President Arthur's brief speech at Yorktown elicited marked approval. The Democratic New York Sun says of it: "President Arthur's speech at Yorktown was neat, diplomatic, and in good taste. To pay a proper tribute to our patriotic forefathers without exalting their services at the expense of those of their French allies, to fittingly praise the ancestors of the French guests without hurting the feelings of other visitors by invidious comparisons, and to say a gracious thing for the vanquished nation, all at the same time, required a nice choice of words, in which the President was not lacking."

Our Republican neighbors in Pennsylvania will make a grave mistake if they allow Gen. Baily, the Republican candidate for State Treasurer, to be defeated. Gen. Baily's prospects, even with Mr. Wolfe in the field, are good and all that is needed to ensure his election is vigorous hard work by his friends. The Democrats have been seeking to injure the General's canvass by magnifying the Wolfe movement, but the present outlook is that the dissensions in the Democratic party will need all the time and attention they can bestow on them.—Bing. Rep.

Who will be the editor of the Century Magazine may be a query to those who are interested in literary undertakings. The dead litterateur was so closely identified with the publication and his personalities so thoroughly infused into it, that his place is thought to be one not readily filled. The Springfield Republican, however, speaking of it as if by authority, makes the following statement:

When the new company was constituted, Dr. Holland sold out his ownership with an express understanding of the future. He knew his life was precarious, and that his editorship, though he retained it, was more than likely to be nominal. The succession remains in the hands that for several years past have given its character to Scribner's Monthly, and it is nonsense to suggest editors from outside however able. The editor of the Century Magazine will undoubtedly be Richard Watson Gilder,—a man of as fine a taste and as severe a critical acumen as have been exercised in such a position in this country.

A man wrote from New York to his wife in Chicago to send him the numbers of some Government bonds and to forward the bonds to the Treasury Department at Washington. She cut the numbers out of both the bonds and coupons and sent them to her husband, at the same time sending the bonds to Washington as directed. That woman evidently knows a great deal more about matrimonial bonds than she does about Government securities.

The statement has been current for two or three days that Mr. Vanderbilt has about completed arrangements for a connection with the anthracite coal fields, through the use of a right of way owned by the Reading. If this is true, it will introduce a new element into the control of coal production, but there are serious doubts whether any advantage will thereby accrue to consumers.

Now is a good time to remind people that the way to preserve their health is to light fires in stoves, grates and furnaces on all cool and damp evenings, just enough to take the chill off. At the same time care should be taken not to make too much heat. Damp walls and clothing are fruitful sources of human ills and aches. A little coal or wood is much cheaper than doctor's bills.

A party of capitalists contemplate erecting a $25,000 building for the manufacture of shoes at Wilkesbarre.

The widow and daughter of "Stone-wall" Jackson went to Yorktown under escort of Senator Wade Hampton.

The Russian Grand Duke Nichola Constantinovitch, who was disgraced in connection with the diamond scandal some time since, has been ordered to reside at Trashkend.

ENLARGEMENT FOR 1882.
The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN is the leading journal of American Agriculture. In amount and practical value of contents, in extent and ability of correspondence, in quality of paper and style of publication, it occupies the first rank. It is believed to have no superior in either of the three chief divisions of FARM CROPS AND PROCESSES, HORTICULTURE & FRUIT-GROWING, LIVE STOCK AND DAIRYING.

while it also includes all minor departments of rural interest, such as the Poultry Yard, Entomology, Bee-keeping, Greenhouse and Grapery, Veterinary Replies, Farm Questions and Answers, Fireside Reading, Domestic Economy, and a summary of the News of the Week. Its Market Reports are unusually complete and much attention is paid to the Prospects of the Crops, as throwing light on one of the most important of all questions—When to Buy and When to Sell. It is liberally illustrated and is intended to supply, in a continually increasing degree, and in the best sense of the term, a LIVE AGRICULTURAL NEWSPAPER.

The Volume of THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN for 1882 will be largely increased in Contents by the addition of a sufficient number of pages to meet the growing demands upon its space, but the terms will continue as follow, when paid strictly in advance: ONE COPY, one year, $2.50; FOUR COPIES, $10, and an additional copy for the year free to the sender of the Club; TEN COPIES, $20, and an additional copy for the year free to the sender of the Club.
