Personal.

Mr. E. WALKER, sr., has just returned from a trip to Michigan.

JAMES MCQUISTAN, Esq., of Pittsburg, is registered at the Ward House.

MISS MAY ADAMS left for New York this morning and will be absent two weeks.

J. P. CULVER returns to Bradford to-day, after several weeks spent with friends here.

Judge LINN, accompanied by his daughter, arrived in town yesterday. They are staying at the Ward House.

We have not seen the gentleman, but learn that S. C. MEANS of Philadelphia has been visiting friends here.

Mrs. W. H. DODGE and children went to Beverly, N. J., yesterday for a visit with J. K. VALLANCE's family.

WALTER CHESS and Miss MCQUISTON of Pittsburg arrived in town last evening. They are here to attend a wedding.

W. C. MARSDEN and JOHN GRIFFIN went to Philadelphia yesterday afternoon and will spend a week in the "City of Brotherly Love."

We are gratified to be able to announce that Mr. HENRY MERCUR, who has been an invalid for several months, is convalescent.—He is able to ride out.

S. N. ASPINWALL and wife of Hastings, Minn., are visiting friends in this county and at present are the guests of Mrs. A.'s mother, Mrs. ISAAC MYER, in this place.

JOHN A. QUIGLEY, for several years a clerk in Dr. H. C. PORTER & SON'S drug store, and who went west last spring, arrived in town yesterday and will spend a couple of weeks with his parents. He now holds a lucrative clerkship in an East Saginaw drug house. We regret to add, he is not enjoying good health.

Mr. E. C. SHOEMAKER, who has been a resident of this place for the past six months, removed his family, goods, and "household gods" to Troy yesterday, where he has taken the responsible position of chief miller in the old and popular "Long's Mills." The proprietor, Mr. H. F. LONG, has at great expense given the people of western Bradford one of the very best flouring mills in the county, furnished with all modern improvements, and he has now secured the services of a miller who has few equals—no superiors. We congratulate Mr. LONG and his numerous patrons on their good fortune, for there will be no fault-finding among those who purchase flour manufactured by ED. SHOEMAKER.

Mallaga grapes, fresh candies and taffy, at FITCH'S to-day.

No 8 is late this morning and it is reported that the engine is off the track at Tunkhannock.

The HARRIS-PACKER equity case will be resumed at the Court House to-day before Judge LINN.

The Tanning Co. arbitration has been adjourned for two weeks. It will be resumed election day—November 8.

Wanted, a good, trusty boy to carry papers. The work need not interfere with school duties unless the boy is lazy.

While playing with other boys a few days since FRANK MEANS had a pin stuck into his leg and as a result a painful abscess formed which was quite alarming for a time, but he is getting better now.

The funeral of the late GEORGE GORDON will take place at the family residence in Asylum at 2 p. m. to-day. The services will be conducted by Rev. C. T. HALLOWELL. The deceased was a highly esteemed gentleman and had reached the ripe age of seventy-six years.

We heard JOHN BEAMAN'S jolly, good natured laugh on the street last evening and heard him say "Nobody knows I'm here and I go back to Sayre on the next train." It is always a pleasure to take JOHN'S honest hand and receive his hearty greeting.

C. L. S. C.—The attention of the members of the Circle is called to an article on Art in the first No. of the Century Scribner's Magazine, Venus of Nicols.

CAAS. H. WRIGHT, Pres't.

HYMENEAL.—This evening Miss FISH of Sheshequin and Mr. JESSEE O. WELLES, of Des Moines, Iowa, will be married at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. LLOYD FISH. The event will remove one of the most attractive and accomplished young ladies of Sheshequin to the West.

To-morrow afternoon at 1 o'clock, Mrs. JOHN D. MONTANYE is to be united in holy matrimony to Mr. JAMES MACQUISTAN, a prosperous business man of Pittsburg, at the Presbyterian church. The many friends of the bride will part with her regretfully. During the years she has resided in Towanda she has lived a busy useful life, contributing her full share of time and money to the various benevolent objects which demanded the attention of ladies. She will carry to her new home the best wishes of a host of friends.

Invitations to the marriage of Miss MARY L. ELWELL and NEVIN U. FUNK, are out.—The ceremony will take place in St. Paul's Church, Bloomsburg, November 3.

To-morrow morning at 8 o'clock the marriage of Miss ANNIE QUIGLEY and Mr. JOHN MALADY will be solemnized at the Church of SS. Peter and Paul.

After twenty years absence, Patti is on her way to America again.

At which time and place the qualified electors will vote by ballot for the following named officers, namely:

One person for Treasurer of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

One person for High Sheriff for the County of Bradford.

One person for Prothonotary, Clerk of the Court of Quarterly Sessions and Oyer and Terminer for the County of Bradford.

One person for Register of Wills, Recorder of Deeds and Clerk of Orphan's Court for the County of Bradford.

One person for County Treasurer for the county of Bradford.

Three persons for County Commissioners for the County of Bradford.

Three persons for County Auditors for the County of Bradford.

It is further directed that the election polls of the several districts shall be opened at seven o'clock in the morning, and shall continue open without any interruption until seven o'clock in the evening when the polls shall be closed.

No person shall be qualified to serve as an election officer who shall hold, or within two months have held, any office, or appointment, or employment in or under the Government of the United States, or of this State, or of any city or county, or of any municipal board, commissioner of trust, in any city, save only Justices of the Peace and Aldermen, notaries public and persons of militia service of the State; nor shall any election officer be eligible to any office to be filled at an election at which he shall serve, save only to such subordinate municipal or local offices below the grade of city or county offices, or shall be designated by general law.

At the opening of the polls at all elections, it shall be the duty of the Judges of Election, for their respective districts to designate one of the inspectors, whose duty it shall be to have in custody the registry of voters, and to make the entries thereof required by law, and it shall be the duty of the said inspectors to receive and number the ballots presented at said election.

All elections by the citizens shall be by ballot, and every ballot voted shall be numbered in the order in which it is received, and the number recorded by the clerks on the list of voters opposite of the name of the elector from whom received. And every voter voting two or more tickets, the several tickets so voted shall each be numbered with the number corresponding with the number to the name of the voter. Any elector may write his name upon his ticket, or cause the same to be written thereon and attested by a citizen of the district. In addition to the oath now prescribed by law to be taken and subscribed by election officers, they shall severally be sworn or affirmed not to disclose how any elector shall have voted unless required to do so in a judicial proceeding.

One ticket shall embrace the names of all the Judges of Court voted for, and to be labeled outside "Judiciary." One ticket shall embrace all the names of State officers voted for, and be labeled "State." One ticket shall embrace the names of all County officers voted for, including office of Senator and Members of Congress if voted for, and be labeled "County."

All judges living within twelve miles of the Prothonotary's office, or within twenty four miles; if their residence be in a town, village or city, upon the line of a railroad leading to the County seat, before 2 o'clock past meridian of the day after the election, and all other Judges shall, before twelve o'clock meridian of the second day after the election, deliver the returns together with return sheet to Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas of the County, which said return shall be filed, and the day and hour of filing marked thereon, and shall be preserved by the Prothonotary for public inspection.

Given under my hand at my office, in Towanda, this 10th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

PETER J. DEAN, Sheriff.
