VOLUME III, NO. 47.

TOWANDA, PA., WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1881.

PRICE ONE CENT.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Personal.

Dr. S. C. ROSS, of Scranton, made a flying business visit to his friends here yesterday.

LESLIE BULL of East Towanda has taken a clerkship in WOODWARD'S boot and shoe store.

We are indebted to Mr. SOL WALBORN for several clusters of delicious Delaware grapes, very fine.

F. H. PIATT is in town looking after the interests of the grand excursion to New York next Tuesday.

Borough Treasurer KINGSBURY spent last week in Sullivan county, having been called there as a witness.

FRED SHAW, of Addison, N. Y., has been visiting his parents in this place. He returned yesterday.

Mrs. L. ELSEREE, accompanied by her children is visiting in Ithaca. Mr. E. went up and spent Sunday with them.

Judge JESSUP of Montrose is in town. He is one of the counsel in the suit of Thorn vs. Towanda Tanning Co., now on trial before arbitrators at the Court House.

C. M. PRATT left for Philadelphia yesterday, where he goes to complete his medical studies. He goes by way of Delaware Water Gap and will drive Dr. Ross' horse as far as Scranton.

ED. SMITH, for several years with FELCH & Co. and lately with S. WOODFORD, has accepted a clerkship with POWELL & Co. ED. is an accomplished clerk and popular salesman and we congratulate his new employers on securing his services.

Mr. and Mrs. HIRAM SWEET of Monroeton have returned from an extended western trip. They were absent about six weeks, and visited Mrs. S.'s brother, Dr. TERRY LIGER of Leavenworth, Kan., who left this county when a young man, before the war. He is now a prosperous and popular physician, with a happy family and everything comfortable about him. He was in Kansas in "border ruffian" times and narrates some hair-breadth escapes.

Seckel Pears and Catawba grapes at FITCH'S confectionery store.

The firemen's parade to-morrow is to conclude with a dance in Mercur Hall in the evening.

FITCH has a supply of small flags, suitable for decorating for firemen's parade, and he is selling them cheap.

The suit of LANE vs. PIOLLETS was concluded yesterday afternoon, the arbitrators finding "no cause of action."

SMITA & SHORES have rented the store lately occupied by GEO. RIDGEWAY, on Bridge street and will fill it with a stock of boots and shoes.

We direct attention to some extracts from a memorial sermon delivered by Rev. F. W. BARTLETT, to be found on our second page this morning.

The excursion to New York next Tuesday will afford men who have business to transact a splendid opportunity, as the tickets are good for ten days.

We were shown a stalk of amber cane yesterday grown by GEO. B. MILLS in North Towanda, which measured fourteen feet and six inches in height.

Rev. C. H. WRIGHT being absent at Conference, the M. E. Church will be closed Sunday morning. In the evening, Rev. W. R. NETHERTON, of Orwell, will occupy the pulpit.

The BALLS of Litchfield, who have figured in the criminal courts of this county nearly every term for some years past, had another row the other day and it is alleged attempted to shoot one HULETT. They were arrested and are now in jail.

We mentioned the fact the other morning that "Ripton" a horse lately owned in this place and who has many admirers among horsemen here, had been entered for a trot in a 2:28 class, for a $1500 purse. It affords us pleasure to note that the race was trotted in 2:26 and that "Ripton" took the second money.

Below is the programme of the Firemen's parade which takes place to-morrow:

The several companies will form promptly at 1:30 P. M. The line of march will be, Up Main street to Locust; Locust to York avenue; York avenue to Lombard; Lombard to Second; Second to Grant; Grant to Main; up Main to place of starting. After counter-marching and review of the Department by the Town Council, the Hose Race will take place.

People along the line of march who desire to show their respect for the "fire laddies," will have time to prepare suitable decorations.

The following named doctors complied with the law last week by registering agreeably with the act of assembly. The number who have now registered is 94:

Elijah G. Tracy, Troy borough. No medical degree.
Clinton H. Scott, M. D., Athens borough: Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, 12th March 1878.
William Roberts, Pike. No medical degree.
Manton Eastburn Anderson, M. D., Sayre: Medical department University City of New York, February 1880.
