Miss KATE FOYLE of Herrick started for Kansas last evening to visit a brother who lives near Fort Scott.

Miss JESSIE DODSON of Emporium, who has been visiting in this place for several weeks, left for her home yesterday.

Supt. JUDD, late of the Barclay rail road, has accepted an appointment with the N. Y. L. & W. R. R. Co. He will not remove from Towanda at present.

CHARLEY CAMPBELL for several years past, an engineer on the Barclay road has gone to West Virginia, to take an engine on the road superintended by G. R. MACFARLANE. Mr. C. is a good engineer and a worthy gentleman.

Mr. GEORGE V. MOODY and Miss MARY RICE were married last evening at the residence of the groom's mother, on William st. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. H. WRIGHT in the presence of a goodly number of friends and relatives.

A PRINTER IN LUCK.—Mr. JOHN FELTON, of the Reporter office, yesterday afternoon led to the hymeneal altar Miss FRANK MORLEY, one of our most accomplished and beautiful young ladies, who is also to be congratulated that one so worthy has won her heart and hand. The wedding took place at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. IDA M. CAMPBELL, on 2d street, Rev. C. H. WRIGHT officiating. The newly married pair took train No. 2 north last evening for a bridal tour. We wish them a pleasant journey, safe return and a long, happy wedded life.

The Baptists are furnishing their lecture room with chairs.

Tickets for JOSH BILLINGS lecture are on sale at the book stores.

On the 15th inst., one week from to-night, Miss GERTRUDE KELLOGG will give recitations and readings in Mercur Hall.

The vestry of Christ Church have information which encourages them to think Rev. Mr. ENOS will accept their call soon.

The Water Works expect to have water in their mains by the first of January, notwithstanding the resolution of the Council.

ELEANOR, wife of Court crier JAMES HARRIS, died this morning after a long illness, aged 69 years and 5 months. Funeral Sunday.

The Ladies' Sewing Society of Wysox will give an oyster supper at Grange Hall, Thursday evening, December 15th. All are cordially invited.

Interest in the North Towanda revival meetings, conducted by Rev. C. H. WRIGHT, is on the increase. Quite a number have professed conversion.

The rendering of Hazle Kirke, by the Sterling Comedy Company, at Mercur Hall last evening, was witnessed by a very fair audience. The farce, after the play, brought down the house.

We again reiterate, all the rumors in regard to Dr. SCOTT or any one else in this place having the small pox, are unfounded and false. Neither the Doctor nor any other person, has had or now has the small pox. If we hear of a case we shall promptly apprise our readers of it.

Three or four weeks ago a long martingal belonging to a set of common harness, was lost, probably in the vicinity of MERCUR'S coal yard, if the finder will call at this office we will direct him or her to the owner.

One of the most popular and clever letter-carriers of Indianapolis, Ind., Mr. J. H. Matern, was cured by St. Jacobs Oil of a severely stubborn sprain that had afflicted him since the war. The Great German Remedy is very popular in the Indianapolis post office.

The prosecutor in the North Towanda highway robbery case thought to turn an "honest penny" and save himself trouble by settling with the robbers, and has probably gotten himself in trouble on a charge of compounding felony.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.—The grand jury reported against making the Susquehanna bridge of Athens a free county bridge.

They also acted upon the following additional cases:

TRUE BILLS.

Com. vs Samuel, Walter and Alonzo Vanderpool; larceny. John Corr prosecutor.

Prof. DANIELLE'S classes will continue every Thursday, afternoon and evening until a change can be made to Fridays. Lessons at 4:30 and 7:30 for beginners, and from 8:30 to 11, an Assembly for all. All who can do so are privileged to attend both the afternoon and evening lessons and the Assemblies, as well, for the one charge of $5 for ladies and children and $6 for gentlemen. The Professor teaches all the dances in the one course of lessons.

The Thomas heresy case is, apparently, ended.

The trial of the assassin, Guiteau, will be concluded next week.

President Arthur took up his residence in the White House yesterday.

Refineries for glucose, sorghum and beet sugar have been built in Chicago.

The press of the country speaks in the highest terms of the President's message.

The re-adjusters yesterday organized the Virginia legislature. Two colored door-keepers were appointed.

ORDINANCE.

At a regular meeting of the Council of Monroe Borough held June 11th, 1880, the following ordinance was unanimously passed:

Be it and the same is hereby enacted. That the owners of Real Estate in said borough shall be required to build, repair and maintain all sidewalks in front of and along their respective properties, in accordance with the act of Legislature, passed April 3d, 1851. Also that ten days notice, to build or repair said walks shall be served upon said property owners by the Chief of Police, Burgess, or other borough officer, by and under the direction of the Council, as provided in the said act. That all ordinances heretofore passed, which are inconsistent with the foregoing are hereby repealed.
