The editor of the Mercury has returned from Philadelphia.

Hon. C. S. WOLFE speaks at the Court House this evening.

THEODORE BROWN of Browntown, contemplates going to Elmira to reside.

ISAAC MARSH of Orwell has just returned from a trip to western Kansas and Nebraska.

D. D. CHAFFEE, of Camptown, has recently attached steam power to his furniture factory.

Miss MARY REED of Myersburg has been spending this week with Miss MARY ELLIOTT in this place.

Chief Engineer R. H. SAYRE of the L. V. R. R. and Principal Assistant STEADMAN are registered at the Ward House.

Mrs. WILLIAM IRVING, of Ulster, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. BLACKMAN, on Huston street. The visit is made doubly agreeable by the presence of "that precious little boy."

H. W. STALFORD, of Browntown, has taken a position as baggage-master in the Wyalusing depot. Mr. KINTNER, a model agent, has the knack of surrounding himself with good assistants.

E. R. VAUGHN, of Vaughn Hill, near Wyalusing, is making preparations to move to Nebraska. Mr. V. is an enterprising farmer and this section can ill afford to lose such citizen as himself and his intelligent and practical wife.

Forty-three years ago W. B. DODGE, now express agent in this place and one of our most popular and prosperous citizens, shook the dust from his feet and left his native village, Oxford, N. Y. To-day he returns to make his first visit there since the day he came away when only sixteen years of age. He will not meet many familiar faces.

"Plantation drops" and fresh taffy at C. S. FITCH'S.

Star cough drops, pleasant to take and sure cure, at FITCH'S.

Don't fail to go to JOHN SULLIVAN'S on Bridge street, for the best five cent cigar.

LOST.—A pair gold bowed spectacles with H. MIX engraved on the base. The finder will be liberally rewarded by returning the same to this office.

Members of Germania Band are requested to report at the Band Room, in full uniform (with exception of cap), at 7:30 this (Friday) evening. E. WALKER, Jr., Leader.

The Reverend HENRY C. SWENTZEL will read service and preach in the Episcopal Church Sunday. He is said to be a very able and eloquent preacher.

Roll of Honor exercises at the Graded School this afternoon. Reading of rolls of the High School and grammar departments from 1:30 to 2:30; the primary grades immediately after. Patrons of the school are invited to be present.

Many of our up-town subscribers have not received their papers regularly of late. This inconvenience has been unavoidable on our part, as the carrier, young EILENBERGER deserted his post without giving notice. We hope to secure a better boy soon.

The Chautauqua Literary and Scientific Circle, will hold its next meeting at the residence of Mrs. M. L. BURNS. A full attendance is desired. All wishing to join the Circle are cordially invited to be present.

C. H. CRAWFORD is canvassing this place and vicinity for BALCH'S life of GARFIELD. As we believe the life of the lamented President worthy the imitation of every man and boy in the country, we hope the work will have a large sale. The price is only $2.

MCQUISTON—MONTANYE.—Although no invitations were issued, the Presbyterian church was filled yesterday afternoon with an interested audience, called together to witness the nuptials of Mr. JAMES MCQUISTON, of Pittsburg and Mrs. LIZZIE D. MONTANYE, of this place. At 1:30 the bride and groom marched up the aisle preceded by the ushers, and presented themselves before Rev. Doctor STEWART, who proceeded to pronounce the impressive ceremony which made "the twain one," in a most reverential manner, the organ meanwhile discoursing low, sweet music.

Among those present from out of town we noticed Col. PIOLLET, and Mrs. DEWING, of Wysox, Mrs. WIREMAN, Harrisburg, Mrs. R. A. PACKER, Mrs. ROSENMULLER, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. GOODMAN, Miss JESSIE WARD, Sayre, HOWARD ELMER, wife and daughter, Waverly, Miss MCQUISTON and Mr. WALTER CHESSE, Pittsburg, Mrs. JEROME SALSBURO Monroeton, LOUIS, JOHN and VICTOR PIOLLET, Wysox, Mrs. J. R. RAHM, Laceyville, Mrs. GIBBS, Monroeton.

A number of relatives and friends sat down to an elegant dinner at the home of the bride just before the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. MCQUISTON left on train 9 for Philadelphia and will proceed to their home in Pittsburg. Mr. MCQ. is a leading business man of the "smoky city" and holds a high social position, which his wife will grace.

There is a little romance connected with the match. Some twenty years ago, the bride—then Miss LIZZIE SALSBURO—attended school in Pittsburg, where her father then resided, her mother being dead, and the gentleman she has now wedded was a suitor for her hand. They parted; both in time married. Some years since his wife died and learning that his first love, Mrs. MONTANYE, was a widow, a year ago he renewed his suit which was yesterday consummated, we trust, happily for both of them. May they long be spared to each other and enjoy all the connubial bliss possible, is the sincere wish of hosts of friends.

The only way that a good entertainment can be brought to Towanda, is by subscription. Mr. C. F. CROSS is making an effort to secure in this way a course of three, comprising the following attractions, which are recommended as first-class, and being the best of the kind before the public. ALFRED J. KNIGHT'S Lyceum Combination. The HELEN POTTER Pleiades, (new company this season) and the CARRENO Concert party. The price of tickets for the course has been placed at a very reasonable figure. Any one desiring to encourage this effort can learn the full particulars by calling on Mr. CROSS.

A little colored girl lost a pocket book containing $14 yesterday afternoon, on Main st., between Chestnut and Pine sts. The finder will be liberally rewarded on leaving at this office.

ENTERPRISING—Our big wide-a-wake contemporary, the Elmira Free Press, of last evening contained a lengthy description of the wedding which came off here in the afternoon.

Rev. S. F. WRIGHT of the Horn Brook M. E. church is holding a jubilee or thanksgiving service after the ingathering of the harvest. The exercises will continue for a week. Rev. C. H. WRIGHT, of this place will preach there to-day, morning and afternoon.

Mr. MORAN, treasurer of Friendsville, is in town in search of a thief who yesterday stole $175 from him. The scamp was tracked nearly to LeRaysville, coming in this direction.—He is described as a young man, quite tall, sandy complexion and wore coarse shoes.

About a thousand applications a day are being received for Garfield relics. The committee has decided and prepared from the building material of the pavilion a variety of articles for which contributions will be received and applied to the monument fund.

The President yesterday nominated Judge Folger for Secretary of the Treasury, and re-nominated Postmaster General James. Both appointments were confirmed by the Senate.

Advices from Alaska say the citizens have petitioned Arthur to remove Morris for over officiousness which is detrimental to the interests of the territory.

John Wolff, a wholesale shoe dealer of New York while visiting Melinda Jacobus, the daughter of a prominent resident of Passic Bridge, Sunday, jokingly pointed an empty shot gun at her. The gun went off and Miss Melinda was fatally wounded.

At which time and place the qualified electors will vote by ballot for the following named officers, namely:

One person for Treasurer of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. One person for High Sheriff for the County of Bradford. One person for Prothonotary, Clerk of the Court of Quarterly Sessions and Oyer and Terminer for the County of Bradford. One person for Register of Wills, Recorder of Deeds and Clerk of Orphan's Court for the County of Bradford. One person for County Treasurer for the county of Bradford. Three persons for County Commissioners for the County of Bradford. Three persons for County Auditors for the County of Bradford. It is further directed that the election polls of the several districts shall be opened at seven o'clock in the morning, and shall continue open without any interruption until seven o'clock in the evening when the polls shall be closed.

No person shall be qualified to serve as an election officer who shall hold, or within two months have held, any office, or apartment, or employment in or under the Government of the United States, or of this State, or of any city or county, or of any municipal board, commissioner of trust, in any city, save only Justices of the Peace and Aldermen, notaries public and persons of militia service of the State; nor shall any election officer be eligible to any office to be filled at an election at which he shall serve, save only to such subordinate municipal or local offices below the grade of city or county offices, or shall be designated by general law.

At the opening of the polls at all elections, it shall be the duty of the Judges of Election, for their respective districts to designate one of the inspectors, whose duty it shall be to have in custody the registry of voters, and to make the entries thereof required by law, and it shall be the duty of the said inspectors to receive and number the ballots presented at said election.

All elections by the citizens shall be by ballot, and every ballot voted shall be numbered in the order in which it is received, and the number recorded by the clerks on the list of voters opposite of the name of the elector from whom received. And every voter voting two or more tickets, the several tickets so voted shall each be numbered with the number corresponding with the number to the name of the voter. Any elector may write his name upon his ticket, or cause the same to be written thereon and attested by a citizen of the district. In addition to the oath now prescribed by law to be taken and subscribed by election officers, they shall severally be sworn or affirmed not to disclose how any elector shall have voted unless required to do so in a judicial proceeding.

One ticket shall embrace the names of all the Judges of Court voted for, and to be labeled outside "Judiciary." One ticket shall embrace all the names of State officers voted for, and be labeled "State." One ticket shall embrace the names of all County officers voted for, including office of Senator and Members of Congress if voted for, and be labeled "County."

All judges living within twelve miles of the Prothonotary's office, or within twenty four miles; if their residence be in a town, village or city, upon the line of a railroad leading to the County seat, before 2 o'clock past meridian of the day after the election, and all other Judges shall, before twelve o'clock meridian of the second day after the election, deliver the returns together with return sheet to Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas of the County, which said return shall be filed, and the day and hour of filing marked thereon, and shall be preserved by the Prothonotary for public inspection.

Given under my hand at my office, in Towanda, this 10th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

PETER J. DEAN, Sheriff.
