WEBB's vote in Smithfield and Ridgebury is certainly complimentary to his popularity at home and the efficient help of DEAN and ROBINSON—Troy Gazette.

Mr. CHARLES SANDERSON, who has held a position as machinist in the Sayre railroad shops for some time past, has accepted a situation as engineer on a railroad in Pennsylvania, and Mr. WILLIAM DESMOND also an employe in the shops has been assigned to the machine vacated. They are both young men highly spoken of, and we are happy to note their advancement.—Waverly Free Press.

Both these young men formerly resided in Towanda. The former is a son of Mr. C. M. SANDERSON, the coal operator, and the other a son of the late THOMAS DESMOND.

Special court convenes this morning.

JOSH BILLINGS has fixed December 21st as the date of his lecture in this place. Tickets are on sale at WHITCOMB'S, FITCH'S and the post office.

LOST, between the express office and Pine street, a string of Rosary Beads, with links of silver. Finder will be suitably rewarded on leaving at this office.

By referring to an advertisement on this page the reader will see that the popular Loyal Sock coal has been reduced 50 cents per ton. Thanks to Superintendent BLIGHT.

Mrs. Judge WILBUR died at her residence in Troy on Friday afternoon. When her husband died two weeks since, she said she would soon follow him. Funerals at 1 o'clock to-morrow afternoon.

Lieut. HENLY made the best combined score at the rifle contest on Saturday, and is entitled to wear the prize offered, an elegant rifleman's badge, until next season. The contestants were all members of Co. A. The distance was 200 and 500 yards, and the successful score 19 in a possible 20.

We see by a call in the Tunkhannock Worker that the Greenbackers of this country are to hold a meeting in the Grand Jury Room on Friday, Dec. 2, to take action looking to the establishment of a Greenback paper for this Congressional district, and transacting other important business.

JOSEPH CARD and C. B. STRAIT, ofsylvania, have raised considerable tobacco this season. Mr. STRAIT raised also about 100 bushels of onions and JOSEPH and ANSON CARD, about 90 bushels, which found a ready market in Williamsport at $1.05 per bushel, with a cost of about 61-2 cents for freight—Troy Gazette.

BOUCICAULT'S RIVAL.—When Boucicault had made the fame of "The Shaughnaun," and added so greatly to its own fame at the same time, he looked upon all who attempted to adopt the character as usurpers, and even resorted to the law to protect himself as the representative Irish comedian under the copyright law. The determination of the playwright-actor won for him much criticism, some of it far from enviable; but he succeeded in holding the lead in his great character of Con. until the appearance of John T. Hinds, who was at once taken up as a rival, and by many critics as a superior to Boucicault. Of course Boucicault the critic, Boucicault the writer and Boucicault the actor, became alarmed at the success of Mr. Hinds, and readers of dramatic news remember how long and how bitterly his opposition was kept up. Many people regard Mr. Boucicault as the leading dramatic critic of this country, and it is not certain that he is not, but the opinions of many very good critics are recorded to the effect that Mr. Hinds has taken from him the laurels in "The Shaughnaun." The character-comedian is becoming a leading feature in dramas for American use, and no other is so captivating as the honest, rollicking son of the Emerald Isle.—Kansas City Journal.

This celebrated actor, supported by a first class company, will appear in his famous character, "The Shaughnaun," at Mercur Hall, Tuesday evening next.

"Nothing me so much relief for the rheumatism, which has troubled me for years, as St. Jacob's Oil" says Mr. F. W. Brown, Glen Rock, Pa.

Thirty thousand bushels of beans, valued at $97,000 are stored in four warehouses in Wyoming county, N. Y.

The centennial of Daniel Webster's birth which occurs on the 18th of January next will be celebrated in the Cincinnati schools.

It is understood that the depositors of the Newark Mechanics' Bank have determined to prosecute the directors, and will employ eminent counsel.

The World's Bannock City, (Montana) special says the Government official list inviting tenders for mail contracts for the next year contains a proposition for tenders for a mail contract from Red Rock to Salmon City, and states that the present pay is $14,643. No Government mail has ever been carried over this route. Washington officials have been repeatedly advised of this but it seems to have no effect on them.

An Avenger of Garfield.

As the assassin Guiteau was being taken from the court house to prison after the adjournment of court Saturday afternoon, a stranger, mounted on a white horse, rode up and fired two shots into the van and then galloped away. One of the shots took effect in the assassin's right arm, inflicting a slight wound. The cowardly wretch piteously implored the officers to hurry him into his cell and when inside the bars became defiant and impious.

The would-be avenger was fired at by one of the officers in charge of the prisoner, and it is believed the ball took effect, but he escaped. He is supposed to be one of a band who have bound themselves with an oath to kill the assassin if by any means he escapes conviction in court.

The avenger was subsequently apprehended and proved to be a "crank" named Jones.

FIVE CHILDREN AT ONE TIME!—A Lady in New England had five children sick with Chills at one time. Her pastor recommended Thermanine. She bought a family box and cured the whole lot. Children won't take quinine; its bitter taste turns their stomachs. Thermanine is put up in sugar-coated capsules, like small flat beans. Only costs 25 cents a box. It has never been known to fail, and is now prescribed by physicians instead of quinine.

The Episcopal Mite Society will meet next Monday evening at Mrs. LADD's on River st. The prospect of having a rector soon gives added interest to these social gatherings.

Ladies will be interested in knowing that Mrs. MINGOS is now in New York selecting more millinery goods. She will soon be home and the ladies knowing her good taste in such matters, will keep a sharp look out for her return.
