

DAILY TOWANDA REVIEW.

VOLUME III, NO. 84.

TOWANDA, PA., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1881.

PRICE ONE CENT.

LOCALS.

Personal.

Senator DAVIES has been in Philadelphia this week.

Mrs. D. W. GORE of Hornellsville, N. Y., was in town yesterday.

Miss LIBBIE BLACKMAM of this place is teaching music in Sugar Run and has a large class.

Mrs. SCOTT, of Towanda, is the guest of Mr. BENJ. JONES on Exeter street.—Pittston Press.

D. O. HOLLON and SMITH Bros. have repaired their horse sheds in the rear of the M. E. Church.

Capt. G. V. MYER has been serving as a juror in the U. S. Court, at Pittsburg for a couple of weeks, and is home again.

Miss SARAH MOODY left for Topeka, Kan., this morning and will remain there several months visiting friends.

It was J. W. INGHAM, instead of BENJ. ACKLEY, who officiated as one of the pallbearers at Judge STALFORD'S funeral.

Mine host HENRY of the "Henry House," has been improving his hostelrie by putting down a wide stone walk along the front.

Mrs. HORACE PAINE, of Elmira, is spending a few weeks in Towanda, with her sisters, Mrs. HENRY POWELL, and Mrs. E. J. MINGOS.

JOHN MARKLE, of Jeddo, Luzerne county, was in town yesterday and purchased from our well known dealers in horses, CHAS. D. HUMPHREY and G. M. CLARK, a pair of fine Hambletonians, for which he paid a good sum but got the worth of his money.

The Vestry of Christ Church have extended a unanimous call to the Rev. Mr. EXOS to become rector of the parish. The Reverend gentleman visited this place a few weeks since and officiated one Sunday for the congregation, to the entire satisfaction of all who heard him. Should he accept the rectorship we have no doubt he would be heartily welcomed by the parishioners and find here a pleasant home and large field for labor in the Master's cause.

The plaster paris image fiends infest this community.

A good girl wanted to do general house work. Apply to A. D. ALBERT, Ward Avenue.

Chief Engineer PORTER, directed all the hose of the fire department to be tested yesterday.

This week the M. E. church Sociable will be held on Friday evening at the house of J. D. FELCH, over the store. Entrance the store.

Died before his time, that fine looking mammoth turkey, hanging out in front of STEVENS & LONG'S. The bird should have been kept for a Thanksgiving dinner for some one.

We learn that RICHARD JOHNSON, an old man of the pool tribe, living near the nail mill, accidentally set fire to his clothing one night last week, and was so badly burned that he died Sunday.

The oyster supper given by the ladies of the Baptist Church last evening was a financial success, and the attention paid to guests while bountifully serving them, made the time pass very pleasantly.

The Water Works will sink a crib in the river below the brick yard and pump water into their distributing reservoir as a temporary means of supplying their customers. A large number of workmen are employed on the job and the Superintendent hopes to be ready to turn the water into the mains soon.

The list of registered doctors in this county, now numbers an even hundred. The one hundredth disciple of Esculapius to comply with the law in this respect was MANUEL D. GAMBLE, of East Troy. No medical degree.

Don't fail to go to JOHN SULLIVAN'S on Bridge street, for the best five cent cigar.

The next regular meeting of the Towanda Musical Society will be held at the house of JAMES MACFARLANE, Esq., Thursday Nov. 17 at 11 o'clock a. m. Scale, E flat.

"I too have caught the fever," said Mr. Harvey B. F. Keller, recorder of deeds, Ottawa, Kansas, "and have long been convinced of the merits of St. Jacobs Oil. The principal use to which the Oil has been devoted in my family has been for rheumatism, which disease it subdues with wonderful quickness.

Night express, No. 15, which passed this place about 11 o'clock last night, left the track at Wyalusing. We have not heard how bad the wreck is, nor the cause of the accident. That somebody was injured is evident from the fact that Dr. PRATT was sent down.—No. 8, due from the south at 4 o'clock this morning has not arrived yet.

D. H. BARSTOW, only son of the late DAVID F. BARSTOW, Esq., of this place, died at his home near Easton, Md., yesterday morning, aged about 40 years. Mr. BARSTOW was born in Towanda and lived here until 4 years ago, when he purchased a farm in Maryland and moved there with his family.

Mr. BARSTOW was educated for a physician but never practiced; he, however, engaged in the drug business for several years after completing his studies. In 1863 he married Miss ANNIE FOX, who, with three children mourn his death in the prime of life. The deceased was noted for his fine social qualities and had a large circle of devoted friends, who will read this announcement of his early death with sincere sorrow.

Dr. JOHNSON, brother-in-law of the deceased, left for Philadelphia last evening to accompany the remains to this place. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon at the residence of Mrs. BARSTOW, mother of the deceased, on Main street, at 2 o'clock.—The Reverend G. F. ROSENMULLER of Sayre will conduct the services.

Prof. DANIELLE opens his dancing classes on Thursday, Nov. 17th, with a grand reception, in Col. Means' Hall, to which complimentary tickets may be obtained of Mr. C. B. PORTER at his drug store.

Ducks, Chickens and Turkeys, dressed and alive, wanted all through the winter at E. F. DITTRICH & Co.

FRESH OYSTERS received daily at the THIRD WARD GROCERY STORE. Retailed at 30 cents per quart. Churches and parties supplied on reasonable terms. D. F. CLARK.

FOR SALE—Two covered buggies, single harness, saddle and bridle, cutter, and a lot of farming utensils. Apply to JOHN W. MIX, Office, Mercur Block, Towanda, Pa.

Wanted, a place to do general house work, by an experienced girl. Apply at E. G. Kromer's.

Miss EMMA WARING respectfully informs the ladies that she has taken rooms at Mr. Wm. Keyser's house, on Pine street near Graded school, where she will be pleased to see all in need of her services. Cutting, fitting and dress making done on reasonable terms, and all work warrantable to suit.

FIVE CHILDREN AT ONE TIME!—A Lady in New England had five children sick with Chills at one time. Her pastor recommended Thermanine. She bought a family box and cured the whole lot. Children won't take quinine; its bitter taste turns their stomachs. Thermanine is put up in sugar-coated capsules, like small flat beans. Only costs 25 cents a box. It has never been known to fail, and is now prescribed by physicians instead of quinine.

Wanted a place to board where I can do chores nights and morning to pay. Enquire at this office.

Postmaster General James has been elected President of a new national bank in New York City.

The Keystone Rubber works will soon start up at Williamsport, giving employment to 300 persons.

A cry comes from Philadelphia for servant girls.
