TOWANDA, PA., WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 21, 1881.

Personal.

Dr. PEPPER, who visited this place last Sunday is Provost instead of Dean of the University.

J. M. EDSON won the 35 pound turkey at the rifle match on the East Towanda range, Saturday. His score was 43 out of a possible 50.

During the temporary illness of MAURICE CONDON, the veteran baggage master at the upper depot, Mr. FRED WHYTE, jr., is very acceptably filling the responsible duties of his office.

The Reverend C. H. WRIGHT lectured before the Knights of Honor in Monroeton last night, and PERRY VANFLEET conducted the revival meeting in North Towanda, which continues with unabated interest.

Old Santa Claus appears to have an abundance of babies this season. The latest family to be made happy by the receipt of one of these invaluable Christmas presents, is that of Mr. R. H. PATCH, and it's a girl.

Our sanctum was invaded twice yesterday. The first time a good lady whose "rich brogue" would have delighted Gen. SCOTT, bearing a plump, neatly dressed turkey, and it isn't the first bird of the kind which we have received from the same source. Before we had time to put the gobbler out of sight a messenger from WM. SNYDER, Esq., of Sheshequan was announced with a basket of eels. The 'Squire says he didn't get sight of a deer in Sullivan county, but always keeps a supply of fish where he can put his hands upon them, and that he considers an eel the finest fish of the Susquehanna—quite equal to the choicest cut of venison.

May our thoughtful and generous friends have a "merry Christmas," and as good a dinner as they have furnished us.

The first sand was struck in the Wyoming county oil well, last week, at a depth of about seven hundred feet. The indications for oil are stronger than ever, and the stockholders are happy pro tem.

Otis Hathaway, Esq., 13 Rock street, Fall River, Mass., had a very bad attack of rheumatism, which racked him sorely. Finally he could scarcely move. St. Jacobs Oil was tried, and proved to be the only remedy that did him any good. Two weeks' use of it rendered him as chipper and as active as ever.

Monday forenoon, while engaged in sawing bed slats, M BARNHART, an employee at HOLLENBACK & DULLS mill, at Wilmot Centre, this county, had his lower jaw broken by a piece of board thrown from the saw. The injury is a serious one and will incapacitate him for work for some time to come. Drs. BARTLETT and QUICK were called and adjusted the fracture.

The election for Fire Department officers on Monday evening passed off very harmoniously. The caucus nominees were elected without opposition. The new Chief, Mr. A. D. COOLBAUGH is an experienced fireman, having run with the "machine" from early boyhood, as a member of the Naiad Co., and will efficiently discharge the duties of his office. D. M. WILCOCK and F. L. GRINNELL are among the most active members of our exceptionally well-drilled, efficient department, and will prove valuable assistants to the new Chief.

ANOTHER MAN KILLED BY THE CARS.—SAMUEL OTT, of Wysox township, was run over by the gravel train just this side of Wysanking station, Monday evening, and so badly injured that he died soon after. He seem to have been picking up coal on the track, and hearing the train approach, supposed it was on the main track and stepped upon the siding. The train proved to be the gravel train backing up to the bank to be loaded. He was knocked down and both legs horribly mangled. The unfortunate man was taken to his house near by where he died in about one hour. A coroner's jury, summoned by Justice CODDING rendered a verdict in accordance with the foregoing facts. The deceased was about 50 years old, and an industrious and highly esteemed citizen.

The arctic exploring ship, Jeanette, has been heard from. The vessel was crushed in the ice in Siberia, but the crew escaped in boats.

The appointment of Mr. Brewster, the counsel selected by Mr. McVeagh to conduct the prosecution against the Star Route men, does not look as though Mr. Arthur intended to see the prosecution abandoned.

The trial of David Monat, charged with irregularities in Philadelphia with election returns, was interrupted Monday by the transfer to the prisoner's dock of one of the jurors who assumed the name of a man absent from the city. The rest of the jury were discharged.
