Proclamation for Thanksgiving Day.

By the President of the United States of Americ -A proclamation : It has long been the pious custom of our people, with the closing of the year, to look back upon the blessings brought to them in the changing course of the seasons, and to return solemn thanks to the All Giving Source from whom they flow. And although at this period when the falling leaf admonishes us that the time of our sacred duty is at hand, our nation still lies in the shadow of a great bereavement, and the mourn, ing which has filled our hearts, still finds its sor rowful expression toward the God before whom we but lately bowed in grief and supplication. Yet the countless benefits which have showered upon us during the past twelve months call for our fervent gratitude, and make it fitting that we should rejoice with thankfulness that the Lord in His infinite mercy has most signally favored our country and our people. Peace without and pros perity within have been vouchsafed to us. No pestilence has visited our shores. The abundant privileges of freedom, which our fathers left us in their wisdom, are still our increasing heritage. And if, in parts of our vast domain, some affliction has visited our brethren in their forest homes, yet even this calamity has been tempered and in a manner sanctified by the generous compassion for the * suffers which has been called forth throughout our land. For all these things it is meet that the voice of the nation should go up to God in devout homage. Wherefore I, Chester A. Arthur, President of the United States, do recommed that all the people observe Thursday, the 24th day of November inst., as a day of national thanksgiving and prayer, by ceasing so far as may be, from their secular labors and meeting in their several places of worship, there to join in ascribing honor and praise to Almighty God, whose goodness has been so manifold in our history and in our lives, and offering earnest prayers that His bounties may continue to us and to our children.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this fourth day of November, in the year of our Lord 1881, and of the independence of the United States, 106.

[Signed] CHESTER A. ARTHUR. By the President.

JAMES G. BLAINE,

Secretary of State.

Thanksgivi ng.

Governor Hoyt issued his Thanksgiving proclamation Friday afternoon. It is as follews:

In the name and by the authority of the Com. monwevith of Pennsylvania, Henry M. Hoyt, Governor of said Commonwealth:

A PROCHAMATION :- During a season of drought and partial failure of the harvests, which in a less fruitfulland would have brought famine and distress, and in a time of public trial and tribulation, which under less happy institutions might have led to dissension and strife, the people of the United States and particularly of Pennsylvania, have been preserved in health, in estate and in peace.

Now, therefore, I, Henry M. Hoyt, Governor of

The yield of cotton in Alabama is estimated at eighty per cent. of last years, Mississippi, eighty-five per cent. and Tennessee, fifty-seven.

A skiff containing nineteen persons was swamped near Troy, Saturday; seven persons are known to have been drowned; three are reported missing.

Mrs. Dinsmore, the former wife of Guiteau, now residing at Leadville, has been summoned to appear as a witness at the trial of the assassin.

Deputy Attorney General Gilbert and Insurance Commissioner Forster, appeared in Court at Harrisburg, Saturday and asked for a writ of quo warranto for the dissolution of a number of Mutual Aid Insurance Companies that did not comply with the terms of their charter. The applications were received and Friday the 25th inst was fixed for argument. This move on the part of the State has created confusion among the different companies in that city, of which there are about twenty. They intend to combine and present their side of the case through the best attainable legal ability.

The general committee on church extension of the Methodist Episcopal church is in session in Philadelphiar Bishop Peck, of Syracuse, present. The total disbursements of the last ten months has been $160,000, the increase in receipts was $27,000, and the balance on hand is $89,000. Three hundred and nineteen churches have been aided, and applications from fifty others are yet to be considered. The committee on apportionments made a report to-day to fix the amounts that each conference be asked to raise and the amounts authorized to be donated to each. The total amount iu each case is $146,375.
