Mr. CASWELL, who is a brother of TRACY CASWELL of this office, reached this place on Saturday morning.

We were summoned to this borough Tuesday morning by a telegram announcing that our trusted associate Mr. O. D. GOODENOUGH, more familiarly known as "Ben" had received injuries of a serious nature. We were pleased to find on our arrival that he was not hurt so badly as reported, although he was found to be suffering from severe contusions on the head and shoulders, which were caused by a caboose passing over him while he was wedged in the timbers of a culvert, into which he inadvertently stepped while getting out of the way of a passing train. He was removed to his home in Wellsboro. He is sadly missed in this office, and owing to the nature of his injuries, it will probably be some little time before his friends will see his genial face again.—Blossburg Register.

About the busiest place in town is the Five Cent Store. The designation, by the way, is a misnomer. It should be called the Bazaar, as it contains almost everything; articles from the lowest to the highest price. It is a favorite resort for the ladies. One of the firm goes to New York this week to buy new goods.

The first exhibition of the Union Agricultural Association, held on their grounds at Canton, last week, was a success both financially and also as regards the exhibit itself. The buildings are all new, were well filled, nearly every department being fully represented. The Association claim they have one of the best half-mile tracks in the county. The races doubtlessly attracted a part of the crowd, but while they attract some they keep others away. For our part we do not believe in horse racing at Agricultural Fairs.—The officers and stockholders of the Union Agricultural Association are to be congratulated on the success of this their initial exhibition. It is believed the society will be able to liquidate its entire indebtedness and have something left in the treasury.

SAD NEWS.—We are deeply pained to learn of the death of Mrs. JOHN HOWARD of Wyalusing. A few weeks since she went to Chicago to visit her sister, was taken sick and died on Thursday evening. Her husband received the sad intelligence of her alarming condition on Thursday afternoon, and started at once for Chicago, but of course did not reach there until after her death.

Mrs. HOWARD was a daughter of the late JAMES C. RIDGEWAY, of Franklin, and was a lady of great attractiveness, and had a large circle of warm and devoted friends who will mourn deeply her early and unexpected death. The deceased was a sister of Mrs. GEORGE SCOVILLE, of Towanda township. The remains were brought to Elmira for burial yesterday.

The people of Towanda responded nobly to the call for aid for the destitute people of Michigan. The cash contributions amounted to $253 73. Nine large boxes of clothing and other supplies were also donated. The following is the report from the different collectors of the money received:

First district,	$24 16
Second district, including $12 54 from College,	40 00
Third district,	79 87
Fourth district,	21 35
Fifth district,	29 00
Sixth district,	39 35
Graded School,	20 00

The merchants donated generously of material, etc. The liberal sums received from the employes of the nail mill and HUMPHREY Brothers & TRACY and the servant girls, deserve special mention.
