DENIES THE SOFT IMPEACHMENT.—It having been currently reported that R. C. SINSABAUGH, a well known citizen of Athens had eloped with a young married lady, he sends the following prompt denial to the Athens Gazette.

PORT JERVIS, Oct. 12, 1881.

FRIEND CHARLES:—I am here in my native county, visiting friends, and this morning was handed the Elmira Sunday Telegram which alleged that I had eloped with a certain married lady from the city of Elmira, which is false and a tissue of lies from beginning to end. I write you this denial for fear, perhaps, that you might possibly believe there was truth in the report. I am on my way back and shall attend to it on my return. Respectfully yours, R. C. SINSABAUGH.

About the busiest place in town is the Five Cent Store. The designation, by the way, is a misnomer.
