The star cough drops manufactured by C. S. FITCH are becoming very popular wherever introduced. If troubled with a cough try them.

The Thanksgiving collection at the Universalist church amounted to over $51, swelling the amount for the Benevolent Association to over $125.

C. S. FITCH has already begun to display his Christmas goods and his stock of candies, fruits, nuts etc., is the finest ever opened in this market.

Court was opened yesterday p. m., at the usual hour,—Judge MAYER presiding.—On reading over the list it was discovered that not a single case on the calendar was in readiness for trial, thus compelling an adjournment till this morning.

ED. RAYNSFORD, bartender at the Sayre House, was pronounced by physicians dangerously ill with small pox on Saturday. He was removed to the old Kinner house on the plains. As he is quite an aged man, the chances of his recovery are very doubtful. Many persons have been exposed.—Elmira Advertiser.

"I consider it a great pleasure," writes A. J. Doak, Esq., manager American House, Amesbury, Mass., "to state that the inflammatory rheumatism which so severely affected my feet, yielded at once upon a few applications of the St. Jacobs Oil, which is the highest recommendation."

MONROE ITEMS.—Father Moray, husband of the lady who died on the 22d inst., in Monroe, followed his wife to the spirit land on the 25th, in great christian peace. The funeral services were attended at their late residence on Sunday, the funeral sermon appropriate for both of them, having been preached at the M. E. Church, from whence the friends repaired to the house of the dead, to take and bury the aged father in appropriate and solemn rites.—Rev. J. Lloyd Jones most impressively officiating.

It is due to Mr. Orville Brock and family, that it be noted this aged couple were tenderly cared for in their afflictions and death.
