Mrs. JAMES MERRILL, of Athens, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. G. ALGER.

JESSEE MILLER of Philadelphia is registered at the Ward House this morning.

Doctor TAYLOR goes to Mansfield to preach and organize a Universalist church to-day.

Mail Agent F. M. BUCK, of Tunkhannock, was in town last evening and paid his respects to this office.

CLAYTON A. SMITH of the Waverly Free Press was in town on Thursday to take in the Firemen's Parade, and made the REVIEW a call.

The REVIEW office was yesterday honored with a pleasant call from Mr. WATT, and his bonnie young wife, of Glasgow, Scotland. Mr. W. is an intelligent young gentleman of leisure, who has spent several years traveling in Europe and now visits America for the purpose of becoming familiar with our people and institutions, with a view, perhaps, of making a home on this side the water. The very agreeable and entertaining couple were accompanied by their cousin, Miss MARY MOSCHER, and were on their way to Barclay to visit with Mr. and Mrs. FRED WATTLES. We hope they may call again.

The Soldiers' Encampment begins Tuesday.

Dr. W. F. TERRY, of Terrytown, died of consumption Thursday and will be buried to-day.

S. B. TIDD will serve free clam chowder this evening and invites his friends to call and partake.

D. C. DEWITT's horse, "David Hume," took first premium for best stallion at the Lackawanna county fair.

The funeral of the late OLIVER MOORE will take place at the residence of his son, H. P. MOORE, at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

The meeting of the Benevolent Society advertised for to-morrow has been postponed till Monday at the same place and hour.

People who take in the New York excursion next week will be afforded an opportunity of attending the Yorktown celebration at a small additional expense, as tickets are good for ten days.

Monday evening next, October 10, Watkins Post G. A. R., will hold their anniversary meeting. All comrades of the Grand Army, also members of the Press, are invited to be present. After the usual addresses, army fare will be partaken of.

Mrs. CRANMER, widow of the late Elder E. H. CRANMER, died at her residence in Monroeton yesterday morning, aged 67 years. The deceased was prostrated by paralysis some time since, and remained in a feeble condition to the time of her demise. Funeral at late residence, at 1.30 p. m., Sunday.

In the hose race Thursday, the amount of hose laid was 300 feet instead of 100 as stated yesterday. We are pleased to learn that the Franklins, considering the contest so nearly even, generously divided the prize money equally with the Naiads, though under the arrangement the former were entitled to two-thirds of it.

The hour of evening service at the churches now is 7 o'clock, instead of 7:30, as printed in our directory.

There will be preaching in the Baptist church to-morrow morning but no service in the evening.

Rev. Mr. NETHERTON of Orwell is to occupy the M. E. pulpit to-morrow evening.—No service in the morning.

As the pastor will be out of town, the only service in the Universalist church will be the Sunday school at noon.

The "Banker's Daughter," Tuesday evening.

The ladies of the Benevolent Society are requested to meet at the house of Mrs. Dr. H. C. PORTER on Monday the 10th of October, at 3 p. m. A full attendance is desired.

At the annual church meeting of the Congregational society on Monday last, the Pastor, Rev. Jas. Richmond, received a unanimous call to remain as pastor of the church another year.—Le Raysville Advertiser.

Messrs. DAYTON & ROCKWELL, our enterprising Photographers, procured an excellent life-like photograph of the late President GARFIELD, from Cleveland, and have made some copies of it. The picture is a great improvement on the miserable apologies in the newspapers. They have a few copies for sale. Our thanks are tendered for one of them. We prize it very highly.

Our Postmaster, Stephen Gorham, of this place, was sixty years old on Tuesday, Sept. 27th. He has four children and four grand children, is a good musician, and can hit the bull's eye frequently at two hundred yards. Has also been Justice of the Peace for many years, builds the best wagons in this section and on the above birthday turned two hand-springs, a custom which he has performed on each succeeding birthday since he was a boy. We trust Mr. Gorham may be able to follow up his long continued practice each year to come for the next sixty years.—Le Raysville Advertiser.

W. J. DELPEUCH, Esq., of Horn Brook, had the misfortune to lose one of his valuable gray horses the other day in the following singular manner. The animal was standing in the stable, and Miss DELPEUCH thinking a little out-door exercise would do him good, led him to a yard near the house, and turned him loose. While running about in a playful manner, the horse suddenly fell to the ground and never got up again. It was ascertained that he was injured internally, and to put him out of misery he was shot. The team were well matched, and one of the best pair in the county. Mr. D. would not have taken $500 for them.

Mrs. MINGOS invites the ladies of Towanda and vicinity to call and examine her large and extensive assortment of fall millinery goods. Her opening will continue to-day.—Mrs. MINGOS combines excellent judgment in the selection of goods with artistic taste in arranging and displaying them. A visit to her store affords a genuine æsthetic feast to lovers of the beautiful and we don't wonder that so many ladies find themselves attracted thither. It's an evidence of refinement in taste and prudence in purchasing to see them there, which is flattering to fond husbands, and will be encouraged by all who care for neatness in attire and economy in purchases, on the part of their wives.

Rev. G. W. PEPPER, of Ohio, will lecture in Mercur Hall next Wednesday evening under the auspices of the Land League. The Reverend gentleman is a native of Ireland and will discuss the Irish question from personal observation.

Ed Mouillesseaux keeps constantly adding to his already fine stock. This time he has just received a full line of Rogers Brothers Celebrated Flat Ware, such as Spoons, Forks, Knives, etc. These goods need no recommendation, being the Best Made. Call and see him and get prices. Oct. 4.
