The Montrose Democrat says: Rev. E. A. WARRINER and his two little sons have been sick for a few days, but are better now. We have heard their illness was caused by using impure drinking water.

The Reverend HENRY C. SWENTZEL, of Millington, N. J., preached two good discourses in Christ Church yesterday. He is a gentleman who appears to be peculiarly fitted for the duties of a pastor and is an able sermonizer—qualities not always combined.

The house occupied by CHAS. JOHNSON, on Second street, is to be sold at auction to-day.

The viewers appointed in the case of JOHN McCARTY of South Waverly, vs. the N. Y. D. & L. R. Co., met Friday and awarded the plaintiff $1600 damages.

The Baptist Sunday School Association of this county will hold a two days' session in East Smithfield, commencing to-morrow. All Sunday School workers and friends interested in the cause are invited to be present.

We see by a notice in the Philadelphia Press that CHAS. E. SMITH, editor of that paper, will speak in this place next Thursday, Nov. 3. The hour is not stated. Those who came out to hear WOLFE should attend this meeting and listen to one of the most prominent and fearless of the anti-machine men in the state, who is doing yeoman service through his able paper for the cause of reform and independence in the party.

MISS OPHELIA BAKER, aged about fourteen years, died at her home in Athens of typhoid fever, on Thursday night. She was the second of two sisters who had been adopted by Mr. and Mrs. HENRY BAKER, both of whom died of this dreaded disease. JENNIE, the oldest of the two, had lived in the family from childhood, and died two years ago this month. Both were very estimable young ladies and enjoyed a large circle of acquaintances. Mr. and Mrs. BAKER have the sympathy of all in this their hour of bereavement—Elmira Advertiser.

Prof. E. C. ELDREDGE, of Elmira Female College, proposes to organize a class in Oil Painting in Towanda, if a sufficient number desire to take lessons to warrant his coming. Prof. ELDREDGE is a graduate of the American Academy of Design, of New York city, has pursued his studies in Europe for two years, and now holds the position of instructor in art in the Elmira Female College. This will be a rare chance to those desiring to receive instruction from a teacher of high order. For terms, or other particulars, address, or call upon

E. E. QUINLAN,
Susq. Col. Inst.

ROMER, the popular Elmira Tailor, will be at the Ward House to-day with a full line of samples of goods for winter wear. TONY's taste in the selection of patterns and skill in manufacturing are too well known by the gentlemen of this place to require any endorsement at our hands. The simple announcement that he is to be here will suffice.

The Boston water supply is very low and a famine is feared.

A procession at Buenas Ayres, last week, in honor of the memory of Garfield, numbered over ten thousand persons.

The Senate adjourned sine die on Saturday. The Virginia appointments were laid over.

The Pennsylvania railroad will to-day commence the running of a fast train between New York and Chicago. The run will be made in twenty-six hours.

There are no indications as yet of an adjournment of Congress. Bayard and Vest made speeches Friday declaring the intention of the Democrats to stand firm and prevent the Republicans from securing political advantage in Virginia by the appointment of Statham.

They do some things in a queer way in Missouri. We find in a dispatch of the 22nd inst., from Warrensburg, an account of the arrest and punishment there of an old man who had married a blind widow, spent all her money and then deserted her. The dispatch says that "under the law in such cases" he was put up for sale to the highest bidder for his six months servitude and was finally knocked off or sold for $10.

C. H. CRAWFORD is canvassing this place and vicinity for BALCH's life of GARFIELD. As we believe the life of the lamented President worthy the imitation of every man and boy in the country, we hope the work will have a large sale. The price is only $2.
