INDEPENDENT.

State Treasurer,
Charles S. Wolfe.
County Commissioners,
John B. Hinds.
Uriah Terry.

J. M. Wilson is the Prohibition candidate for State Treasurer.

With a third party in the field, and that third the most independent of all parties, an independent candidacy always means something more than appears on the surface.

The independent candidacy of Mr. Wolfe in Pennsylvania is one of this kind. He is an independent Republican candidate for State Treasurer, and as such is of course receiving the secret support of the Pennsylvania Democrats, not in votes, but in means to run his campaign, and those other aids which both Republicans and Democrats know so well how to use, whenever there is an independent candidate in the field that can be played against either side.

The Democracy are rallying pretty strongly in Pennsylvania this year. By secretly supporting Mr. Wolfe's canvass, they are as they believe giving the majority vote to Orange Noble, their own candidate for Treasurer. Every vote cast for Wolfe will come from the Republican party, and thus every vote for him will, in effect, favor the Democratic candidate.

Early in the campaign Mr. Wolfe's prospects for a good run were pretty fair; things are no longer so promising for him. All parties begin to see what the wily Democrats knew, that an independent candidacy meant simply short practice to reduce the Republican majority. We do not fear that a single Greenbacker will be caught in the toils.—National View, G. B.

Secretary Windom, while Secretary of the Treasury, discussed with President Garfield the question of civil service reform, and prepared a plan, applicable to the Treasury Department, which was favorably regarded by the late President. The plan proposes to allot to the States the number of appointments to which they would be entitled in the Treasury Department; then to appoint a committee of three in each State, whose duty it should be to meet once a year and examine applicants, the committee to prepare a list, graduated according to merit, of those who pass the examination. The persons should be selected from those highest on the list and be sent for only when the State of which they are residents should be entitled to appointments. In making these selections soldiers or their widows or children should have the preference.

At Economy, Pa., the home of that once large and active community, the "Harmonists," founded by Father Rapp, about one hundred old men and women still linger, most of them on the brink of the grave. The business affairs of the society have always been well managed, and its accumulated wealth is now enormous, in the neighborhood of $10,000,000 it is said. To a recent visitor's inquiry as to the final disposition of this vast property an old white-haired man replied that he did not doubt the State of Pennsylvania would gladly settle the society's affairs and take the assets for its trouble.

More than 4,000 car loads of water melons were raised in Mississippi county, Mo., this season. They brought an average price of $100 a car, or $400,000.

A New York firm advertises in Chicago papers offering $2.50 per $1000, for Confederate bonds maturing in 1865.

1831 THE CULTIVATOR AND 1831 Country Gentleman

THE BEST OF THE AGRICULTURAL WEEKLIES.

ENLARGEMENT FOR 1882.

The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN is the leading journal of American Agriculture. In amount and practical value of contents, in extent and ability of correspondence, in quality of paper and style of publication, it occupies the first rank. It is believed to have no superior in either of the three chief divisions of FARM CROPS AND PROCESSES, HORTICULTURE & FRUIT-GROWING, LIVE STOCK AND DAIRYING, while it also includes all minor departments of rural interest, such as the Poultry Yard, Entomology, Bee-keeping, Greenhouse and Grapery, Veterinary Reprints, Farm Questions and Answers, Fireside Reading, Domestic Economy, and a summary of the News of the Week. Its Market Reports are unusually complete and much attention is paid to the Prospects of the Crops, as throwing light on one of the most important of all questions—When to Buy and When to Sell. It is liberally illustrated and is intended to supply, in a continually increasing degree, and in the best sense of the term, a LIVE AGRICULTURAL NEWSPAPER.

The Volume of THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN for 1882 will be largely increased in Contents by the addition of a sufficient number of pages to meet the growing demands upon its space, but the terms will continue as follow, when paid strictly in advance: ONE COPY, one year, $2.50; FOUR COPIES, $10, and an additional copy for the year free to the sender of the Club; TEN COPIES, $20, and an additional copy for the year free to the sender of the Club.

All New Subscribers for 1882 paying in advance now, WILL RECEIVE THE PAPER WEEKLY, from receipt of remittance to January 1st, 1882, WITHOUT CHARGE.
