CHARLIE CODDING came home from Philadelphia to vote.

WILL J. DELPEUCH of Horn Brook came home from Philadelphia to vote.

VINE H. BALDWIN and GEORGE A. LAMKIN, of Troy were in town yesterday.

H. L. COLE of the Tunkhannock Worker was a caller at this office on Saturday.

IRA MORLEY has returned from Philadelphia, and is confined to his room by illness.

District Attorney TERRY of Tunkhannock was registered at the Ward House Saturday.

The Reverend PRESTON FUGETT has resigned the rectorship of the Episcopal church at Blossburg.

The Reverend THEODORE J. HOLCOMB of Evansville, Ind., occupied the pulpit of the Episcopal Church yesterday and preached two very able sermons and made a short address to the Sunday School. The gentleman made a very favorable impression.

Rev. E. J. MORRIS, the very talented Welsh divine, will open the Institute lecture course this evening. We do not know what the subject is to be, but the name of the lecturer is a sufficient guarantee that the lecture will be both entertaining and edifying. It is free and we hope the chapel may be well filled. All are invited.

Mrs. Dr. PORTER has closed her house here and will this week take up her residence in Philadelphia. Mrs. P. has been active and efficient in church and benevolent work here for many years, and her departure will be regretted by the worthy poor who have always found in her a sympathizing friend, as well as by the large social circle which she has so long graced.

Rev. C. T. HALLOWELL delivered his first anniversary sermon yesterday. He said the past year had been full of encouragement. The membership had increased more than one third; the contributions were $700, nearly $4 for each member. The amount contributed to missionary and other benevolent objects was $126. During the year a Sunday School had been organized, which now numbers 60 members with an average attendance of 50. The brethren were thoroughly united and growing in grace.

Remember the lecture at the Institute this evening.

LEGRAND BREWER died on Barclay mountain yesterday of consumption.

The venerable REUBEN WILBUR, of Troy died about noon on Saturday, in his 97th year. The funeral will be held at his late residence to-morrow at 2 o'clock p. m.

A special meeting of Naiad Fire Co. No. 2 will be held this evening at 7:30, to make arrangements for attending the funeral of LEGRAND BREWER. A full attendance is requested.

The viewers appointed by Judge MORROW to examine and report on the necessity for taking the bridge over the Susquehanna river at Athens for a free county bridge, met Friday and agreed to report that the bridge ought to be made free, and placed the damage to the Company at $11,600. The report will probably be approved by the Grand Jury. Judge STALFORD, Judge HARKNESS, W. A. THOMAS, G. H. VANDYKE and A. L. CRANMER were the viewers. The bridge company will probably accept the amount awarded, though the structure is worth much more.

We learn that some republicans in this place announce that they will vote against Mr. WEBB because they are informed that he does not intend to discharge the duties of the Register's office himself. Such reports are unfair and no honest man will circulate them. Mr. WEBB has faithfully discharged the duties of every trust imposed in him by the people of this county and will not disappoint them now. He will give his personal attention to the office and no one who is obnoxious to the community will be employed to assist him. Mr. WEBB's fidelity to the interests of this county and his irreproachable life entitle him to fair treatment from all and the united support of the republican party.

It may be of interest to voters to know the provisions made by the law to fill any vacancies on election boards.

If the Judge be dead, absent, or incapacitated to act, the majority Inspector appoints a Judge.

If the majority Inspector is not present, or is incapacitated then the Judge appoints.

If the minority inspectorship is vacant, the person who received the second highest vote for Judge takes his place.

If there be any vacancy one hour after the hour fixed for the polls to open, the voters present are empowered to fill it.

We find the following notice of the death of Mr. D. B. BARTLETT, who formerly kept the Means House in this place in the Rutland (Vt.) Herald of November 1:

Last Monday the funeral of the late D. B. Bartlett was held at the residence of his son-in-law, N. A. Litchfield, in Hydeville, Rev. Mr. Lee officiating. The deceased was born in Addison, Vt., November 30, 1814; and died October 20, 1881. D. B. Bartlett could claim for his own a large circle of warm and firm personal friends. By them his death will be lamented as a personal bereavement. He was all his life known as an honest and active business man, a most genial acquaintance and companion. Mr. Bartlett was engaged in the occupation of hotel keeper for many years in Poultney, Whitehall, Elmira and St. Johns, Canada, and was ever characterized as a most popular landlord. He was a member of the Masonic order, and had taken the highest degree that can be conferred in this country. Members of the Fairhaven and Castleton lodges attended the funeral in a body and followed the remains, which were taken to Rochester for interment, as far as the depot. —Era.

Mr. BARTLETT died of paralysis and was sick only 24 hours.

People will take care now as to how they detach their postage stamps, for the post office department has just ruled that postage stamps with any fraction of them missing will no longer be accepted as prepayment of postage on the matter to which they are attached.

Free lecture at the Institute this evening.
