

DAILY TOWANDA REVIEW.

VOLUME III, NO. 82.

TOWANDA, PA., TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1881.

PRICE ONE CENT.

LOCALS.

Personal.

Lawyer LILLEY of Canton, lost his pocket book while riding to this place yesterday.

WILFRED EASTABROOK, who has been Mr. RUNDALL'S butcher for several years past, has bought out Mr. GEROLD'S interest in the Troy stage route.

Since the sad death of Mrs. HOWARD, of Wyalusing, her mother, Mrs. J. C. RIDGWAY, has taken charge of Mr. HOWARD'S lonely household. Her daughters, Mrs. G. W. SGOVILLE, of this place, and Mrs. DEPUY of Chicago, are also spending a few days there.

GEORGE I. BUCK, of Wyalusing, has taken a clerkship in DYE & Co's hardware store.—Mr. B. will be heartily welcomed to Towanda, where he is quite well known, having been a student at the Institute for a number of terms. He is an exemplary young man and a fine vocalist.

Fifty years ago next Wednesday Elder S. W. ALDEN and his estimable wife were married. To-morrow they will celebrate their golden wedding at their home in Monroeton. No cards have been issued but the Elder informs us that they will be "at home," to any friends who may call. The REVIEW wishes the aged couple a happy day and many pleasant returns of it.

Have you been into see GRADY'S new assortment of goods at his store on Pine street? He has an elegant selection of cloths and suitings, from which he can manufacture you any garment or a whole suit on short notice. He does his own cutting and personally superintends the work on every article made in his establishment. That he always succeeds in securing perfect fits, and that his prices are "way down," everybody knows.

To-morrow morning Mrs. E. M. MASON (nee Miss EFFIE PENNEPACKER), leaves for her future home, Kansas City. She will be greatly missed here, where her modest, unassuming manners and many graces have made her a favorite in the social circle. She is a charming christian lady, and we have no doubt will become as popular and useful in her new home, and as greatly beloved as she has been and is here. Her husband occupies a good position in the Kansas City post office and has provided a suitable home for his accomplished young wife.

Mr. NATHAN TIDD met with quite a painful accident while returning from Plainfield, N. J., on Saturday, where he had been to attend the funeral of his brother-in-law. At Mauch Chunk it became necessary to change cars, and as he was about to leave the coach in which he had been riding, the train suddenly started, throwing the old gentleman violently against a seat, inflicting an ugly gash on the head, fracturing a rib and otherwise bruising him, rendering him almost helpless. He managed to reach home but has been unable to leave his room since.

Fresh candies manufactured every day at FITCH'S.

The next regular meeting of the Towanda Musical Society will be held at the house of JAMES MACFARLANE, Esq., Thursday Nov. 17 at 11 o'clock a. m. Scale, E flat.

Tickets for JOSH BILLINGS' lecture are being taken rapidly. If you have not yet secured a supply, call at WHITCOMB'S or the post office and subscribe for the number you want.

There will be no entrance fee charged to the Oyster Supper in Mercu Block Wednesday evening and the ladies hope that a goodly number of our business men will relieve their wives of the trouble of preparing the evening meal and take tea with them. Tables will be spread at 5 o'clock. The menu will comprise tea, coffee and sandwiches, as well as oysters. Whatever of patronage they may receive will be gratefully remembered.

Don't fail to go to JOHN SULLIVAN'S on Bridge street, for the best five cent cigar.

Wanted—Two good boys to learn the printing business. Apply at this office.

Prof. DANIELLE opens his dancing classes on Thursday, Nov. 17th, with a grand reception, in Col. Means' Hall, to which complimentary tickets may be obtained of Mr. C. B. PORTER at his drug store.

The finest stables and stock farms of the whole country, such as those of Mr. Calvin, Mr. Frost of New York; Mr. Mike Goodin of Belmont Park, Pa., Aristides Welsh, Esq., of Erdenheim, near Philadelphia, and others we could name, always keep St. Jacob's oil—the horse's best physician.

Mr. CHARLES F. CROSS informs us that only twenty-five more signatures are needed to enable him to secure the proposed course. As there are no companies booked for an appearance during the season, he should have no trouble in securing the number necessary. Any of our readers who have not already subscribed should do so at once.

The funeral of Judge STALFORD takes place this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Persons from this place who desire to attend can take the train here at about half after ten a. m., and return on No. 2. We have not the data at hand for an appropriate notice of so prominent and worthy a citizen, but hope some one better qualified for the office may provide us with a sketch of his life.

Wolfe's vote in the State was 49,220.

The new Secretary of the Treasury was installed yesterday.

Another of the victims of the election day riot at Meridian, Miss., died.

Diphtheria, small-pox and scarlet fever are devastating portions of Russia.

Heavy snow-falls are reported from Western Kansas, Colorado, and New-Mexico.

The trial of the assassin Gaiteau was commenced yesterday. Five jurors were secured. There was no excitement in court.

"Prince" Harry Genet, the last of the Tweed ring thieves of New York city to fall into the clutches of the law, has served out his eight months sentence on Blackwell's Island and was released Friday. His fine of $9604 was paid by his friends. There are no longer any members of that notorious body of men behind the bars—in this world.

Wanted, a place to do general house work, by an experienced girl. Apply at E. G. Krouner's.

Miss EMMA WARING respectfully informs the ladies that she has taken rooms at Mr. Wm. Keyser's house, on Pine street near Graded school, where she will be pleased to see all in need of her services. Cutting, fitting and dress making done on reasonable terms, and all work warranted to suit.

FIVE CHILDREN AT ONE TIME!—A Lady in New England had five children sick with Chills at one time. Her pastor recommended Thermanine. She bought a family box and cured the whole lot. Children won't take quinine; its bitter taste turns their stomachs. Thermanine is put up in sugar-coated capsules, like small flat beans. Only costs 25 cents a box. It has never been known to fail, and is now prescribed by physicians instead of quinine.

CAUTION.—Whereas my wife, Margaret Chilson, has left my bed and board without just cause or provocation this is to prohibit all persons harboring or trusting her on my account as I will pay no debts of her contracting.

SAMUEL CHILSON.
