The pews of the M. E. Church will be rented for the coming year on Tuesday next, Oct. 25th, at 7 o'clock p. m.

The Five Cent Store is now receiving an immens stock of fall and winter goods and the enterprising proprietors invite invite the public to cali and examine.

The other day a lady's hat blew off and was run over by a broad-wheeled cart. The ribbons were somewhat soiled, but the hat is now the very latest fall shape.

Lost .- Thursday, between Bridge street and E. W. ELWELL'S, a Garnet breast Pin, about three inches long. Finder will confer a favor and be suitably rewarded by returning to this office.

The first Methodist sociable of the present season, will be held at Dr. PRATT's on Friday evening. Not only the members of the ehurch, but all who desire to spend a pleasant evening are invited to attend.

The second reunion of the old Fifty-third Regiment of Pennsylvania Volunteers will be held at Milton, Northumberland county, on Tuesday, December 13th, next. It is expected that a large proportion of the surviving members of the regiment will be present. George C. Anderson, of Latrobe, Westmoreland county, is President of the Association. P. H. Schreyer, of Milton, Vice-President, John M. Cadwell, of Milton, Treasurer, and A. B. Mann, of Coudersport, Secretary.

THIS WILL PAY YOU .- We consult the best good of our readers in recommending them to now secure the valuable and important information and most interesting reading matter, including a Thousand or more of pleasing and instructive Engravings and sketches, that can be obtained at trifling expense in the American Agriculturist. This is not merely a farm and garden Journal, but is very useful to every House-keeper and to every household in Village or Country. It has an entertaining and useful department for the little ones. It is a journal that pays to take and read. Try it, and our word for it, you will not be disappointed. Its constant, persistant exposures of Humbugs and swindling schemes are worth far more than the cost of the paper. The 41st annual Volume begins January 1, but those subscribing now for 1882 get the rest of this year free. Terms: $1,50 a year; four copies $5 (English or German edition) single copy 15c.

N. B. Those desiring can get an extra or double specimen number post-free for ten cents, by addressing the Publishers, Orange Judd, Co., 751 Broadway, New York.

We noticed a few days since the mysterious disappearance of a little girl from her adopday's Elmira Advertiser explains the myste-"Dora Mann, an adopted daughter of Andrew Mann, thirteen years of age, suddenly disappeared about a month ago, from her parents' residence, two and a half miles from Troy, Pa. Nothing was heard from her until Tuesday night when her body was found, by S. C. Reel, of Springfild, in a piece of woods, near C. C. Hooker's, hanging by the neck to a tree, her knees touching the ground. The story told by Mrs. Mann, is that four weeks ago, Dora was sent after the cows, and returning without them was sent again and was not seen afterward. Her absence aroused suspicion, and searches were made by the neighbours, but without avail nutil yesterday. The report that she had been found reached Troy Tuesday night about ten o'clock, and District Attorney Fanning. Dr. Gregory, Murray Moore, and others went to Mann's house and found the woman there alone, and she tried to run away. They arrested her and then went to John Rathbone's and arrested Andrew Mann where he was at work. " Dora Mann, an adopted daughter of Anand then went to John Kanbone's and arrested Andrew Mann where he was at work.

Mrs. Mann at first pre'ended to be sick and out of her head, but Dr. Gregory says she "put it all on." so they would not arrest her, and afterwards she tried to get away. Suspicion also rests upon a son-in-law, Charley Burr who lives upon Armenia mountain and who parties are now after. A guard was placed around the Mann house.

An inquest will be held when further facts will undoubtedly be brought to light, and fasten the responsibility for the terrible crime where it belongs.

The little girl was a daughter of Mrs. SHA.

About the busiest place in town is the Five Cent Store. The designation, by the way, is a misnomer. It should be called the Bazaar, as it contains almost everything; articles from the lowest to the highest price. It is a favorite resort for the ladies. One of the firm goes to New York this week to buy new goods.

ALVORD & SON.

all health I now offer my mill property, known as LUTHER'S MILL, in Burlington township for sale at a great bargain. The site is one of the best on Sugar Creek, and embraces about 7 acres of land on which are several dwelling houses and other buildings. The mill has always enjoyed a large custom. A practical miller can pay for the property in a short time from the profits. The property will be sold very cheap and on easy terms.
