"Daily Review" only 25 cents per month. Try it,

A nervous looking man went into a store the other day, says a valued exchange, and sat down for half an hour or so, when a clerk asked him if there was anything she could do for him. He said no; he didn't want anything. She went away, and he sat there half an hour longer, when the proprietor went to him and asked if he wanted to be shown anything. "No," said the nervous man; "I just wanted to sit around. My physician has recommended perfect quiet for me, and says above all things, I must avoid being in crowds. Noticing that you did not advertise in the newspapers, I thought that this would be as quiet a place as I could find, so I just dropped in for a few hours of complete isolation." The merchant picked up a bolt or cambric to brain him, but the man went out. He said all he wanted was a quiet life.

The repairs on the Methodist church are gradually being completed. Frank Benedict is doing the fresco work, and will have the church room finished in a few days. There is but little left to do but finishing the basement and painting the outside and cleaning up. The work has been well and cheaply done and will not foot up to more than half the amount that some persons not familiar with the business have reported on the streets. We were quite agreeably surprised to learn upon investigation that the society could re-dedicate their new and elegant house of worship early next month entirely free from all debt or so nearly so as to be too trifling to mention.—Canton Sentinel.

William Chase, of Springfield, of whose accident some time ago we gave an account, it seems was wounded more seriously than had been reported. One person who saw the wound said as he partly closed his hand, "It left a hole as large as that." Inflammation set in after a few days and despite all the medical skill that could be applied, the wound became worse, and the inflammation at last terminated in his death. The great number of similar accidents should be a warning but scarcely will, to all who have to do with guns. In the hands of some people, a gun is a dangerous and death-dealing weapon, unless like the old lady's musket it has neither lock, stock nor barrel.—Troy Gazette.

BRADFORD COUNTY TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.—The next meeting of the Bradford County Teachers' Association will be held at Monroeton, November 11th and 12th, commencing at 10 o'clock a. m. The following program of exercises will be presented:

QUESTIONS FOR GENERAL DISCUSSION.

- 1. What can be done to induce Directors and Patrons to give more help to teachers?
2. What suggestions have teachers to offer in regard to the County Institute?
3. What can be done to make the work of our Common schools more practical than it at present seems to be?
4. Is the practice of giving reward cards and other prizes as incentives to pupils a wise and commendable one?
5. Is any change from the present mode of examining and licensing teachers advisable?

The exercises will be interspersed with music, and by declamation or recitations by Frank Lyon, Julia S. Hawes, May Alden, Hattie Vangorder, Mary Bowman, Lottie Payne, and Hallie Dodge.

The committee on entertainment, arrangements, etc., are Dr. O. H. Rockwell, L. L. Lyon, M. A. Cranmer, John Bockwell, Mrs. Daniel Huntly, Mrs. Dr. Hull, Miss Mary Satterlee and Miss Stella Vangorder.

This being the annual meeting of the Association will elect officers for the coming year. It is hoped that there will be a large turn out of teachers and friends.

About the busiest place in town is the Five Cent Store. The designation, by the way, is a misnomer. It should be called the Bazaar, as it contains almost everything; articles from the lowest to the highest price. It is a favorite resort for the ladies. One of the firm goes to New York this week to buy new goods.
