Personal.

H. C. HILDRETH is in New York. Assistant Superintendent BROADHEAD of Sayre is in town this morning.

Everybody is invited to attend the Social at E. W. ELWELL'S this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. GEO. M' CABE rejoice in an addition to their family of a ten pound boy. That was something to be thankful for.

Though not entirely recovered from the effects of his late accident, Esquire TIDD is able to be around and attend to business.

Dr. E. H. ANGLE, after spending a year in Minnesota for the benefit of his health has returned East. We are pleased to note that he is much improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. EDWIN BUFFINGTON of Towanda, Pa., and Mrs. J. G. HORTON, of New York, spent Thanksgiving with Mr. H. KINNEY, Waverly street.—Waverly Review.

LINCOLN and FISHER WELLES, two wide-awake young men, sons of G. H. WELLES of Wyalusing having been attending school at Media, near Philadelphia, are now home on vacation.

Owen to the extreme cold weather a prominent and well-to-do bachelor of Wysox has concluded to re-lent and try the joys of wedded life. Invitations are already out and the event will take place next Thursday.

The approaching marriage of E. E. FRUHEY and Miss JENNIE BENNETT is announced. The ceremony will take place Thursday at the residence of the bride's uncle, THOS. MERIDETH, 2nd st., next Thursday.

The relatives in this place, of Mrs. DAVID RHAM, of Towanda, have been informed of her serious illness. Mrs. B. P. FORTNER and Mrs. I. S. MONROE sisters of Mrs RHAM left this morning for that place.—Cattwissa Item.

The two Philadelphia gentlemen—PARVIN and ELLIOTT, who were hunting in this neighborhood the latter part of last week, bagged a fine lot of game and returned home Saturday evening carrying with them 41 quails, 10 rabbits, 5 pheasants, 1 grey squirrel, to exhibit as trophies of their skill.

Prof. A. F. BRONSON having closed his term of select school at Wyalusing, has been employed to teach the public school of the village during the winter. Prof. B. is an exemplary young man and thoroughly qualified for his calling, having within the past year graduated from our Collegiate Institute.

Rev. Doctor STEWART, pastor of the Presbyterian church, exchanged pulpits yesterday with the pastor of the Waverly Presbyterian church. The doctor's congregation think no one can equal him as a sermonizer, and the man who undertakes to fill his place puts himself in a trying position, but the Waverly minister acquitted himself with great credit and his able, logical and practical discourses were listened to by the audience with pleasure and profit.

We find the following personal items in the Athens Gazette correspondent from Sayre:

F. J. Krom and wife of Towanda, partook of turkey with Mrs. Church on Thanksgiving day.

Messrs. Joseph and V. E. Piollet, of Wyalusing, with their families, partook of a Thanksgiving dinner at Col. Packer's.

M. C. Mercier and family, of Towanda, are guests at the rectory.

Miss Welles, of Meshopen, is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Bishop.

R. F. Goodman made a flying visit to his family this week. He is soon to remove to Buffalo, N. Y.

Thanksgiving day is past, Christmas is coming and the old year is on the home stretch.

The Postmaster-General has issued an order to take effect February 1st, revoking section 121 of the Postal Regulations, which provided for the redemption of postal cards that may be spoiled while in the hands of private parties by printing or otherwise.

Don't forget the Episcopal Social at E. W. ELWELL'S, this evening.

The Musical Society will meet on Thursday at the residence of Dr. PRATT, instead of D'A OVERTON, Esq., as announced. Scale A flat.

The next Social under the auspices of the ladies of the Episcopal Church, will be held Monday evening at the residence of E. W. ELWELL, on Water street. An egg tree will be provided for the amusement of those who attend. Go and try your luck.

The Oil well at Sciota, of which we give frequent accounts, is now down 600 feet and the work is rapidly progressing. Those in charge of the boring,—practical men from the Bradford district—feel much encouraged—the different strata of rock found corresponding with that in the western part of the State, and affording good indications of striking oil ere long.

The hackmen who attend upon evening parties, and are often compelled to wait in the cold for hours, are not always remembered when refreshments are served, but at the musical reception given at the residence of JESSE MYER, the Jehu's were generously served with the good things prepared for the occasion, and they have desired us to return thanks for them to Mr. and Mrs. MYER for their thoughtfulness. We hope the precedent they established may be generally observed hereafter.

At a meeting of the survivors of the Pennsylvania Reserve Corps, held recently in Philadelphia, to take into consideration a proper recognition of the twentieth anniversary of the battle of Dranesville, it was decided to celebrate the same by an oration and banquet in which all members of the Corps are invited to participate. General Thomas L. Kane has been selected as orator. All who expect to be present are requested to inform George A. Ludlow, of 701 Union street West Philadelphia.

The affairs of Wyalusing township must be well and economically managed by its officers as we hear that no town tax is levied, and it has some $600 in the treasury. Our old friend, N. J. GAYLORD, has been one of its commissioners during the past three years, and we dare say much credit is due him for the satisfactory condition of its finances. Tax payers look to their interest when they retain such efficient and vigilant officers, and it would not displease us at all to announce his having been elected another term.

An elegant reception was held by the Social Club last evening, at the home of Miss FLO KINNEY, on Waverly street. A large number of guests were present from out of town, among whom we noticed NED CLEVELAND, HARRY SMITH, D. RICE, CHARLIE MASTERTON and Miss EMMA HAWES, of Elmira; JOHN, HEISTER and LEWIS PIOLLET, of Wysox, Pa.; JACKSON P. KENNEY, CHARLIE FOX, MISS JULIA POWELL, Mr. E. BUFFINGTON, and wife of Towanda; Mr. GLEASON, and CLARENCE WALL, of Owego; Misses DELL CORBEN, MAMIE and ANNIE CLAPP, Dr. RISHELL, J. C. CORBIN, MILLARD HUNSICKER, of Athens; O. H. HORTON, of New York; CHARLES TURNER, of the Towanda Journal; and a number of others. Want of space alone prevents us from giving a more extended description of one of the pleasantest social events which has taken place in Waverly for some time.—Waverly Review.

Ducks, Chickens and Turkeys, dressed and alive, wanted all through the winter at E. F. DTRICH & Co.

FIVE CHILDREN AT ONE TIME!—A Lady in New England had five children sick with Chills at one time. Her pastor recommended Thermaline. She bought a family box and cured the whole lot. Children won't take quinine; its bitter taste turns their stomachs. Thermaline is put up in sugar-coated capsules, like small flat beans. Only costs 25 cents a box. It has never been known to fail, and is now prescribed by physicians instead of quinine.
