Fresh candies manufactured every day at FITCH'S.

Scarlet fever afflicts some of the residents along the river above Milan. No deaths have yet occurred.

The one Wolfe man which the Advertiser said comprised the "kicker's" strength in that borough, must have voted early and often.

The small-pox patient at Milan, is doing well, but much excitement exists in the vicinity as they expect new cases to occur soon, from among those exposed by him.

A child of PERRY GRIFFITH'S in Athens township, while playing with a sewing machine thrust the needle into one of its fingers, the point breaking off. The child was taken to a surgeon, but he decided that it was best not to remove the piece as the pain had subsided.

On Wednesday night while Miss MARY OLIVER and her two brothers and CHARLES SWAIN of Wilnot township, were on their way to a pound party for the benefit of Rev. Mr. LUCE of Golden Hill, they were thrown from the wagon in which they were seated, owing to the team being frightened by the breaking of the neck-yoke strap. The horses ran some distance before the wagon was wrecked. Miss OLIVER was seriously injured, the rest escaped with slight bruises. Dr. BARTLETT was called in attendance.

An exchange dryly observes that a mechanic in search of work is "out of a job," a clerk in the same predicament is "disengaged" and a professional man similarly placed is "at leisure." The mechanic "gets work," the clerk "connects" himself with some establishment, and the professional man "resumes practice." This rule holds good in some other things besides employment. When one of the "upper ten" has a high time over night, it is said the next day that he was "slightly elevated." The middle society man under similar circumstances, was a "little intoxicated," but the laboring man was "beastly drunk."

Every few days we cannot fail to notice some of the juvenile community swaying about the streets considerably the worse off for old cider or some other drink that is procured about town—we can't say where. People who have children who get in this condition should hunt down the apology for a human being who deals it out and give them the full extent of the law. Any one who will deal out, give or sell to these youngsters deserves to be kicked out of civilization, and at an early date at that. We have a few licensed places in town who go very close to law, and just a few who have no law, license or honor to go by, and who bring a large amount of censure on our first-class licensed places.—New Milford Advertiser.

There can be no doubt that in many instances the taste for strong drink is formed in youth by the use of cider, and the above applies to Towanda in every particular.

A New York firm gives the following directions in regard to the manner of fattening and preparing poultry for the market:

They must be well fattened; crops empty when killed; kill by bleeding, but do not remove the head; nicely and well picked; skin not broken or torn, entrails should not be removed; thoroughly cooled but not frozen. Pack in boxes, with a layer of clean straw (rye straw the best) between each layer of poultry, in the same posture in which they roost. Mark each box, specifying what it contains. Send invoice by mail. Ship to reach us about the middle of the week—should never reach us so late in the week as on Saturday.

The greatest demand on special occasions is for fine and fat turkeys for Thanksgiving. Prime and nice turkeys and geese for Christmas. Extra large and nice turkeys for New Year's Day, after this turkeys weighing over eleven or twelve pounds have very little demand.

On all these occasions shipments should reach the market two to five days in advance. If you cannot find any profit in sending prime quality and well prepared, you need not look for any in ordinary or poor qualities. See to it that every package is marked with your name or initials and also what it contains, and send invoice.

The finest confections in the market at C. S. FITCH'S.

Miss N. A. Powell, an experienced dress maker would inform the ladies of Towanda that she now resides at Mr. H. A. Prince's on Packer avenue, where she will be pleased to receive orders for work, or she will go out by the day.

Speaking of Oysters, we have a word to say in regard to the manner in which S. B. TIDD serves them. He keeps the largest ones, and gets them up in the very best style. He has fitted up elegant rooms for his customers.
