"Daily Review" only 25 cents per month. Try it,

LOST, between the express office and Pine street, a string of Rosary Beads, with links of silver. Finder will be suitably rewarded on leaving at this office.

THANKSGIVING SERVICES.—The church of the Messiah will observe Thanksgiving by appropriate services on Thursday evening at 7 o'clock. The ladies of the church, with their usual good taste, will decorate the altar and chancel, and the well drilled choir will furnish music appropriate to the season.

C. L. S. C.—The next meeting of the Chautauqua Literary and Scientific Circle will be at the residence of Mr. L. B. COBURN on 2d street, Friday evening Nov. 25, at 7 o'clock, sharp. The work of the evening will be a review of "Short Lessons on Art," from page 252 to 291, inclusive. Essays will be read on subjects connected with the study of art, by various members of this Circle.

The Denver Tribune's "Primer" has the following which is "local," in almost every town and city in the United States:

Here we have an Oyster. It is going to a Church Fair. When it gets to the Fair it will swim round in a big Kettle of Warm Water. A lady will stir it with a Spoon and Sell the Warm Water for Two Bits a pint. Then the Oyster will move on to the next Fair. In this Way the Oyster will visit all the Church Fairs in town and bring a great many Dollars into the Treasury. The Oyster goes a great way in a good Cause.

MONROE MATTERS.—Rev. J. Loyd Jones, the recently appointed pastor of the M. E. church in Monroe, has preached five consecutive sabbaths in the pulpit of said church, with marked acceptability. He is "a workman that needeth not to be ashamed" "rightly dividing the word of truth." His house is full; the flock is fed, and interest is on the increase. I saw the infirm old elder there four successive sabbaths. I think that by the grace of God, there is going to be a harvest this year. It begins to rain a little, even now
Nov. 21. N. D. PLUME.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.—C. M. Manville vs. Geo. W. Armstrong, 2 cases. Rules to show cause why judgments shall not be opened.
Oct. 27, 1881.

Chas. D. Nixon's use, vs. Wm. Wolf. Jury sworn, when by consent of plaintiff's counsel verdict for defendant.

H. B. Ingham vs. A. J. Layton, et al. Suit to recover value of property of plaintiff sold by Sheriff on execution in favor of A. R. Brown. On trial. Davies & Hall, and Williams, Angle, & Buffington for plaintiff. N. C. Elsbree & Son, Overton & Sanderson, and D. C. DeWitt for defendants.

A correspondent of the Honedale Citizen tells the following story:

A queer specimen of the human kind I chanced to meet the other day, about whom I have heard many strange and almost incredible tales. He lives on the York State side of the Delaware, back in a dismal part of Cochection township, known as Tamarack Swamp; hence his name, "The Old Tamarack." In size he is small; in years is about fifty-five; his hair and eyes are black, and his general appearance is indicative of a fierce and canibal-like nature. He devours with relish, horse, dog, cat, and most all other kinds of flesh that are considered by civilized man as unfit for food. The valuable horse stolen from the Harrison House stables in Carbondale, some years ago, it is reported was served upon his table. Those who are curious to know more of our Tamarack friend, can obtain further particulars by making a personal visit at his new abode.

Prof. DANIELLE, organized his classes on Thursday, with flattering encouragement and will give the first lesson of the course this Wednesday p. m., (Thursday being Thanksgiving) and after this week the lesson will be on Thursday until a change can be made with Elmira for Friday. Ladies and children who can attend best at that hour will receive their lesson at 4 o'clock, p. m.; and those who can attend best in the evening will receive their lesson at 7 o'clock, and gentlemen at 8 o'clock; and the assemblies will be every evening from 9 until 10, with good music and no extra charge. Parents of pupils admitted free to the assemblies.

Have you been into see GRADY'S new assortment of goods at his store on Pine street? He has an elegant selection of cloths and suitings, from which he can manufacture you any garment or a whole suit on short notice. He does his own cutting and personally superintends the work on every article made in his establishment. That he always succeeds in securing perfect fits, and that his prices "way down," everybody knows.

FRESH OYSTERS received daily at the THIRD WARD GROCERY STORE. Retail at 30 cents per quart. Churches and parties supplied on reasonable terms.
D. F. CLARK.

Hon. H. L. SCOTT, trustee, will sell the balance of the Mason real estate at auction on Thursday December 1st at 1 o'clock p. m. Particulars hereafter.

Speaking of Oysters, we have a word to say in regard to the manner in which S. B. TIDD serves them. He keeps the largest ones, and gets them up in the very best style. He has fitted up elegant rooms for his customers.

IMPORTANT TO TRAVELERS.—Special inducements are offered you by the BURLINGTON ROUTE. It will pay you to read their advertisement to be found elsewhere in this paper.

Any industrious, practical farmer, with a small capital, can hear of an opportunity to buy a farm on terms which will enable him to pay for it out of the profits. For particulars enquire at this office.

The Five Cent Store is now receiving an immense stock of fall and winter goods and the enterprising proprietors invite the public to call and examine.

Tickets for JOSH BILLINGS' lecture are being taken rapidly. If you have not yet secured a supply, call at WHITCOMB'S or the post office and subscribe for the number you want.

LADIES' BENEVOLENT ASSOCIATION.—The Ladies Benevolent Association will meet on Wednesday afternoon, November 30th, at the usual place.

The commencement of our winter's work has been delayed this year by an empty treasury and lack of material for clothing. So it has been necessary to defer our meeting until after the Thanksgiving collections, in order to ascertain whether the people of Towanda wish to continue this work of charity or not.

During the ten years of its existence this society has been generously sustained and has done an amount of good that we cannot measure; but last spring our appeal for funds was only responded to by one donation than did not come from working members of the Association; and it is feared that a misapprehension exists in regard to the need of this organization since the opening of the County House. Indeed it has been frequently remarked: "We will not need the Benevolent Society when we have the Poor House." But our object and work have not been to support paupers, only to render temporary assistance to those who are able and willing to support themselves—but who by sickness or other misfortune are placed in circumstances where a little timely aid from those more fortunate will alleviate their suffering, and give courage to some in a dark hour.

The greatest care is always used in giving aid and rarely have our visitors been imposed upon, and with such delicacy and tact have our ladies worked, that sometimes even the recipients have never known from what source the much needed help came.

Surely the people of Towanda will never allow this good work to die for the lack of funds!

"He that hath pity upon the poor lendeth unto the Lord; and that which he hath given will he pay him again." We can ask no better security; let us make the investment. By order of PRESIDENT OF ASSOCIATION.
