J. M. Wilson is the Prohibition candidate for State Treasurer.

Right here the Democracy shows its guile. The men of that party say constantly to Greenbackers "there is no essential difference between us on the financial question," and yet the leaders of that party will covertly support a Republican candidate in preference to a Greenbacker, whose politics, the party says, are so nearly like its own. The leaders of the Democratic party are the staunchest supporters of monopolies in the country at this moment. There is not one of them, from Bayard to Thurber, who is not an ingrained monopolist. Bayard is a hard money monopolist. Belmont the same. Thurber, the man who sits at the head of the anti-monopoly league, is a monopolist who lives, moves and makes profit of several monopolies, using one against the other. He fights oleomargarine, and yet trades in a monopoly of that unctious production. He fights monopoly in the cheese ring, and runs the ring himself. He is a free-trader and coins money from the protective monopoly in sugar. This is the sort of anti-monopoly the league gives us; the sort that modern Democracy favors; and whenever they fight any one of the hundred abuses, it is because their old enemies the Republicans, have the inside track in them.—National View.

Mrs. Garfield has taken up her residence in the Burke mansion, in Euclid avenue, Cleveland. Mr. Rudolph, her brother, has been appointed administrator of the late President's estate.

The decision against Mormon Cannon, declaring him to be an alien, justifies the ground taken by Governor Murry. The Court wherein this decision was made is the one that Cannon has alleged naturalized him twenty-five years ago. Therefore this man, who has been sent as a delegate to Congress a number of times, never held a right to sit there. The decision again directs attention to the fraud and deception practiced by the Mormons, and will intensify the feeling that is growing against them.

Considerable excitement has been created in mining circles by the publication of results obtained from working the recently discovered gold bearing lode in the Summit District of Colorado. Mining experts and capitalists interested in the "find," claim that it will prove the largest and most valuable gold mine in the United States. It is claimed that the result of the actual working for the month with a fifteen stamp mill is $100,000, and the tailings are worth $360 per ton. The assays it is said rule as high as $20,000 per ton.

A. S. Solomans, chairman of the committee of ways and means of the National Garfield memorial hospital has received the following letter from Mrs. Garfield:

MENTOR, O., October 31.—Dear Sir: Your letter of October 22 giving an account of the action of the memorial hospital committee was duly received. I regard the project as a grand tribute to the memory of General Garfield and one which would be to him most gratifying. The high character of those engaged in it is the best assurance of its accomplishment in the most worthy manner. It will be my pleasure to contribute to this object.

Very truly yours,
[Signed] LUCRETIA R. GARFIELD,

Country Gentleman

THE BEST OF THE AGRICULTURAL WEEKLIES.

ENLARGEMENT FOR 1882.
The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN is the leading journal of American Agriculture. In amount and practical value of contents, in extent and ability of correspondence, in quality of paper and style of publication, it occupies the first rank. It is believed to have no superior in either of the three chief divisions of FARM CROPS AND PROCESSES, HORTICULTURE & FRUIT-GROWING, LIVE STOCK AND DAIRYING, while it also includes all minor departments of rural interest, such as the Poultry Yard, Entomology, Bee-keeping, Greenhouse and Grapery, Veterinary Replies, Farm Questions and Answers, Fireside Reading, Domestic Economy, and a summary of the News of the Week. Its Market Reports are unusually complete and much attention is paid to the Prospects of the Crops, as throwing light on one of the most important of all questions—When to Buy and When to Sell. It is liberally illustrated and is intended to supply, in a continually increasing degree, and in the best sense of the term, a LIVE AGRICULTURAL NEWSPAPER. The Volume of THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN for 1882 will be largely increased in Contents by the addition of a sufficient number of pages to meet the growing demands upon its space, but the terms will continue as follow, when paid strictly in advance: ONE COPY, one year, $2.50; FOUR COPIES, $10, and an additional copy for the year free to the sender of the Club; TEN COPIES, $20, and an additional copy for the year free to the sender of the Club.
