. Price 25 cents per bottle. Druggists supplied on liberal terms.

A gentleman in town says, it is the best thing for burns I ever had in my house.

A lady in Wilksbarre was cured of quinsy in its first stages by it when her physician said it could not be stopped.

A young man in Monroe had a severe attack of Pleurisy the Embrocating Emulsion stopped it at once. A lady in East Troy says it cured her of Inflammatory Rheumatism with which she was afflicted for more than a year, having kept her bed for weeks at a time.

A lady in Monroe Township sprained her ankle so severely that she was obliged to keep her foot on a pillow, by the use of the Embrocating Emulsion in three days she was doing her house work, and was at once cured. An old citizen of Ithaca was afflicted with a pain in his side. He could find nothing to relieve him. He was induced to use the Embrocating Emulsion and writes: F. J. Calkins, dear sir: Two applications of the Embrocating Emulsion stopped the pain. I was afflicted with Itching piles. It also stopped them. It is very valuable. Signed, P. Case.

One gentleman who was suffering with a severe back ache caused by lying in bed for a long time with sickness was effectually relieved by three applications of the Embrocating Emulsion.

A lady in our Town who had used the article said Mr. Calkins ought to make a fortune out of the Embrocating Emulsion.

A number of Physicians are using it. The names of all the above cases can be given and many more cases added. Try it.
