General OSBORNE has an apple tree in full blossom in his garden on Franklin street. The pale, pinkish petals of the flower, are as fragrant as they are in the early spring months when their sweetness fills the atmosphere and tells of coming sunshine and summer. The writer to-day also plucked a half dozen full blown dandelions from the lawn that surrounds his residence. Truly these be strange things for this season of the year.—WilkesBarre Union Leader.

THE AMERICAN AGRICULTURIST FOR NOVEMBER contains more than its usual choice selection of valuable practical articles. Among the leading contributors are: Prof. C. E. Bessey—"Cut-worms: Remedies, etc."; Dr. M. Miles—"Rotation of Crops"; Prof. S. A. Knapp—"Barbed Wire for Fencing"; Prof. C. V. Riley—"The Chinch Bug"; Col. M. C. Weld—"Common Sense in the Poultry Yard"; Tim. Bunker—"Do Agricultural Fairs Pay?" L. B. Arnold—"Flecks in Cream"; Prof. W. J. Beal—"Notes on Indian Corn"; Hon. F. D. Coburn—"The Canine Curse"; Prof. S. A. Forbes—"Birds and Canker Worms"; Prof. J. M. McBryde—"Seedling of Wheat"; Hon. X. A. Willard—"American Cheese and its Exports"; Prof. F. H. Storer—"Artificial Milk"; Mrs. E. H. Leland—"Rearing and Training of Children." Other illustrated articles cover a wide range of subjects, including "Working Out the Road Tax"; Farming and Garden Notes; Shropshire Sheep; Common Crow; Salamander; Lump Fish; Hints and Helps for Farmers; Stanchions; Cow Stables; Fruit Ladders; Double Gate; Two Troublesome Weeds; The Bellflower, etc., etc. There is a full measure of household matter, and the Boys' and Girls' Columns are crowded with valuable juvenile reading. Terms $1.50 a year, 15 a copy. Orange Judd, & Co., Publishers, New York.

REARING AND TRAINING OF CHILDREN.—Never hamper and torment children with clothes that are "too nice" to be anything but wretched in. They may be taught reasonable care in regard to soiling their clothes, but to see a child in a constant spiritual straight-jacket for fear the mud-cakes, or the game of marbles, or the jolly romp will soil the knees, or "muss" the apron, or disarrange the hair, is an indication of idiotic parentage. There are cheap, light, half-wool fabrics, sold in gray, and in brown plaids and stripes, that—piped with bright color—make up into excellent dresses or blouses for little folks, being just as cool as print and gingham, requiring no starching when washed, and not soiling or rumpling easily.

Let the children have plenty of sleep. I have seen young children—almost infants—waked and made to get up two hours before their natural sleep was finished, merely because it was thought best that they should "eat breakfast with other people." Imagine yourself in the hands of a giant, and being hauled out of bed while in the midst of profound and refreshing slumber, just for the privilege of eating breakfast with a lot of other giants who grin at you if you are cross, and perhaps vigorously spank you—some one of them—if you say or do anything expressive of your wretched feelings. There are no healthy children who take more sleep than they need; and yet we often see young boys "routed" before sunrise and set to work, with empty stomach and dizzy heads, at chores that could as well await the coming of a decent hour. Let us all pray to be preserved from that slashing, mule-headed, and often ignorant farmer, who "drives" everything before him—including his wife and children! In the long run he comes out a good way behind his more efficient and more enlightened neighbor, who takes things easily and does things pleasantly, and steers clear of that kind of haste which makes waste. The first step toward making boys "hate the farm" is to cut down their rightful hours of sleep, and make the beginning of every day thoroughly wretched to them.—Mrs. H. E. Leland, in American Agriculturist for November.

NESTOR, of the Senate, has the "run" on cigars now. He is having manufactured expressly for his own trade the "Senate" brand, of cigar, which is very popular with lovers of the "weed." Good judges pronounce it equal in flavor to the best Havana.

About the busiest place in town is the Five Cent Store. The designation, by the way, is a misnomer. It should be called the Bazaar, as it contains almost everything; articles from the lowest to the highest price. It is a favorite resort for the ladies. One of the firm goes to New York this week to buy new goods.

Pomona Grange, No. 23, P. of H., composed of Bradford and Sullivan counties, will hold its next regular Quarterly meeting at the Hall of Spring Hill Grange, No. 178, on Thursday, November 3rd, 1881, at one o'clock, P. M. Those going by Rail Road will leave at Wyalusing where conveyances will be in waiting. A general attendance is requested, as business of importance is to be transacted, together with the election of officers for the ensuing year. Evening session will be open, and all are invited to attend. DWIGHT KELLUM, Sec'y. Towanda, Oct. 3, 1881.

"What everybody wants is the best organ for the least amount of money: Therefore everybody wants the Burdett; and when you've said that, you've told the whole story."

So say the brightest and busiest organ dealers throughout the land, who are furnishing this matchless instrument to a musical public, which is rapidly learning to distinguish its marvellously pure and beautiful voice from that which is not music.
