Proclamation for Thanksgiving Day.

By the President of the United States of America - A proclamation: It has long been the pious custom of our people, with the closing of the year, to look back upon the blessings brought to them in the changing course of the seasons, and to return solemn thanks to the All Giving Source from whom they flow.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed. Done at the city of Washington, this fourth day of November, in the year of our Lord 1881, and of the independence of the United States, 106.

The difference between reform within the party and reform without the party is that one is reform to improve and the other is reform to destroy; it is the difference between stopping a train with a rail across the track and stopping it by handling the breaks and the throttle-valve

The action of the well-known dry goods firm of Hood, Banbright & Co., of this city deserves special and honorable mention. Twenty years ago financial embarrassments compelled this house to compromise with its creditors. This week it sent to each of its creditors a check covering the percentage abated in the settlement, with interest.

1831 THE CULTIVATOR 1831 AND Country Gentleman THE BEST OF THE AGRICULTURAL WEEKLIES. ENLARGEMENT FOR 1882. The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN is the leading journal of American Agriculture. In amount and practical value of contents, in extent and ability of correspondence, in quality of paper and style of publication, it occupies the first rank. It is believed to have no superior in either of the three chief divisions of FARM CROPS AND PROCESSES, HORTICULTURE & FRUIT-GROWING, LIVE STOCK AND DAIRYING, while it also includes all minor departments of rural interest, such as the Poultry Yard, Entomology, Bee-keeping, Greenhouse and Grapery, Veterinary Replies, Farm Questions and Answers, Fireside Reading, Domestic Economy, and a summary of the News of the Week. Its Market reports are unusually complete and much attention is paid to the Prospects of the Crops, as throwing light on one of the most important of all questions—When to Buy and When to Sell. It is liberally illustrated and is intended to supply, in a continually increasing degree, and in the best sense of the term, a LIVE AGRICULTURAL NEWSPAPER. The Volume of THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN for 1882 will be largely increased in Contents by the addition of a sufficient number of pages to meet the growing demands upon its space, but the terms will continue as follows, when paid strictly in advance: ONE COPY, one year, $2.50; FOUR COPIES, $10, and an additional copy for the year free to the sender of the Club; TEN COPIES, $20, and an additional copy for the year free to the sender of the Club.
