PROSPECTUS.—"Of making many books there is no end," and the multiplication of newspapers is the popular source of educating the people. We are aware that the idea is quite prevalent that Bradford County has too many papers, but with the large number not one is wholly devoted to the interest of the great producing class—the agriculturists—and at the urgent solicitation of some of the best practical farmers in the county, we have decided to commence about the first of the new year, a local agricultural weekly, especially adapted to the wants of the farmers of this section. The contributors to the paper will embrace the best practical farmers in the county, and we shall aim to make it of real value to every tiller of the soil, dairyman and stock raiser in the county, by giving the results of experiments by those in whom the classes interested have confidence, and whose success in business is an evidence of thorough practical knowledge.

The paper will contain a condensation of the general news and the fullest local notes. Fuller particulars hereafter.

The Sayre band have secured the services of one of the finest musicians in the country as a leader.

The following paragraph from the last Churchman will be read with pleasure by many of our readers, who still cherish a lively interest in the Rev. B. J. DOUGLASS, who was for so long a period the beloved rector of Christ Church this place. He is now located at Georgetown, Delaware.

GEORGETOWN—St. Paul's Church.—After having been closed several months for repairs this church (the Rev. Benjamin J. Douglas, rector) was opened for divine services on Sunday, November 13th. The bishop of the diocese was present on the occasion, and delivered the sermon, after which the Holy Communion was celebrated. The rector was also assisted by the Rev. George W. Johnson. In the evening the bishop addressed the Sunday-school, and the Rev. Mr. McKim, a former rector, preached. Services were held on Monday and Tuesday, when sermons and addresses were delivered by the Rev. Messrs. Gibson, Dubois, Spencer, and the rector.

From the old-style building the church edifice has been made a model in appearance, convenience and comfort, at a cost of about $4,000, all of which, save $400, have been paid.

"I was confined to my bed for four months says Mr. Charles Lowe, 508 East Eighteenth street, New York, "with the rheumatism, and can say that the use of three bottles of St. Jacobs Oil made me a sound man. It is regarded here as the greatest remedy of the age."

Last Sunday morning Mr. AMOS W. JACKSON, of Chatham township, was brought to this borough and lodged in jail upon a charge of forgery. We understand that JACKSON, who is about 23 years of age, went to Mansfield a few days ago and presented a note at ROSS & WILLIAMS'S bank, bearing the name of S. P. SPAULDING, of Hammond, who, he claimed was his father. The note was discounted, and he obtained $200 and left. The note was afterwards discovered to be a forgery, and JACKSON was traced up and arrested at Towanda last Saturday, in a photograph gallery where he and his cousin, a young lady, were having their pictures "drawn out." The prisoner was taken to Mansfield, and an examination was held the same day before Justice ADAMS. JACKSON pleaded guilty to the charge, and an officer brought him to jail the next morning. We learn that half the money was recovered.—Wellsboro Agitator.

RECEPTION AT ATHENS.—One of the most elegant social events which has occurred in this vicinity for a long time was the informal reception held last evening by Miss DELL CORBIN at her home in Athens.

Prof. HAGER, of Elmira, pianist, and HENRY STULEN, Towanda's gifted violinist, furnished the music for the many lovers of the "light fantastic" gathered there.

About forty couple were present, a number of whom were from out of town. Among these we noticed Miss GORHAM, of LeRaysville; Miss GRISWOLD, of Elmira; Miss PIERCE, of Shiloh, Ill.; Mr. DELPUECH and sisters, of Hornbrook, Pa.; Miss BAIRD of Nichols, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. DANA MAC AFFE, of Sheshequin; Mr. C. A. BLOOD, B. F. MAURICE and CHARLES BUFFINGTON, of Sayre; Mr. and Mrs. JOHN VANATTA, E. PENDLETON, L. R. MANNING, MURRAY FAIRCHILD and Sisters, FRED. SAWYER, JOHN LUCE, JAMES LEMON, Miss MAMIE LUCE, Miss FLO KINNEY, Miss LYDA MURRAY, and ED. PERKINS, of Waverly, and a number of others. Space forbids a more extended description of what will long be remembered as an exceedingly pleasant evening by those who had the good fortune to be present.—Waverly Review.

C. L. S. C.—The next meeting of the Chautauqua Literary and Scientific Circle will be held at the residence of Mr. G. S. SMITH, at the foot of Chestnut street, Friday evening, December 9, at 7 o'clock. The work for the evening will be a review of "Man's Antiquity and Language." Chautauqua text book No. 29, from the first to the fifty-second page, inclusive. The first 25 questions on "Man's Antiquity," as contained in the December number of the Chautauquan, will be used in the review. Essays on various subjects will be read by members of the Circle. As the next meeting is expected to be of unusual interest, a full attendance of members is requested. All who are interested in the Circle work are cordially invited to be present.

WEEK OF PRAYER.—The World's Evangelical Alliance has appointed the first week in January as the week of prayer, the following is the program which is sent forth to all the churches of the world:

SUNDAY, January 1.—Subject for discourse "Renewed Consecration."

MONDAY, January 2.—Thanksgiving for the blessings, temporal and spiritual, for the past year, and prayer for their continuance.

TUESDAY, January 3.—Humiliation and confession on account of individual, social and national sins.

WEDNESDAY, January 4.—Prayer for the blessings of God on His Church and His Word.

THURSDAY, January 5.—Prayer for the young and all agencies for Christian training.

FRIDAY, January 6.—Prayer for the universal prevalence of peace and righteousness.

SATURDAY, January 7.—Prayer for Christian missions, the outpouring of the Holy Spirit and the conversion of the world.
