A correspondent of the Tunkhannock Republican, writing from Wyalusing, chronicles the departure from that town of a highly esteemed family. Mrs. VAUGHN is a daughter of the late Deacon ABNER HINMAN, of Wysox, and is highly esteemed hereabouts, where she has many friends. Mr. V. belongs to one of the oldest and most influential families in the county, and his loss will be regretted.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. VAUGHAN leave for North Platte, Neb., next week, where they intend to live. They leave many warm friends here, who will miss them very much. W. B. DODGE lost a valuable English hunting dog last Sunday, some young men from North Towanda having enticed the animal away. Learning where the dog was confined yesterday Mr. D. went and brought his canine home.

A run-away horse caused some excitement and made things lively on Main street yesterday. The animal brought up all right safe and sound, in the Elwell House barn.—Not a bad place to stop, as mine host KELLOGG provides the very best accommodations for both man and beast.

A union thanksgiving service will be held in the Presbyterian church at 10:30 to-morrow. Rev. J. S. STEWART, D. D., will deliver the discourse. The collection will be in aid of the Ladies Benevolent Association. Go prepared to give liberally and cheerfully. You will hear a good sermon.

"Last winter I fell on the ice" writes W. T. Dowdall, Esq., of Peoria, Ill., "and badly dislocated my left shoulder, causing me intense suffering. The first application of St. Jacob's Oil gave great relief, and with the use of less than one bottle I quickly regained my former strength."

The fire alarm last evening was caused by a slight conflagration at the Bridge street pea-nut stand which ought to have been extinguished without calling out the department. But little damage was done. The fire was caused by emptying ashes containing live coals too near the building.

The members of Company A are requested to report at the Armory in full uniform at 10 o'clock a. m., Thanksgiving day, for the purpose of engaging in a shooting match for a turkey. The match will be shot on the Company's range just across the river and promises to be well contested and interesting.

We do not think we are disclosing any secret in saying that we yesterday saw forty fine turkeys which HUMPHREY Brothers & TRACY had selected for their workmen for thanksgiving dinners. This firm have made a practice of supplying each man in their employ who is the head of a family, with a thanksgiving turkey, for several years past.

As ED AYERS, one of the Troy stage proprietors, was driving towards Burlington on Monday morning, one of the wagon springs broke and the horses becoming frightened and unmanageable, the stage was upset. Mr. AYERS was quite badly bruised, the wagon demoralized and two sewing machines, which comprised a portion of the load, broken.—The loss falls heavily on Mr. A., who is a poor man.

To-morrow will be Thanksgiving and the ladies of the Benevolent Association hope to receive contributions sufficient to enable them to throw a little sunshine into the homes of the poor and unfortunate; those who from sickness or other unavoidable circumstances are unable to help themselves. "The poor ye have always with you and may do them good whenever ye will." Let the collection to be taken at the union service in the Presbyterian church Thursday morning be a generous one.

Although JAMES MCCABE has taken up his residence in Pittston he still maintains the position he has so long occupied in our business community and his store corner of Main and Bridge street continues to be headquarters for everything in the Family Grocery line, and if you are in need of anything this morning to complete your Thanksgiving dinner, you will consult your pecuniary interest and be sure of getting the freshest, purest goods by ordering from him. Those who have used it say the mince meat he sells is better and cheaper than the home-prepared article. Try some of it for your thanksgiving dinner.
