Mr. WOLFE'S managers have not been remarkably diligent in advertising his meeting here, but posters announcing the place were put up yesterday, from which we learn Mr. WOLFE speaks to-morrow evening in the Court House. If his premises are correct he ought to succeed.

The ninety-eighth physician to register was LINUS MOTT, of Burlington. Like many of the older practitioners the Doctor, though thoroughly read in the science, never graduated from a medical college; in fact such institutions were not so numerous fifty years ago as they are now. In his prime he was one of the most eminent of the physicians and surgeons of north-western Pennsylvania and twenty years ago had an extensive practice in Erie. In 1830 and 1831 he attended lectures at Fairfield Medical College, and has diploma from the Chautauqua Medical Society, dated December 1841. The Doctor was five times appointed Physician for the city of Detroit Mich. He has not been in active practice for some years.
