Essays will be read on subjects connected with the study of art, by various members of this Circle.

This (Thursday) being Thanksgiving day the ladies of the Benevolent Association hope to receive contributions sufficient to enable them to throw a little sunshine into the homes of the poor and unfortunate; those who from sickness or other unavoidable circumstances are unable to help themselves. "The poor ye have always with you and may do them good whensoever ye will." Let the collection to be taken at the union service in the Presbyterian church this morning be a generous one.

Although JAMES McCABE has taken up his residence in Pittston he still maintains the position he has so long occupied in our business community and his store corner of Main and Bridge street continues to be headquarters for everything in the Family Grocery line, and if you are in need of anything this morning to complete your Thanksgiving dinner, you will consult your pecuniary interest and be sure of getting the freshest, purest goods by ordering from him. Those who have used it say the mince meat he sells is better and cheaper than the home-prepared article. Try some of it for your Thanksgiving dinner.

The Wellsburg Agitator prints this short sketch of the life of the late Rev. O. L. GIBSON, who was pastor of the M. E. church here only a few years ago:

Last Tuesday morning a telegram was received in this borough announcing the death of Rev. OTIS L. GIBSON, which occurred very suddenly last week Monday evening at Otsego, Michigan. His health had been poor for about a year, and a few weeks before his death he had been threatened with an attack of typhoid fever. Mr. GIBSON was born in Pomfret, Vt., in July 1831, and he came to this county when about seven years of age. Most of his boyhood days were spent in Charleston township. He began life for himself as a clerk in the store Messrs. C. & J. L. ROBINSON in this borough, and afterwards was in the employ of the Methodist Book Concern in New York city. He was graduated at Genesee College, then located at Lima, N. Y., about twenty years ago, and entered the ministry. His first pastorate was at Troy, Bradford county. He was pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church in this village in 1867-8-9, during which period the present church edifice was erected. He was also pastor of the Hedding church in Elmira for three years. Mr. GIBSON, on account of his health, had recently moved to Otsego to reside upon a small farm, and was pastor of a church at Martin, a small village six miles distant. He leaves a wife and eight children. Mr. GIBSON was well known in this county.

He was a man of much ability and possessed of the manly qualifications which go to make up a pure christian character.

That he always succeeds in securing perfect fits, and that his prices "way down," everybody knows.

LADIES BENEVOLENT ASSOCIATION.—The Ladies Benevolent Association will meet on Wednesday afternoon, November 30th, at the usual place.

The commencement of our winter's work has been delayed this year by an empty treasury and lack of material for clothing. So it has been necessary to defer our meeting until after the Thanksgiving collections, in order to ascertain whether the people of Towanda wish to continue this work of charity or not.

During the ten years of its existence this society has been generously sustained and has done an amount of good that we cannot measure; but last spring our appeal for funds was only responded to by one donation that did not come from working members of the Association; and it is feared that a misapprehension exists in regard to the need of this organization since the opening of the County House. Indeed it has been frequently remarked: "We will not need the Benevolent Society when we have the Poor House." But our object and work have not been to support paupers, only to render temporary assistance to those who are able and willing to support themselves—but who by sickness or other misfortune are placed in circumstances where a little timely aid from those more fortunate will alleviate their suffering, and give courage to some in a dark hour.

The greatest care is always used in giving aid and rarely have our visitors been imposed upon, and with such delicacy and tact have our ladies worked, that sometimes even the recipients have never known from what source the much needed help came.

Surely the people of Towanda will never allow this good work to die for the lack of funds!

"He that hath pity upon the poor lendeth unto the Lord; and that which he hath given will he pay him again." We can ask no better security; let us make the investment. By order of PRESIDENT OF ASSOCIATION.
