PROSPECTUS.—"Of making many books there is no end," and the multiplication of newspapers is the popular source of educating the people. We are aware that the idea is quite prevalent that Bradford County has too many papers, but with the large number not one is wholly devoted to the interest of the great producing class—the agriculturists—and at the urgent solicitation of some of the best practical farmers in the county, we have decided to commence about the first of the new year, a local agricultural weekly, especially adapted to the wants of the farmers of this section. The contributors to the paper will embrace the best practical farmers in the county, and we shall aim to make it of real value to every tiller of the soil, dairyman and stock raiser in the county, by giving the results of experiments by those in whom the classes interested have confidence, and whose success in business is an evidence of thorough practical knowledge.

The paper will contain a condensation of the general news and the fullest local notes. Fuller particulars hereafter.

A dispatch from Tunkhannock under date of December 3, says:—The general agent of the Singer Sewing Machine Company at this place disappeared on Wednesday morning of this week, leaving behind him considerable indebtedness. At the same time Mrs. ISAAC LITTLE, of Nicholson, near here, and wife of the ex-Postmaster there, left her home. The two had been for some time intimate to a noticeable extent. The last trace of them was at Scranton, since which nothing has been heard of them. The name of the agent is W. R. WILLIS, a married man. It is not known as yet what is the state of his accounts with the sewing machine company.
