Dr. P. J. SMITH, the dentist, went to Philadelphia on the excursion this morning, and will be absent one week. He has a little girl under his charge who is afflicted with a cleft palate, and will have an operation performed if thought advisable by city surgeons.

CHAS. MORSE, son of Maj. L. B. MORSE, years ago proprietor of the Eagle Hotel, Troy, which stood where the REDINGTON & JEWELL block now does, has been in that town for a few days. He is at present a resident of Corsican, Texas, Clerk of the Court of Appeals, is a large and prosperous land holder and a live man of the Lone Star State, which he represented at the funeral of the late President GARFIELD, at Cleveland, as a Knight Commander.

Our former young townsman, Dr. W. P. GRIFFITHS did not have to wait long for a patient after his arrival in Louisville. We find the following items in the Courier-Journal of October 1st:

Dr. W. Patton Griffiths, a nephew of Dr. George W. Griffiths, arrived in the city yesterday from Towanda, Pa., to make Louisville his future home. He will engage in the practice of medicine with Dr. George W. Griffiths.

Jordan Hughs, a workman at Sneed & Co's Architectural Foundry, on Market st., near Eighth, met with a serious accident yesterday morning. The men were cleaning out under a large and heavy ladle that is worked by a crane, when the ladle tipped and the handle of it struck Hughs on the right leg below the knee, crushing the bones. He was removed to his home across the street. Drs. Geo. W. and Patton Griffiths attended to his injuries.

ELI PERKINS will lecture in Troy on the 25th inst.

The "Banker's Daughter" at Mercur Hall to-night for the first time. This play is seldom presented in towns of this size

A Missouri farmer claims that every quail on a man's farm is worth at the least calculation, a dollar for the good done in destroying chinch bugs.

An effort is being made to secure three first class musical and literary entertainments for Towanda during the coming season. We hope the movement may meet with liberal encouragement.

The Bloomsburg Columbian says: "The pump in front of the Central Hotel was removed last Saturday, after 70 years of usefulness. It is rather bad to think that this water-giving benefactor has been an illegal obstruction in the public highway for seventy years, and, as such, liable to removal at any time."

At the Troy Fair JUT. CAMPELL exhibited a lot of old deeds, one 240 years old, others 187 and 171 years. The oldest was made by PHILLIP SMITH, of Hadley, Mass., whom Cotton Mather relates in his "Magnall Christi" "was murdered by an hideous witchcraft," in the year 1685. He also showed an old fashioned grain fan.

The Canton Sentinel says: "I. D. KELLEY, of LeRoy, has reasons to think well of his neighbors. He has been sick for nearly two months and unable to attend to gathering his crops. A couple of weeks since the men of the neighborhood turned out and cut eight acres of corn for him, and last week husked and stowed it away."

An immense concourse of the people of Monroe and vicinity, attended the burial of Mrs. Crammer on the Sabbath. The Methodist ministers all being absent, attending their annual conference, Father Bronson kindly officiated in a most impressive manner, administering the solemn rites in due and appropriate adaptation and great acceptability. N. D. P.

WALTER, an 8 year-old son of WM. BRADSHAW, who lives near Stevensville Bradford county, attempted the other day to show a son of JOHN KLINE how GARFIELD was shot. To illustrate the way he took his brother's loaded revolver and probably supposing it was unloaded placed the muzzle in the position he supposed Guiteau did and pulled the trigger. The ball entered the groin and came out the back part of the hip. Dr. WARNER, of LeRayville, considers his recovery doubtful.—Tunkhannock Republican.

When Bronson Howard wrote "The Banker's Daughter" he produced the best society play that graces the boards of the theatre to-day, a comedy that has been played through the length and breadth of the country and met with one universal verdict, viz: Splendid. Mr. J. W. Collier has made fame and fortune in the profession as he has always put it upon the stage in first class style and presented it with the best cast of characters possible.—Last night's performance at the Opera House to an exceedingly large audience, and with round after round of applause, and several times during the play special favorites among the actors were stopped in their lines by the hearty clapping of hands and stamping of feet of the delighted audience. The costuming was rich, and the setting of several of the scenes unusually attractive. "The Banker's Daughter" can come again and be sure of a hearty welcome.—Harrisburg Patriot.

B. L. ROCKWELL & SON, of West Burlington, had an excellent show of stock at the Troy Fair. They have a fine reputation as stock breeders and showed some of the very best cattle that were brought on the ground. Among the choice stock exhibited by them and which attracted the attention of all the lovers of fine stock was the large three year old short horn bull, 19th Duke of Yates, raised by JOSEPH ABBOTT, of Yates Co., a noted breeder of thoroughbred short horn stock. This fine animal weighs 2,000 pounds. B. L. ROCKWELL & SON also raised the huge yearling short horn bull shown by CALVIN ROCKWELL, and weighing 1240 pounds. They exhibited a white cow of the noted Cady stock, 8 years old, which received the first premium. Also a fine, thoroughbred calf, a yearling steer that took the second premium, a pen of very fine grade short horn calves which took a second premium and a thoroughbred Southdown buck, second premium.—Troy Gazette.
