S. M. Wilson is the Prohibition candidate for State Treasurer.

Eminently satisfactory and assuring as the appointment of ex-Governor Morgan as Secretary of the Treasury proved to be that of Judge Folger cannot be less so. His fitness for the position cannot be questioned. His legal attainments, force and purity of character, great probity and untiring energy are well known; while his former long connection with the sub-Treasury in New York cannot but be of very material service to him in this new position, should he surrender his present important place at the head of the Court of Appeals to accept it. Judge Folger is an intrepid Republican, with decided convictions of his own, the outcome of high moral principle and purpose. With him in charge of the Treasury Department Wall street rings and speculators will have little to hope for in the way of anticipating Treasury transactions, while the people will have every reason to feel secure that his administration of Treasury affairs will be creditable and profitable to the country.—Binghamton Republican.

There has been a daily average arrival of 1,388 immigrants at New York during the present month.

The Health Officer at Philadelphia recently reported: "During the current year not a single case of cholera has occurred in the city or port of Philadelphia."

A letter was recently received at the Round Lake postoffice addressed to Mrs. Elizabeth Abeel which was written and mailed by her son, Hamilton Abeel in August, 1863, while serving in the Union army in Virginia. The letter contained a tin-type picture of the "bold soldier boy" in full regimentals, which is in an excellent state of preservation, scarcely a dent being noticeable on its surface. The supposition is that after Abeel had mailed his letter the mail-carrier was captured by the Confederates, Mosby's guerrillas probably, and the epistle found its way to the headquarters of Lee's army, and afterward to Richmond, where it was laid away among the archives of the late Southern Confederacy. The letter was remailed at Richmond, Va., a few days ago and reached its destination eighteen years after it first set out on its journey.

Francis Williams Rawle, father of ex-State Treasurer Henry Rawle, died on Thursday at Williamsport in his 87th year. He served in the Gray Reserves in the war of 1812.

Guitteau's trial has been postponed till November 14. His counsel, Mr. Scoville has made a statement which amounts to a declaration that the question of jurisdiction will not be raised.

1831 THE CULTIVATOR 1831

Country Gentleman

THE BEST OF THE AGRICULTURAL WEEKLIES. ENLARGEMENT FOR 1882. The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN is the leading journal of American Agriculture. In amount and practical value of contents, in extent and ability of correspondence, in quality of paper and style of publication, it occupies the first rank. It is believed to have no superior in either of the three chief divisions of FARM CROPS AND PROCESSES, HORTICULTURE & FRUIT-GROWING, LIVE STOCK AND DAIRYING, while it also includes all minor departments of rural interest, such as the Poultry Yard, Entomology, Bee-keeping, Greenhouse and Grapery, Veterinary Replies, Farm Questions and Answers, Fireside Reading, Domestic Economy, and a summary of the News of the Week. Its Market Reports are unusually complete and much attention is paid to the Prospects of the Crops, as throwing light on one of the most important of all questions—When to Buy and When to Sell. It is liberally illustrated and is intended to supply, in a continually increasing degree, and in the best sense of the term, a LIVE AGRICULTURAL NEWSPAPER. The Volume of THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN for 1882 will be largely increased in contents by the addition of a sufficient number of pages to meet the growing demands upon its space, but the terms will continue as follow, when paid strictly in advance: ONE COPY, one year, $2.50; FOUR COPIES, $10, and an additional copy for the year free to the sender of the Club; TEN COPIES, $20, and an additional copy for the year free to the sender of the Club. All New Subscribers for 1882 paying in advance will receive the PAPER WEEKLY, from receipt of remittance to January 1st, 1882, WITHOUT CHARGE. Specimen Copies Free. MILL PROPERTY FOR SALE AT A BARGAIN.—In consequence of continued ill health I now offer my mill property, known as LUTHER'S MILL, in Burlington township for sale at a great bargain. The site is one of the best on Sugar Creek, and embraces about 7 acres of land on which are several dwelling houses and other buildings. The mill has always enjoyed a large custom. A practical miller can pay for the property in a short time from the profits. The property will be sold very cheap and on easy terms.
