Hon. M. F. ELLIOTT, of Wellsborough, is a guest at the Ward House.

HENRY STEPHENS of this place has just been promoted from fireman to an engineer on the L. V. road. His many friends tender congratulations on his deserved promotion.

Mrs. JONES, widow of HENRY JONES, who shot and killed himself in the old cooper shop in the First ward a few years ago, left for Chicago yesterday morning and will be married on her arrival there to a Mr. MEAD who resided here several years ago, and who once attempted to commit suicide by cutting his throat.

SIMON CONGDON, of East Troy, Pa., is building a vault for himself and wife at the East Troy cemetery, and is negotiating with FRANK KNAPP, the undertaker, for two fine metallic coffins with plate-glass tops. It is his intention to have the coffins so deposited in the vault that by raising a marble slab his friends may see his remains at any time in after years. Mr. CONGDON is determined to have his worldly accounts all settled before he takes his departure.—Free Press.

Of Mr. C. M. KOON, a former hotel proprietor in this place, the Tunkhannock Democrat of last week says: "Mr. KOON, an old time resident of the borough, returned here on Monday from a protracted sojourn in Colorado. Mr. KOON left here in March, 1880, and has been engaged in the management of the Manitou House at Colorado Springs. Mr. KOON expresses himself as well pleased with the country, its climate, &c., and will return west in the spring." Mr. KOON was proprietor of the Ward House for several years.

The Tanning Co suit will be resumed today.

Lost, last evening, a bunch of keys on steel ring. Finder will be suitably rewarded on returning to this office.

The mother of Mrs. J. G. BENSLEY, of Wysox died at her home in Potter county on Thursday, after a long illness.

In referring to the sermon at the Baptist Church Sunday we stated that the contributions amounted to nearly four dollars per member. We should have said the benevolent contributions aggregated that sum. The receipts for all purposes amounted to almost $20 per capita of the membership.

A very fair audience was present at the Collegiate Institute last evening to listen to the initial lecture of this season's course. Inclement and disagreeable as was the weather, not one of those who braved the storm and waded through the mud but felt richly repaid for the effort. The theme was "The use or uses of education." The lecturer, Rev. E. J. MORRIS, presented his subject in a very entertaining manner, opening up new mines of thought for the student, and investing education with new beauty. He urged his young hearers to go forward in their studies, not because learning might bring wealth or worldly renown, but for the solid pleasure and real satisfaction it imparts to the possessor. In conclusion he reminded them that the highest education without soul culture would prove unsatisfying.

Mr. MORRIS spoke without notes and held the undivided attention of his auditors for nearly an hour and a-half.

We congratulate Professor QUINLAN on the auspicious opening of his lecture course and hope he may be successful in securing other able and entertaining lecturers as the one we listened to with so much pleasure and profit last evening.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT.—On Sunday ast several young men of Ulster went out gunning, it is said to secure a partridge for a sick young lady. Two of them, JAMES THROOP and WILLIAM M'QUEEN were walking only a short distance apart, when M'QUEEN'S gun was accidentally discharged, the contents taking effect below the shoulders of THROOP, causing death in a short time. An inquest was held yesterday and a verdict in accordance with the above facts rendered.

Mr. LEGRAND BREWER, who died in Carbon Run on Sunday, was a young man of fine ability and great promise. Some of his poetical productions have been highly complimented by critics, and had his life been prolonged he would undoubtedly have made his mark as a writer.

He was 26 years of age, and had been in feeble health most of the time for several years past. His stricken family will receive the condolence of a large circle of friends in their bereavement. The funeral will be held at the house of his father, PETER BREWER in Towanda township, to-morrow at 1 o'clock. The Naiads will take charge of the ceremonies.

Judge WILBUR whose death in Troy was announced yesterday, was one of the oldest citizens of the county. He was born in Charleston, R. I., May 21, 1785, and came to Troy in 1807. He served in the war of 1812 as paymaster, with the rank of First Lieutenant. In 1824 he was elected Sheriff of the county, and was twice chosen State Senator from the district composed of the counties of Bradford, Susquehanna and Tioga, (1830-7.) From 1846 to 1857 he was one of the associate Judges of the county. Since his retirement from the bench he has not been prominent in the politics of the county, but in 1856 was the elector for this district on the Democratic ticket, himself and President BUCHANAN being warm personal friends. He was appointed Inspector of Prisons by Gov. WOLFE. He was also a member of the State board of equalization at one time. In every position he was called to fill he discharged the duties with perfect fidelity. Judge WILBUR married Miss SALLY DOBBINS, who was seven years his junior, and survive him.

The salient features of his character were his strict integrity and indomitable energy. He never failed in any undertaking. The Judge dispensed hospitality with an open hand; entertained his guests royally, and was kind to the poor.

Only a few years ago, while yet in the possession of vigorous mental faculties, he united with the Episcopal church.

The deceased was the grandfather of Mrs. CARNOCHAN of this place.

Funeral at family residence in Troy township this afternoon.

FIVE CHILDREN AT ONE TIME!—A Lady in New England had five children sick with Chills at one time. Her pastor recommended Therma-line. She bought a family box and cured the whole lot. Children won't take quinine; its bitter taste turns their stomachs. Therma-line is put up in sugar-coated capsules, like small flat beans. Only costs 25 cents a box. It has never been known to fail, and is now prescribed by physicians instead of quinine.
