L. L. LYON, of Monroeton, drives a very handsome pair of well-matched horses.

Mrs. R. A. PACKER spent last week as the guest of President CLAGHORN's family in Philadelphia.

W. W. HICKOK has recently invented an improvement on his ditcher shovel. By an endless band the dirt is carried up a slide, like that of a dredging machine and deposited at one side of the machine.—Troy Gazette.

FRANK BOWMAN, the hackman, was standing in front of the Ward house, Saturday, when his feet slipped and he fell, protruding his elbow through a large pane of glass. It only cost him three dollars to repair the damages.

The Episcopal Social meets this evening at Mr. W. M. MALLORY's on Houston street. Friends of the Church from out of town as well as those residing here will meet with a cordial reception and enjoy a good time if they attend.

Our old friend JOHN MORAY, the artist, has been publishing a picture sketch of Waverly, and the Free Press thus compliments it:

Mr. John Moray has exhibited to us a very fine picture of Waverly and South Waverly. The view is taken from near Mr. Hemstreet's residence, and shows Sayre, the plains and mountains in the distance. It is executed in fine warm tints, and is a picture that would adorn any parlor. It is printed on heavy plate paper 22x28 inches. In the margin are views of Broad street, Spanish Hill, Academy and Park, Lincoln street school house, view on Chemung street, near Mr. Slaughter's residence and one view at East Waverly. All the prominent public and private buildings, are shown with remarkable accuracy, even to those in Sayre.

We learn the Waverly Daily Review which has exhibited evidences of phenomenal success, is to be enlarged.

The Park Street tobacco store in Mercur block, has become the favorite resort of the best judges of the "weed."

The new school house recently erected in the Neely district, Athens township, was destroyed by fire one night last week. The old building was also burned.

L. W. SWARTOUT, agent, at the Park Street tobacco store in Mercur block, so all the smokers say, sells the best 5 and 10 cent cigars in the market.

Mrs. JAMES HARRIS, who was buried yesterday, had been a consistent and exemplary member of the Presbyterian church for 50 years, and her name stood second on the roll of members.

In the notice of the ABRAMS case Saturday we inadvertently made DAVID ABRAMS the defendant. We should have said "R. A." instead of DAVID. The latter gentleman informs us that counsel fell into the same error in arguing the case.

To prevent croup in children let them wear upon their chest a pad made of cotton batting sewed upon a piece of muslin or other light fabric. This is one of the "mother remedies" that has never been known to fail and much serious illness from the dread disease may be prevented by its use.

A fine looking horse caused its owner some alarm, and the boys considerable amusement, by deliberately lying down while standing hitched to a buggy at the north side of STEVENS & LONG'S store, Saturday afternoon. The animal was soon divested of its harness, when he got up, apparently all right.

As Christmas and New Year's both fall on Sunday this season a good many people are wondering what day will be celebrated. Saturday or Monday. A law of Pennsylvania decides the question. It makes Monday the holiday when the same falls on Sunday. This applies to all holidays save Decoration Day.

Then the day preceding is chosen when the 30th of May comes on the first day of the week.

ED. MOUILLESSEUX has returned from the city with an elegant assortment of jewelry, silver and plated ware, watches, clocks, etc., and informs us that he is prepared to offer better bargains than ever to cash buyers. Be sure and give him a call before completing your Christmas purchases. His store is corner Main and Bridge streets. Strangers who may be in town this week will be surprised to learn how cheaply they can buy the best goods from him.

To make a town prosperous everything possible should be purchased in it and in this way money will circulate amongst us, going from one to another, instead of entering the pockets of the rich merchants of the Eastern cities, never to return again. We have entered upon the holiday trade when thousands of dollars will be expended and it is to be hoped that one and all of our people will forego purchasing in the cities, and give our own merchants that support which they merit as citizens and men who have invested their capital in our midst.

Don't forget that the sale of reserved seats for Miss KELLOGG's readings begins Monday morning.

SOMETHING NEW!—One of the leading features of New York City is the eagerness with which the people accept any decided improvement that may be introduced. The rush now in that city is for the new kind of Seidlitz Powders, which far excel the old kind, being as pleasant as lemonade. They are called Seidlitzine Seidlitz Powders—put up in two neat wooden boxes and sold for five cents each. CLARK B. PORTER, Agent.
