A GERMANIA SERENADE.—Last evening our Germania Band tendered to Mr. HENRY E. BABCOCK, Station Agent Lehigh Valley Railroad, at his residence, corner of Packer avenue and William street, a brilliant serenade. After performing two of their choicest selections, they were invited by Mr. B. into his house for refreshments. When all had become quietly seated a member of the band left the parlor for a moment and returned bearing a magnificent and costly silver tilting water pitcher with two goblets, stop bowl and platter, which Mr. ED. WALKER, the Band Master, proceeded to present to Mr. BABCOCK from the band, in suitable and very appropriate language, as a practical expression of their appreciation of the important services of Mr. B. in his highly successful management of their excursion to Watkins Glen on the 26th of August last. Mr. BABCOCK although taken entirely by surprise, seemed so fully delighted by the compliment of the presentation and the rare beauty of the present itself, that he accepted the same in very happy, hearty and thankful terms, assuring the band that what little he had been able to do for them was the free and willing tribute of a friend to an excellent organization of fine musicians, and of liberal-hearted, gentlemanly fellows, that they could command his services at all times and on all occasions.

Fine refreshments were then bountifully served by Mrs. BABCOCK, after which the band played in the house, a waltz suggestive of festivity and dancing, and a good night's selection outside the gate.

The splendid present is not easily described. It is entirely novel and recent in its design: A large pitcher tilting or swinging between two upright standards, supported by a platter on which are two gold lined goblets, one in front and one in rear and a large gold lined stop bowl, all of heavily plated silver. The pitcher is richly decorated with delicate leaves and blossoms and tiny hanging vines and on its front is engraved in exquisite but massive lettering: "H. E. BABCOCK, from the Germania Band, 1881." This splendid gift was from the jewelry store of W. A. CHAMBERLIN. Its cost to the band was forty dollars. The engraving was executed by ED MOUILLESSEAU. Afterwards the glorious Germanias wended their gleeful course down to the corner of Third and Chestnut streets, where they serenaded their liberal patron and steadfast friend, Mr. CHAS. L. TRACY. Several ladies and Mr. TRACY appeared upon the lawn and applauded the music. Mr. TRACY thanked the band for their compliment to him, which being entirely unexpected his household was not prepared to offer them refreshments, which he would be most happy to do. Mr. FRED E. SMITH, the golden-toned-cornetist was with the band. Two other important members were unavoidably absent, yet the music was superb and the evening was summer-like and delightful.
