The peaceful arraignment of the miserable Guiteau was better assured than it would have been had it been necessary to produce him in public when his victim lay suffering and slowly dying. The habitual self-restraint and respect for laws in our older communities will ordinarily insure a fair trial to any criminal, however depraved or desperate. For the credit of our institutions, which have gained a new title to the world's wonder and respect, by the manner in which the government was conducted without a head throughout the summer, and passed quietly into new hands upon the death of the President, it is necessary that the trial and punishment of the assassin should be equally characteristic of what is best in our government. A prompt and fair trial, and legal punishment, should end the tragedy.

Wrangell Land lately taken possession of by Lieut. Hooper in the name of the United States, is a large, uninhabited region in the Arctic Ocean, northwest of Behring Strait, with its southeast extremity in latitude 70 deg. 40 min. N., longitude 178 deg. 51 min. W. Hooper has christened it "New Columbia." So little is known of it that navigators are in doubt whether to call it an island or an extension of the main land. It is thought that valuable minerals will be found in the frozen soil.

Some one has been hunting up the burial places of the eighteen dead presidents and finds them widely scattered. Washington, Jefferson, Madison, Monroe and Tyler are buried in different parts of Virginia; the two Adams in Massachusetts; Jackson, Polk and Johnson in Tennessee; Van Buren and Fillmore in New York; Harrison in Indiana; Taylor in Louisiana; Pierce in New Hampshire; Buchanan in Pennsylvania; Lincoln in Illinois and Garfield in Ohio.

Would-be railroad train robbers are easily discomfited by a little coolness and bravery. A gang who intended "going through" a train at Sterling, Ill., changed their minds when the conductor drew a revolver and ordered them to throw up their hands. They obeyed orders promptly and were marched off to jail by brakemen. This is in vivid contrast with recent conduct by some Missouri and Arkansas trainmen under similar circumstances.

The system of choosing Mormon missionaries for Europe is peculiar. All over Utah there are organizations, numbering seventy men each, and known as quorums. Over them all is an executive body of seven members. When a call for missionaries is issued by the head of the church the presidents of the quorums designate the men to go. The missionaries so designated never refuse to obey orders. They don't dare.

1831 THE CULTIVATOR 1831

Country Gentleman

THE BEST OF THE AGRICULTURAL WEEKLIES.
ENLARGEMENT FOR 1882.
The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN is the leading journal of American Agriculture. In amount and practical value of contents, in extent and ability of correspondence, in quality of paper and style of publication, it occupies the first rank. It is believed to have no superior in either of the three chief divisions of FARM CROPS AND PROCESSES, HORTICULTURE & FRUIT-GROWING, LIVE STOCK AND DAIRYING, while it also includes all minor departments of rural interest, such as the Poultry Yard, Entomology, Bee-keeping, Greenhouse and Grapery, Veterinary Replies, Farm Questions and Answers, Fireside Reading, Domestic Economy, and a summary of the News of the Week. Its Market Reports are unusually complete and much attention is paid to the Prospects of the Crops, as throwing light on one of the most important of all questions—When to Buy and When to Sell. It is liberally illustrated and is intended to supply, in a continually increasing degree, and in the best sense of the term, a LIVE AGRICULTURAL NEWSPAPER.

The Volume of THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN for 1882 will be largely increased in contents by the addition of a sufficient number of pages to meet the growing demands upon its space, but the terms will continue as follow, when paid strictly in advance: ONE COPY, one year, $2.50; FOUR COPIES, $10, and an additional copy for the year free to the sender of the Club; TEN COPIES, $20, and an additional copy for the year free to the sender of the Club.
All New Subscribers for 1882 paying in advance now, WILL RECEIVE THE PAPER WEEKLY, from receipt of remittance to January 1st, 1882, WITHOUT CHARGE.
Specimen Copies Free. Address LUTHER TUCKER & SON, Publishers, Albany, N. Y.

MILL PROPERTY FOR SALE AT A BARGAIN.—In consequence of continued ill health I now offer my mill property, known as LUTHER'S MILL, in Burlington township for sale at a great bargain. The site is one of the best on Sugar Creek, and embraces about 7 acres of land on which are several dwelling houses and other buildings. The mill has always enjoyed a large custom. A practical miller can pay for the property in a short time from the profits. The property will be sold very cheap and on easy terms.
