Mrs. J. A. MANVILLE is visiting friends at her former home in New York state.

Dr. S. C. ROSS, of Scranton, found time to pay his mother a flying visit, yesterday. He returns to Scranton to-day.

Mr. JUDSON HOLCOMB has been appointed to a position under the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives, at Washington.

Mrs. WHITCOMB received a dispatch yesterday announcing the alarming illness of her father, and immediately left for his home in Nunda, N. Y.

Our aged townsman, TOMMY BARNES, is seriously afflicted with the rheumatism and has been confined to his house most of the time for several weeks.

Prof. SHELDON takes advantage of the holiday vacation to consummate an alliance matrimonial with a young lady of the Empire state. The twain will be made one on next Wednesday.

Mrs. DAVID RAHM appears to be recovering from what her friends feared might prove a fatal illness. We hope soon to be able to announce her entire restoration to accustomed health.

Editor STRONG's wife of Dushore has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. W. F. DITTRICH in this place, and spent a day or two with the Misses DELPUECH, at the "Bear's Den," near Horn Brook.

Maj. E. W. HALE attained his 65th birthday on Tuesday last and the event was celebrated by a family gathering at the Major's hospitable mansion, "Woodside." Mr. HALE has the hearty congratulation of a host of friends on his good fortune in being so prosperously and happily situated. We wish him many more years of happiness.

The holiday vacation at the Institute will begin Monday and continue two weeks.

The marking of reserved seats for JOSH BILLINGS' lecture will commence at KIRBY'S Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

Dr. TAYLOR'S subject at the church of the Messiah, to-morrow, will be, in the morning, "How Christ helps us." At 7 p. m., "Whither I go ye cannot come."

Rev. Doctor GOODMAN of Elmira N. Y., will preach in the colored church here to-morrow, morning and evening. All are invited. Come and hear him.

Wyalusing always alive to all good works, has recently organized a live foreign missionary society under the auspices of the Wyalusing 2d Presbyterian church.

The people of Wyalusing will have a public Christmas tree at the Presbyterian church on Christmas eve. Music and other fitting exercises will be on the program.

The viewers appointed to report on the petition for a new voting district in Wysox township, reported to the court that the request of the petitioners ought to be granted.

The Cornet Band of Wyalusing, will give their popular drama "All that Glitters is not Gold," on Tuesday evening, Dec. 27th. They are said to have a company of well drilled amateurs.

Young JACKSON who was recently arrested in this place on a warrant charging him with forgery, and taken to Tioga county, has settled the matter and proceedings have been discontinued.

Mrs. CHARDE, a niece of the late Mrs. C. S. FITCH, and daughter of F. D. WERT, who lived in this place for a few months some six years ago, died in WilkesBarre Thursday. Mr. FITCH will attend the funeral Monday.

"I suffered horribly with inflammatory rheumatism," said Mr. Chas. V. Baker, of No. 313 Main street, Kansas City, Mo.; "I was helpless in bed for five weeks. St. Jacobs Oil was applied liberally, and one dozen bottles cured me thoroughly."

PATCH & TRACY purchased some very fine turkeys yesterday. Two of the largest weighed 28 1-2 pounds each. One of these was purchased by JOHN MCGOVERN and sent to his son-in-law, PETER MCCONNOMY, a Lancaster banker. The bird will furnish a sumptuous Christmas dinner.

"THE K. OF H. KNIGHTHOOD."—The lecture at Orwell on the above theme, by Rev. C. H. WRIGHT, of Towanda, on Wednesday evening last, was a masterly effort, and was thoroughly appreciated by all who heard it.

Owing to the very unfavorable weather the audience was small, but the Rev. gentleman kindly pledges us another opportunity of listening to him sometime in January. c.

CRUSHED TO DEATH BY THE CARS.—An old man named MICHAEL CROAK, who had been living with Mrs. CUMMINGS near the railroad bridge in North Towanda, was run over by the local freight moving north at the East Towanda station about eight o'clock last evening and killed. He was on the track but so much intoxicated that he was unable to get off and the engineer could not stop the train in time to save him. Both legs were entirely severed below the knees and the poor man died before Dr. JOHNSON, who was summoned reached him. The body was taken into the depot and an inquest will be held this morning.

Guiteau's divorced wife yesterday testified to the prisoner's sanity.

The President yesterday appointed Hon Benjamin Harris Brewster of Philadelphia, Attorney General.

Attorney-General and Mrs. MacVeagh have been visiting Mrs. Garfield at Cleveland.
