WELLS—FISH.—No happier or more congenial assembly ever graced the advent of a maiden at her wedding than was gathered at the residence of LLOYD FISH, Esq., on Wednesday evening last on the occasion of the marriage of his daughter, IDA E. FISH, to Mr. JESSE O. WELLS, of Des Moines, Iowa. Promptly at the appointed hour the blooming bride and blushing groom presented themselves; and in a touching and impressive ceremony were joined in holy wedlock by Rev. Dr. WM. TAYLOR of Towanda. Beautiful and costly presents from parents and friends, many in number, greeted the newly married pair. After a collation the happy couple started for New York and elsewhere on their bridal tour, followed by showers of rice, old slippers, &c. They return to say farewell to the old home, then depart for the home of the groom in the west. Mr. WELLS has secured for his wife one of Sheshequin's fairest and most accomplished daughters; whose absence will be a great loss to the community among which she has grown up. The groom comes also of Sheshequin ancestry, being a grandson of JESSE BROWN of that town. "May they live long and prosper." T.

"Plantation drops" and fresh taffy at C. S. FITCH'S.

LOST.—A pair gold bowed spectacles with H. MIX engraved on the base. The finder will be liberally rewarded by returning the same to this office.

Between 10 and 11 o'clock last night the fire alarm was sounded and DAYTON'S mill was reported to be burning. The department responded promptly, but the flames were extinguished before the enignes reached the scene. The fire caught in the roof. But little damage was done.

The play of "Oliver Twist" was produced at school-house hall Tuesday evening by Seymour & Stratton's Standard Theatre Combination, and is one of the most popular entertainments on the road. Fagin, the Jew, is one of Dickens' most inimitable characters. The story of Oliver Twist is familiar to almost every reader, and needs no comment. The characters were well sustained.—Worcester (N. Y.) Times.

THE WOLFE MEETING.—Pursuant to announcement Hon. C. S. WOLFE, independent candidate for state treasurer, addressed the people of this place last evening. The meeting was called to order by E. D. BUFFINGTON, and Hon. GEORGE LONDON presided.—the Court House was crowded, many from different parts of the county being present, and for nearly three hours Mr. WOLFE held the close attention of the large audience. His speech was substantially the same that he has delivered in other places. It was a bold direct indictment of the Republican "bosses," and whatever may be his real motive for "kicking," he undoubtedly tells pretty nearly the truth in regard to the manner and method by which candidates are created and conventions managed. But would it be any better if a different set of leaders were at the helm? Mr. WOLFE reiterated his charges of corruption against Gov. HOYT's administration, boldly charging the Governor, Secretary QUAY and BLAKE WALTERS, late chief clerk of the treasury, with speculating with state funds. When Mr. WOLFE first made this serious allegation, the Governor emphatically and explicitly branded it as false so far as he was concerned. The speaker omitted to tell his audience, in criticising Col. NOYES' administration of the treasury, that gentleman was a democrat. If what he says in regard to democratic mismanagement of funds is true, it is a strong condemnation of his own course, for it is admitted that his candidacy only makes it possible for the democrats to again get control of the treasury.

Mr. WOLFE is an impressive, fascinating speaker and we have no doubt his remarks made a favorable impression.

At the close of the speech Mr. RUFFINGTON read a series of resolutions sustaining Mr. WOLFE's position and pledging him support, which were adopted.

Mr. LONDON then addressed the meeting for fifteen minutes, in one of his old-time eloquent and witty efforts, and was eagerly listened to, notwithstanding the lateness of the hour.

Gen. Silas M. Baily, Republican candidate for State Treasurer in Pennsylvania this fall, is spoken of as "a man who has attested his love of liberty and law by service on the field of glory and of blood and who won his promotion in the glorious Pennsylvania Reserves, from Captain to Brigadier, by meritorious service on the field; a man who stood in the red hell of battle at Drainesville, on the Peninsula, at Gaines' Mill, South Mountain, Antietam, Fredericksburg and the Wilderness, and bore witness with his blood that he loved his country well." Mr. Bailey can count on our best wishes every time, and we would like to live in Pennsylvania just long enough to vote for him.—Elmira Advertiser.
