FUNK—ELWELL.—We copy from the Columbian the following interesting account of the marriage ceremonies of Miss MARY L. ELWELL and NEVIN U. FUNK. The bride is a native of Towanda and one of the most accomplished young ladies in the state. She has a large circle of warm friends here who join in extending hearty congratulations:

"On Thursday afternoon at five o'clock the marriage of Miss MARY L. ELWELL, daughter of Hon. WILLIAM ELWELL, and Mr. N. U. FUNK was solemnized at St. Paul's Episcopal church, Rev. LOUIS ZAHNER officiating. The altar was decked with flowers and a floral yoke flung from the corona in the chancel. The bridesmaids were Miss H. M. HARTLEY of Bedford, Miss MAUD FREEZE, Bloomsburg, and Miss LIZZIE BUCKINGHAM of Harrisburg. Messrs. W. McK. HESS of Bloomsburg, LOUIS DEWART of Sunbury and L. PARDEE of Hazleton acted as ushers. Mr. LEONI MELLICK of Philadelphia was the bridegroom's best man and entered the chancel with him from the robing room. The bridal party marched up the main aisle in the following order: Mr. HESS and Miss HARTLEY, Mr. DEWART and Miss FREEZE, Mr. PARDEE and Miss BUCKINGHAM. Then came the bride leaning on the arm of her father. The ceremony was performed at the chancel rail. Prof. NILES of the Normal School, presided at the organ, by request of the organist of St. Paul's.

The bride was attired in an exquisite dress of white satin and brocade, en train, with Duchesse lace and wore orange blossoms and carnations. In her hand she carried a bouquet of choice flowers. The bridesmaids were robed in white mull, elaborately trimmed with lace and natural flowers and carried balls of carnations.

The weather was inclement, but this did not deter the many friends of the bride and groom from attending the church, and bestowing their best wishes upon the happy pair.

A reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents on Third street, from half past five until half past seven. The house was beautifully decorated with flowers, and the rooms were crowded with friends, all anxious to tender congratulations upon the happy event which had brought two lives into the dearest and most sacred relations known upon earth.

The bridal gifts were many and valuable, embracing articles for use and ornament, and evidenced strongly the love and esteem of the givers. If hearty and sincere good wishes avail to make life happy, then have Mr. and Mrs. FUNK a golden future before them. We are sure that no young couple ever embarked upon the sea of matrimony under more favorable auspices, and it is the hope of their many friends that no storm may ever disturb the serenity of their voyage.

A number of guests from a distance were present, among them being Mrs. Senator P. H. SMITH, of Wisconsin, sister of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. E. W. ELWELL, of Towanda; Mrs. McK. LONG, of Troy; Mr. and Mrs. S. A. YORKS, of Danville; T. R. JORDAN, of Towanda; Mr. and Mrs. GEORGE SANDERSON, Jr., of Scranton.

QUESTIONS FOR GENERAL DISCUSSION.

1. What can be done to induce Directors and Patrons to give more help to teachers?

2. What suggestions have teachers to offer in regard to the County Institute?

3. What can be done to make the work of our Common schools more practical than it at present seems to be?

4. Is the practice of giving reward cards and other prizes as incentives to pupils a wise and commendable one?

5. Is any change from the present mode of examining and licensing teachers advisable?

The exercises will be interspersed with music, and by declamation or recitations by Frank Lyon, Julia S. Hawes, May Alden Hattie Vanzorder, Mary Bowman, Lottie Payne, and Hallie Dodge.

The committee on entertainment, arrangements, etc., are Dr. O. H. Rockwell, L. L. Lyon, M. A. Cramer, John Bockwell, Mrs. Daniel Huntly, Mrs. Dr. Hull, Miss Mary Satterlee and Miss Stella Vanzorder.

This being the annual meeting the Association will elect officers for the coming year. It is hoped that there will be a large turn out of teachers and friends.
