Proclamation for Thanksgiving Day.

By the President of the United States of America—A proclamation: It has long been the pious custom of our people, with the closing of the year, to look back upon the blessings brought to them in the changing course of the seasons, and to return solemn thanks to the All Giving Source from whom they flow.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed Done at the city of Washington, this fourth day of November, in the year of our Lord 1881, and of the independence of the United States, 106.

[Signed] CHESTER A. ARTHUR. By the President. JAMES G. BLAINE, Secretary of State.

The truth about the crops begins to appear. It is now well established that instead of a famine we will have 154,000,000 bushels of wheat beyond all probable consumption; and it is somewhat doubtful whether Europe will want this surplus.

Judge Davis, the Springfield Republican says, preserves his frugal habits. A young friend found him the other day counting a roll of greenbacks. "Young man," he said, "this is the true way to make money. Economy and saving. This is my stationery allowance. The Senators are allowed $125 for stationery. Too much, too much. I have used $4 worth, and am entitled to $121 in cash, and here it is. Be economical and saving, young man."

A Boston gentleman who has taken a great interest in the poorer classes of society, has been traveling extensively in Europe the past Summer. He says that in no town or city that he has visited, either in America or Europe, has he found the mill operatives and laboring classes provided with such comfortable tenement houses as in Belfast, Ireland.

Mr. Wendell Phillips recently wrote to a friend in Iowa: "I do not forget that President Arthur was one of our New York counsel in the fugitive-slave case, and I predict he will make a good President."

The mutilation of coin craze impells the Reading Times to remark: "It is time for the thing to be stopped, and the only way to do it is for the public to act in concert and refuse those pieces just as they would refuse counterfeits."

The Lebanon Courier mentions a speculative insurance case at Harrisburg, for which it says it has good authority. The operators procured policies upon a Newfoundland dog under the name of "Jones" for $5,000. The dog has been killed, the assessments made and the money drawn.

D. H. R. DAVIS' HAIR RENEWER.

No other Renewer yet discovered does its work so quickly and satisfactorily as this. It will restore gray and faded hair to its original beauty; it will immediately prevent the falling out of the hair; it cures dandruff, itching eruptions, and keeps the scalp clean; it will cause the hair to grow where it has fallen off and imparts gloss and freshness; it softens the hair when bar had dry and is entirely free from all irritating matter; it has the very best reputation and gives universal satisfaction.

MILL PROPERTY FOR SALE AT A BARGAIN.—In consequence of continued ill health I now offer my mill property, known as LUTHER'S MILL, in Burlington township for sale at a great bargain. The site is one of the best on Sugar Creek, and embraces about 7 acres of land on which are several dwelling houses and other buildings. The mill has always enjoyed a large custom. Country Gentleman

THE BEST OF THE AGRICULTURAL WEEKLIES. ENLARGEMENT FOR 1882.

The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN is the leading journal of American Agriculture. In amount and practical value of contents, in extent and ability of correspondence, in quality of paper and style of publication, it occupies the first rank. It is believed to have no superior in either of the three chief divisions of FARM CROPS AND PROCESSES, HORTICULTURE & FRUIT-GROWING, LIVE STOCK AND DAIRYING, while it also includes all minor departments of rural interest, such as the Poultry Yard, Entomology, Bee-keeping, Greenhouse and Grapery, Veterinary Replies, Farm Questions and Answers, Fireside Reading, Domestic Economy, and a summary of the News of the Week. Its Market Reports are unusually complete and much attention is paid to the Prospects of the Crops, as throwing light on one of the most important of all questions—When to Buy and When to Sell. It is liberally illustrated and is intended to supply, in a constantly increasing degree, and in the best sense of the term, a LIVE AGRICULTURAL NEWSPAPER.

The Volume of THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN for 1882 will be largely increased in contents by the addition of a sufficient number of pages to meet the growing demands upon its space, but the terms will continue as follows, when paid strictly in advance: ONE COPY, one year, $2.50; FOUR COPIES, $10, and an additional copy for the year free to the sender of the Club; TEN COPIES, $25, and an additional copy for the year free to the sender of the Club.

All New Subscribers for 1882 paying in advance now, will receive the PAPER WEEKLY, from receipt of remittance to January 1st, 1882, WITHOUT CHARGE.

Specimen Copies Free. Address LUTHER TUCKER & SON, Publishers, Albany, N. Y.
